In the Matter of John Douglas, of 189, Tottenham Court-road, in the county of Middlesex, a Bankrupt. Before Mr. Registrar Pepsy, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON hearing Mr. Charles Gasquet (of the firm of Gasquet and Metcalfe), the Solicitors for the Registrar-Trustee, and upon reading a report of the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 16th day of June, 1882, reporting:—1stly. That as shown by the report of the executors of the late Trustee, filed with the Comptroller in Bankruptcy, there is no further estate to be realized; 2ndly. That as appears by the accounts of the late Trustee rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy (a summary of which is set forth in the said report), the estate was realized by him, and a dividend of six shillings and eight pence in the pound was paid to creditors, leaving a balance in his hands of £28 5s. 8d., which amount has since been paid into Court by his executors; 3rdly. That it has not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupt has since the death of the late Trustee acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and no creditor appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that:—1stly. That as shown by the report of the executors of the late Trustee, filed with the Comptroller in Bankruptcy, there is no further estate to be realized; 2ndly. That as appears by the accounts of the late Trustee rendered to the Comptroller in Bankruptcy (a summary of which is set forth in the said report), the estate was realized by him, and a dividend of six shillings and eight pence in the pound was paid to creditors, leaving a balance in his hands of £28 5s. 8d., which amount has since been paid into Court by his executors; 3rdly. That it has not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupt has since the death of the late Trustee acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Douglas has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 18th day of July, 1882.
