chapelry of Saint Luke Middlestown and out of the parish of Thornhill all in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation for effecting the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate within the limits of the ancient parochial chapelry of Up Holland in the parish of Wigan in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool and also for effecting the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate within the limits of the ancient parochial chapelry of Billinge in the said parish of Wigan.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the forty-first and forty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of the Truro Chapter Act 1878 have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with reference to the Truro Chapter Endowment Fund in the same Act mentioned.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted that when a canonry in the Cathedral Church of Exeter (other than the one held by the Archdeacon of Exeter) first becomes vacant after the passing of this Act then at the expiration of twelve months after the quarter day which next follows such vacancy—

"(1.) The canonry so vacant shall be annexed to the Archdeaconry of Exeter and save as regards the charge in favour of the Archdeaconry of Cornwall shall be subject to the same laws and customs particularly those in respect of the income ceasing on the death of the canon as the canonry is subject to which at the date of the vacancy is annexed to the Archdeaconry of Exeter; and

"(2.) The canonry which at the said date is annexed to the Archdeaconry of Exeter shall be vacated by the person then Archdeacon of Exeter and shall be suspended and the endowment thereof, with the exception of the house attached thereto shall be transferred to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Truro, if then founded, and if not to the Truro Chapter Endowment Fund.

"And whereas it is by the same Act enacted that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England may from time to time submit for the approval of Your Majesty in Council a scheme or schemes inter alia transferring to the Dean and Chapter of Truro or to the Truro Chapter Endowment Fund the endowment of the Canonry of Exeter directed to be so transferred as aforesaid.

"And whereas since the passing of the said Act a canonry in the Cathedral Church of Exeter (other than the one held by the Archdeacon of Exeter) has become vacant the same being the canonry vacated by the death of the Reverend Edward Charles Harington Clerk in Holy Orders Chancellor of the said Cathedral Church of Exeter which occurred on or about the fourteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

"And whereas the said canonry so vacated as last aforesaid became under the hereinbefore recited provisions of the said Act annexed to the Archdeaconry of Exeter upon the expiration of twelve months after the quarter day which next followed the same vacancy that is to say upon the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and from the same date the canonry theretofore annexed to the Archdeaconry of Exeter was under the same provisions vacated by the then Archdeacon of Exeter and became suspended.

"And whereas the endowment of the said canonry consists in addition to a house of residence situate at Exeter of a share of the divisible corporate revenues of the Cathedral Church of Exeter producing an annual income of one thousand pounds or thereabouts but it is charged with the payment to the Archdeacon of Cornwall of one-third part of the same annual income or thereabouts.

"And whereas on the first vacancy after the passing of the said Act in the Archdeaconry of Cornwall the amount payable to the archdeacon out of the income of the said last-named canonry will not exceed two hundred pounds as is provided by the same Act.

"And whereas a Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Truro has not yet been founded.

"Now therefore we the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the endowment of the canonry in the Cathedral Church of Exeter which on the twenty-ninth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two became suspended as aforesaid shall as from the same date with the exception of the house of residence situate at Exeter and subject to the aforesaid charge in favour of the Archdeaconry of Cornwall be transferred to and form part of the Truro Chapter Endowment Fund and shall be held by us upon and for the trusts relating to the same fund in the said Act mentioned or referred to."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.
