

Simonds Müller, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the same vicarage, have by an instrument, bearing date on or about the twenty-first day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Hopton-by-Lowestoft that the said new church of Saint Margaret, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church, also dedicated to Saint Margaret, in the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, of the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, at Norwich aforesaid, and of the said John Simonds Müller, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Margaret, situate within the said parish of Hopton-by-Lowestoft, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Margaret as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Hopton-by-Lowestoft, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Margaret, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Margaret, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church, dedicated to Saint Margaret as aforesaid, of the said parish of Hopton-by-Lowestoft, or to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Margaret (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Hopton-by-Lowestoft), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said John Thomas, Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity at Norwich, have affixed their common or corporate seal, and the said John Simonds Müller has set his hand and affixed his seal, this twenty-second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.
