W. ANDREW JONES, 33, King-street, Manchester.

To William Price, of Stanley-road, Carshalton, in the county of Surrey.

TAKE notice, that on the 12th day of May, 1882, a writ was issued against you in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in a certain action of Kimpton v. Price and another, 1882, K., 482, at the suit of Henry Kimpton, claiming to have an account taken of what is due to him for principal, interest, and costs on a mortgage, dated the 4th day of May, 1878, and an agreement of the same date, and that the mortgage may be enforced by foreclosure or sale, and for specific performance of an agreement, dated the 4th April, 1878, and made between the defendant Crispe, of the one part, and the defendant Price, of the other part, and of the covenant of the defendant Crispe, contained in the said mortgage, to grant leases of certain messuages and hereditaments at South Norwood, in the parish of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, and for a Receiver, and for an Injunction. And also take notice, that by an Order of Mr. Justice Fry, the Judge of the said Division to whom the said action is assigned, dated the 22nd of June, 1882, it was ordered that service of the said writ by affixing a copy thereof, together with a copy of this Order, to the front door of the defendant, William Price's, residence, at Stanley-road, Carshalton, in the county of Surrey, and by inserting this advertisement once in the London Gazette, and once in the Times newspaper should be deemed good service of the said writ of summons upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you in the said Chancery Division with eight days after such service, the plaintiff may proceed in the said action and judgment may be given in your absence.—Dated the 20th day of July, 1882.

ROOKS and COMPY., 16, King-street, Cheapside, E.C., Plaintiff's Solicitors.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Judgment of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, made in a cause Batten v. Wedgwood Coal and Iron Company Limited, 1875, B., No. 257, with the approbation of Mr. Justice Kay, the Judge to whose Court the said cause is attached, by Mr. Joseph Cooksey, the person appointed by the said Judge, at the North Stafford Hotel, Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, on Wednesday, the 6th September, 1882, at three for four o'clock in the afternoon, in one lot, and as a going concern:—

A certain leasehold property, situate near New Chapel, in the parish of Wolstanton, in the said county of Stafford, comprising leasehold collieries, plant, and machinery, called the Wedgwood, Brindley Ford and Lane Ends Collieries, containing about 297 acres of mineral land, together with the loose stock, stores, tools, implements, and other effects, which are to be taken at a valuation, held as to the Wedgwood and Brindley Ford Collieries for an unexpired term of 29½ years from the 23rd March,
