

pounds sterling in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act then of the said new parish and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being and we have in respect of such sum agreed with the said George Stovin Venables and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Act the sum of one hundred pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall continue in our hands.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that we should also make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said district or new parish when duly licensed as before-mentioned a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint David's.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Llanyre and of the said parish of Llanafanfawr which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Newbridge-on-Wye.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of St. David's and by his successors Bishops of same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Newbridge-on-Wye being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Llanyre, in the county of Radnor and in the diocese of Saint David's which is bounded on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the parish of Disserth in the said county and diocese from the parish of Llanyre aforesaid at a point in the middle of Disserth Suspension Bridge which carries the public road leading from Disserth to Newbridge-on-Wye over the River Ithon and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of thirty-three and a half chains or thereabouts to the point where it bends sharply to the west and is joined by the ancient road or bridleway which leads across the high road from Newbridge to Llanyre and past the houses called or known as Pengelly to the house called or known as Lower Dole and continuing thence that is from the last-mentioned point of junction still north-westward along the middle of the said ancient road or bridleway for a distance of sixty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads along the northern side of the Llanyre Public Turbary towards Newbridge-on-Wye and extending thence first westward and then south-westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of fifty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction on the eastern bank of the River Wye with the turnpike road leading from Rhayader to Newbridge-on-Wye and extending thence that is from the last-described point of junction in a direction due west and in a straight line for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to the county boundary in the middle of the said River Wye which boundary divides the said parish of Llanyre from the hereinafter mentioned Hamlet of Llysdinam in the parish of Llanafanfawr in the county of Brecknock and in the diocese of Saint David's aforesaid; all which said hereinbefore described portion of the said parish of Llanyre is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the north that is to say upon the west and upon the south-east as follows upon the west by the county boundary in the middle of the said River Wye or in other words partly by the Hamlet of Llysdinam aforesaid and partly by the parish of Llanvihangel Bryn Pabuan in the said county of Brecknock and in the diocese of Saint David's aforesaid and upon the south-east by the River Ithon aforesaid or in other words by the parish of Disserth aforesaid.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Llanafanfawr which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the Hamlet of Llysdinam aforesaid; all which said hamlet is bounded upon its three sides that is to say upon the east upon the north and upon the south-west as follows: upon the east by the county boundary in the River Wye aforesaid or in other words by the said parish of Llanyre (being for the most part the above described portion of such parish) upon the north by the parish of Llanwrthwl and upon the south-west by the said parish of Llanvihangel Bryn Pabuan both which last-named parishes are in the county of Brecknock and diocese of Saint David's aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to
