

boundary for a distance of a mile and a quarter or thereabouts which said parliamentary boundary is for that distance the boundary which divides the said parish of Christ Church from the parish of Sopley in the county and diocese aforesaid thereby skirting the western side of Sopley Common and also skirting the western side of Avon Common to the point where the said parliamentary boundary diverges from the said parish boundary (near to the north-eastern corner of the plantation known as Fillybrook) and extending thence that is to say from the lastly mentioned point in a direction for the most part either westward or south-westward along the said parliamentary boundary for a distance of nearly two miles to a point at or near to the cottage called or known as Greenland at the northern end of the occupation road or footway which leads from the said cottage into the road leading from Herne Bridge to East Parley and extending thence that is from the last described point southward for a distance of forty-four chains or thereabouts along the middle of the last described occupation road or footway to its junction with the road leading from Herne Bridge to East Parley as aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of four and half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading to Merritown and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts to its junction with the public footpath leading from Merritown to Parley Green and extending thence generally westward along the middle of the last-described public footpath for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to a point at or near to the northern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 637 upon the ordnance survey map of the said parish of Christ Church on the  $\frac{1}{2500}$  scale, published in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the close numbered 604 upon the same maps and extending thence that is from the last-described point south-westward along the said fence for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with the fence or watercourse which forms the eastern boundary of the Ozier Bed forming a part of the close numbered 638 upon the said maps and extending thence generally south-eastward along the last-described fence or watercourse for a distance of five and a half-chains or thereabouts to the River Stour aforesaid and extending thence due southward and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the said River Stour which boundary divides the said parish of Christ Church from the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Holdenhurst aforesaid; all which said part of the parish of Christ Church aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining side other than upon the east, the north and the west as aforesaid that is to say upon the south by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Holdenhurst aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burials, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before such representation is so considered: provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-eighth December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, to