

the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the said proposed district Miss Lucy Nicholson, of No. 13, Lloyd-square, Clerkenwell, Spinster, has (firstly) contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England the capital sum of one thousand two hundred and forty-two pounds, and we have in respect thereof agreed with the said Lucy Nicholson and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half yearly payments on the the first day of May and on the first day of November to the minister for the time being of the said proposed district when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act then to the incumbent of the said new parish the yearly sum of forty-one pounds and eight shillings in each and every year during which the said capital sum shall remain in our hands ; and the said Lucy Nicholson has (secondly) transferred the sum of one thousand four hundred and sixty-five pounds, four pounds per centum funded debt of the Glasgow and South Western Railway Company into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us for the permanent endowment of the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish, and the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed as aforesaid, and the same Lucy Nicholson has (thirdly) transferred a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds, four pounds per centum debenture stock of the North Eastern Railway Company into our name in the books of the same Company to be held in trust by us for the further permanent endowment of the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish, and the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said lastly mentioned sum of stock to be receivable by the said minister or incumbent for the time being when he shall have been duly licensed as aforesaid.

“And whereas the said capital sum of one thousand two hundred and forty-two pounds and the said sum of one thousand four hundred and sixty-five pounds, four pounds per centum funded debt of the Glasgow and South Western Railway Company and the said sum of two thousand five hundred pounds, four pounds per centum debenture stock of the North Eastern Railway Company have been so provided as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of our common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as aforesaid two several grants of fifty pounds per annum each, or in other words an aggregate grant of one hundred pounds per annum and upon the further understanding that such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said Lucy Nicholson for the first turn and thereafter to the five persons hereinafter named and described whom she has nominated to us for that purpose.

“And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such aggregate grant of one hundred pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said now parish of Saint Philip Clerkenwell which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of the Holy Redeemer Clerkenwell.’”

“And we further recommend and propose that the right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised for one turn of nomination and that the first turn only by the said Lucy Nicholson or by her heirs and assigns and that all the rest and residue and remainder of the said right of patronage and nomination of the minister or incumbent of the same district or new parish as the case may be shall in like manner be assigned to and be vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the Reverend Edward Francis Russell now curate of Saint Albans, Holborn, in the said diocese of London Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Richard Meux Benson now vicar of Saint John's Cowley in the diocese of Oxford Clerk in Holy Orders, Charles Lindley Wood of number 10 Belgrave-square in the said county of Middlesex Esquire commonly called the Honourable Charles Lindley Wood, Etheldreda Anna Benett of number 13 Lloyd-square Clerkenwell aforesaid Spinster and Emmeline Franks also of number 13 Lloyd-square Clerkenwell aforesaid Spinster their heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.
