Cádiz, Novemb. 17.

WE have an account, That the Moors have taken the Town of Larache, with a great Slaughter of the Spaniards, who defended themselves with extraordinary Bravery, but being overpowered by the great number of fresh Troops which the Enemy still poured in upon them: Those of the Garison, that were left, to the number of 4 or 500, retired into a small Cattle, where they capitulated: And four Spanish Men of War, that were forced from thence by bad Weather, are ordered to return, with the first fair Wind, to bring them off. It's said, we have lost above 1500 Men in the defence of this place.

Rome, Decemb. 3. The Pope held on Monday last a publick Consistory, where he resolv'd to grant an Universal Jubilee. Prince Antonio Ottoboni is made General of the Ecclesiastical State; and his Brother, Don Marco Ottoboni, General of the Gallies. The Cardinal of Furstemberg parted from hence privately the last week: And the Cardinal d'Este is return'd to Modena. It's said the Pope will assist the Venetians with five Regiments of Foot; one whereof is to be employ'd in Dalmatia, and the other four in the Levant.

Venice, Nov. 26. On Sunday last the Procurator Cornaro, Proveditor-General at Sea, was chosen by the Great Council Captain-General of the Forces of the Republick in the Levant. By two Vessels come from Smirna we have an account, that the Turks had taken a Privateer of Leghorn, that was cruising in the Archipelago, being a Ship of 40 Guns, commanded by Paolo Barbieri, and had carried her to Constantinople. We hear from Dalmatia, that the Bassa of Arcegovina had attack'd, with 4000 Men, the Ports into which General Moino lately put Garisons on the Frontiers of the Province of Trebigny, and had obliged our Troops to surrender the same, upon condition to march out with their Arms and Baggage.

Leghorne, Novemb. 28. By a Vessel come lately from Argiers, we have the Confirmation of the French having made a Peace with that Government; but how Honourable the Terms of it are for the Crown of France, will appear by an Abstract of the Articles, which follows.

I. That the French shall restore the five Algerine Men of War, which they took before the Declaration of the War, with their Men, Goods and Furniture.

II. That the French shall deliver to the Algerines as many Turkish Slaves as there were Christians on Board the said Ships at the time of their Capture, or else shall pay 150 pieces of Eight per Head.

III. That the French shall pay for Cordoglies Ship, burnt by their means before Oran, 50000 pieces of Eight, being a new Ship of Forty Guns.

IV. The Turks that are Slaves in France shall be ransom'd for 150, and the Moors for 100 pieces of Eight per Head.

V. The Christians that are Slaves in Argiers are to agree with their Patrons for their Liberty as well as they can; only those that were made such in time of Peace shall be free: And that Government shall give the French Satisfaction for five small Vessels that were seiz'd upon at Argiers at the time of the Capture.

VI. The French shall not cruise on the Coast of Argiers on Forfeiture of the Ships, that shall be taken cruising there.

VII. The French Merchant Ships shall be visited by the Algerines, who may take out of them what Strangers they find on Board.

VIII. The French Men of War, so soon as they come to an Anchor before Argiers, are to salute the Town first.

IX. A Considerable Quantity of Powder, Shot, Bombs, and six Mortar-pieces, are promis'd by the French for Present, as also an Engineer to fire them.

X. No Hostilities to be committed after 22 days, reckoning from the Day of the Signing of these Articles.

Vicinia, Decemb. 8. The Duke of Holstein, having, after the Death of General Piccolomini, taken upon him the Command of the Imperial Forces, he march'd with his own Regiment, the Cuirassiers of Hanouer, and the Hussars of Czaki, to Orist, and being there informed, that the Inhabitants of Suppo, who had some time before abandoned that place, were returned thither with their Wives and Children, upon the report of the Imperialists being gone into their Winter-quarters, he continued his march with great diligence, and came the 10th of the last month within sight of the Town; a Party of about 60 Germans and Hussars, that was ordered to advance to observe the posture of the Enemy, found their Vanguard, being about 300 Men, advantageously posted not far from the place, with whom they skirmish'd till the Lieutenant-Colonel of Hannover came to their Assistance with two Squadrons; the Turks made a good defence, but were at last beaten from their Post with the loss of 50 of their Men kill'd upon the place. This occasion'd a great alarm in the Town; and the Bassa of Uscopia, who, upon the News of our march, had drawn what force he could together, advanced towards us with 6000 Men; but our Forces charged them with that Vigor, that they soon put them into Confusion. The Enemy fled, and our Men pursued them above an hour, killing 2000, and taking many Prisoners; with the loss on our side of about 70 Men; Our Troops entred the Town, and, after some opposition from the Inhabitants, made themselves Masters of it; the Plunder thereof was given to the Soldiers, and the Town, not being tenable, was afterwards burnt. From thence our Forces march'd towards Czemet, and met a Party of 300 Turks, who had been sent towards Uscopia; and knew nothing of our march, of whom they kill'd 150, the rest flying to the Mountains. This account we have by Letters written at Czemet the 11th of the last month.

Ausbourg, Decemb. 10. On the fourth instant my Lord Paget, Envoy Extraordinary from his Majesty of Great Britain, had his first Audience of the Emperor and the Empress; and the 7th of the King of Hungary, being conducted thereunto with the accustomed Ceremonies. On the 9th the Baron of Gerdsorp, and the Baron Friesen, deputed by the Elector of Saxony, to assist on his part at the Meeting of the Electors that's going to be held here, had their publick Audience of the Emperor; As the Heer Dankelman, who is come in the same Quality from the Elector of Brandenburg, had this day. The Count de Salsbery, whom the Emperor is sending to the Electors of Brandenburg and Saxony, is on his departure.

Coigne, Decemb. 20. The French have burnt several Villages in the Country of Juliers; but it's said the Brandenburg Troops fell upon them in their return, and took divers Prisoners. The States of this Diocese have agreed to pay the Brandenburgers 30000 Crowns. Prince Ambury Lauss of Neubourg, Great Master of the Teutonic Order, passed through this place four days ago in his way towards Holland, intending to accompany the Queen his Sister in her Voyage to Spain.

Brussels, Dec. 20. The Sieur de Philippeau, the French Envoy, who was lately here, (and for whom the Marshal d'Humieres had, by a Trumpeter, desired a 2d Passport) returned hither on the 18th instant; the next day he had Audience of our Governor-General; His Errand was to solicit the taking off the Prohibition of French Goods, especially Wines, and to threaten Fire and Sword in case we persist therein. And this day he was sent back with an Answer which is not like to be very pleasing to the French. In the mean time we hear that the Marshal d'Humieres has recalled all Passports granted to the Subjects of Spain; and it's believed that upon the return of this Envoy, he will likewise revoke all Safeguards and Contributions.

Hague, Decemb. 23. The 17th instant the Count d'Oxenstjerne Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sweden, had Audience of the States General. Five Battalions are ordered to march from Maftricht towards the Country of Juliers, where they are to quarter to prevent the Enemies Incurions into that Country. The Letters from Germany give great hopes of a Peace with the Turks. It's said that Admiral Ruffel is arrived with the Ships under his command at Sebonewell on the Coast of Zealand.

Paris, Dec. 21. Several things have already happened which make people think this Court will in a short time have as little reason to be satisfied with the present Pope as they had with his Predecessor. They write from Poland that a Marriage is concluded between that Kings eldest Son and a Princess of Newburg, which is very unwelcome News to us here. We are told that the Duke of Savoy is very much pressed by the Emperor and King of Spain to quit his Neutrality.

Falmouth, Decemb. 12. Yesterday came in here 2 or 3 small Vessels from Scilly, which report, that they saw, on Monday last, the Squadron under the Command of the Lord Berkeley, being about 30 Sail, standing to the Southward.

Plymouth, Decemb. 15. Yesterday arrived here Their Majesties Ships the Tonk and Kings-Fisher, from the Lord Berkeley's Squadron, which they left last Thursday about 30 Leagues West of Scilly. They came to convoy the Elizabeth of London from Jamaica; the Turky-Merchant from Virginia; and a Dutch Merchant Man from Surinam. These 3 Ships had not heard of the War till they fell in with our Squadron. Last night arrived here the Providence of London from the Canaries.
