

Order is hereby declared to be an Area infected with swine-fever.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the tenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

An area comprising the whole of the parishes of Castle Thorpe, Hanslope, and Stoke Goldington, and including all detached portions of the same or other parishes in the county of Buckingham, and extra-parochial places in the same county which are surrounded wholly or in part by the before-named parishes or any or either of them.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of November, 1882.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, defining a part of the Port of Hartlepool, in the county of Durham, as a foreign animals wharf: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date when this revocation takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

C. L. Peel.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens,
November 9, 1882.*

THE Board of Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a translation of a Note addressed to Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, by the Spanish Minister of State, enclosing copies of the regulations relating to a National Exhibition in connection with mining and metallurgy, and ceramic and glass manufactures, to be held at Madrid in the month of April next, and expressing the satisfaction which the presence of foreign exhibits would afford to the Spanish Government. It appears that admission will be granted to such machinery, inventions, implements, and instruments of foreign workmanship as may be adapted to the branches of industry comprised in the Exhibition, and that other productions of foreign manufacture will be admitted on its being in each case authentically proved by their exhibitors that they have been manufactured exclusively from minerals of Spanish origin. A copy of the regulations may be seen on application at the Commercial Department, Board of Trade.
