

PART III.

ARRIVALS WITH CLEAN BILLS.

ART. 6. (1.) Throughout the whole season of the return of pilgrims, ships coming from the Hedjaz, or any other port of the Arabian coast of the Red Sea, with clean bills of health and having pilgrims on board, must go to Tor, there to undergo an observation of 48 hours after complete disembarkation of pilgrims.

(2.) The pilgrims only will be disembarked at the quarantine camp.

(3.) After having undergone this observation of 48 hours, the ships will be admitted to free pratique at Suez, if the medical visit is favourable.

(4.) Nevertheless only pilgrims who are Egyptian or resident in Egypt, and bearing a card of residence, will be allowed to land at Suez.

(5.) With respect to other pilgrims of foreign nationality the regulation set forth in paragraph 3 of Article 3 will be followed.

(6.) The trans-shipment of pilgrims is strictly forbidden at all Egyptian ports.

(7.) Ships coming from the Hedjaz, or a port of the Arabian coast of the Red Sea, with clean bills of health, not having on board pilgrims or the like, and not having had any suspicious case during the voyage, will be admitted to free pratique at Suez after a favourable medical visit.

ART. 7. Ships leaving the Hedjaz with clean bills of health, and having on board pilgrims whose destination is a port of the African coast of the Red Sea, are authorized to go to Souakim, there to undergo the 48 hours' observation, accompanied by disembarkation of passengers at the quarantine camp.

ART. 8. Caravans and pilgrims coming by land will be subjected to an observation of 48 hours at Mcses' Wells and to a medical visit.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

Sanitary officers of the Hedjaz are requested to give a copy of these regulations to every master on his arrival, and to endorse upon the bill of health that this has been done.

All previous provisions which are contrary to the present regulations are and remain revoked.
