PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty was this day pleased to appoint Herbert Manson Suft, Esquire, to exercise all the powers and to perform all the functions of the Clerk of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary during his absence.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 25th day of November, 1882, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council of the 30th December 1878 to sanction the promotion of Captain His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, K.G., K.T., K.P., G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., Personal Aide-de-Camp to Your Majesty, to the rank of Rear-Admiral, such promotion to be additional to the authorised numbers as established by certain of Your Majesty's Orders in Council and Regulations until the time at which he would be entitled to such promotion by Seniority as Captain when he is to be considered as absorbing a vacancy.

“And whereas we are of opinion that it is now desirable to advance His Royal Highness to the rank of Vice Admiral, we would therefore submit that Your Majesty be pleased to empower us to confer such advancement under conditions similar to those under which His Royal Highness was promoted to be Rear Admiral.

“And we would moreover submit that should His Royal Highness be promoted to the rank of Admiral, either by Seniority as Vice Admiral or otherwise, he may be considered as additional to the authorised numbers under the same conditions until the time he would have attained such position according to his Seniority as Captain.”

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
