AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Tilehurst in the county of Berks and in the diocese of Oxford.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Tilehurst which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas by a certain deed or indenture bearing date on or about the sixth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of ‘The New Parishes Acts 1843, 1844 and 1856’ or some or one of them between John Henry Blagrave of Calcot Park, near Reading in the said county of Berks Esquire of the first, part us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the second part and George Pringle of No. 10 Whitehall-place in the city of Westminster, Esquire of the third part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said John Henry Blagrave did grant and confirm unto said George Pringle and his heirs a certain piece of ground situate in Broad-street in the town of Reading aforesaid which same piece of ground is more particularly described in the said deed or indenture together with the messuage or dwelling-house and buildings erected and standing upon the said piece of ground and known as No. 100 Broad-street aforesaid subject nevertheless to the indenture of lease the particulars of which are set forth in the said deed to have and to hold the said piece of ground with the messuage or dwelling-house and buildings thereon erected and standing as aforesaid unto the said George Pringle and his heirs to the use and intent that the minister of the said proposed district (intended as is mentioned in the said deed or indenture to be named ‘The District of Saint George Tilehurst,’) so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act then the incumbent of such new parish and his or their successors ministers or incumbents of the said proposed district or new parish for the time being shall for ever have receive and take one perpetual clear yearly rent-charge or net annual sum of fifty pounds to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon the said hereditaments and premises above mentioned.

“And whereas by a certain other deed or indenture also bearing date the sixth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and likewise made and expressed to be made under the provisions of ‘The New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844 and 1856’ or some or one of them between the Reverend John William Routh rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Tilehurst of the first part the President and Scholars of the College of Saint Mary Magdalene in the University of Oxford, the patrons of the same rectory of the second part the Right Reverend John Fielder Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford of the third part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part (which said last-mentioned deed or indenture is likewise intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division
