Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1882.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before such representation is so considered: provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the twenty-sixth of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Hornsea, in the county of York, in the words following:—

HORNSEA IN HOLDERNESS.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Hornsea in Holderness, and in the churchyard except in now existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and except also in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of any human remains except decayed bones.

And whereas Her Majesty was also pleased by Her Order in Council of the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Malpas, in the words following:—

MALPAS, CHESHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Malpas, in the county of Chester; and in the churchyard after the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, except in now completed vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in other graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains, for the burial of the widowers or widows of those already buried therein.

And whereas Her Majesty was also pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, to direct the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Llanbedr, Denbighshire, in the words following:

LLANBEDR, DENBIGHSHIRE.—In Llanbedr churchyard, except in graves which can be opened without the exposure of remains; and it is also ordered that no body be buried within four feet of the surface of the ground, except in walled graves in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner.

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the above-named parishes ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that for the protection of the public health the said Orders of Her Majesty in Council should be varied as follows:—

HORNSEA.—By the omission in the Order in Council of the twenty-sixth October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, of the words after "churchyard" and by the substitution of the following:—

"After the first September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, except as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

"(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth.

"(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth."

MALPAS.—By the omission in the Order in Council of the thirtieth September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, of the words after "Chester," and by the substitution of the following:—

"And in the old part of the churchyard, except as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing, burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

"(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth:

"And also in the new part of the churchyard except as follows: (a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing, burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

"(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of "so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth:

"(c.) In such earthen graves now existing, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred, viz.: widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth."

LLANBEDR.—By varying the Order in Council of the twelfth April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, as follows:—"That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in Llanbedr Old Church, in the county of Denbigh; and also in the old churchyard, except as follows:—In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz.: widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-sixth day of January.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the parish churchyard of Oystermouth, in the county of Glamorgan, to the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Brampton, in the county of Huntingdon, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the churchyard of the parish of Cockfield, in the county of Durham, to the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Paulton, in the county of Somerset, to the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

In the churchyard of Easington-in-Holderness, in the county of York, to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the churchyard of Old Malton, in the county of York, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In Christchurch Churchyard, in the county of Monmouth, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the churchyard of Warcop, in the county of Westmorland, to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the churchyard of Womersley, in the county of York, to the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth:

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows, widowers, parents and children, as can be buried at or below that depth:

(d.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard, as have never before been buried in, and, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many of the members of the families to whom they have been allotted, as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

CONDOVER.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Condover, in the county of Salop; and also in the old part of the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the old part of the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth:

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the old part of the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those already interred therein, viz., widows and widowers, as can be buried at or below that depth.

CLEOBURY MORTIMER.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Cleobury Mortimer, in the county of Salop, and also in the old part of the churchyard, except as follows: In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and that in the new part of the churchyard, added in 1856, the regulations for new burial-grounds, omitting Nos. 1 and 2, be observed, and that no interment be permitted within forty-two yards of the public well.

ST. MARGARET'S, DURHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in that portion of the new churchyard, added in 1820, of St. Margaret, in the city and county of Durham, that lies to the north-east of the pathway leading from the old churchyard to the entrance in South-street, except as follows: In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the said churchyard burials may be allowed, on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

ST. OSWALD, DURHAM.—That the regulations for new burial-grounds, omitting Nos. 1, 2 and 4, be observed in the additional churchyard of St. Oswald, in the city and county of Durham.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-sixth day of January.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 30th day of November, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the borough of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, have presented a Petition to Her Majesty stating that Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards of Saint Peter's, at Stoke, Saint Thomas, Penkhull, and Holy Trinity, Hartshill, situate within the parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, representing that there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent under the powers of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," and praying that powers may be vested in the Town Council of the said borough of Stoke-upon-Trent for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Stoke-upon-Trent, under the provisions of the Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provisions for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such Petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the borough of Stoke-upon-Trent, one month at least before the said twenty-sixth day of January.

WHEREAS by section 3 of the "Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880," the killing and taking of wild birds were prohibited for the time between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in each year, and by the 8th section power was given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds, or any of them, was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by order of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the county of Huntingdon, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds is prohibited shall be varied in the county of Huntingdon so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild birds is prohibited, shall be varied in the county of Huntingdon, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, this 8th day of December, 1882.

W. V. Harcourt.

WHEREAS by Section 3 of the "Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880," the killing and taking of wild birds were prohibited for the time between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in each year, and by the 8th section power was given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds, or any of them, was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by order of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the Isle of Ely, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds is prohibited shall be varied in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August in each year, both dates inclusive.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild birds is prohibited, shall be varied in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Civil Service Commission, December 12, 1882.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for situations as Third Class Clerk in the Sasines Department of the General Register House, Edinburgh, will be held in Edinburgh, on Monday, the 15th January, 1883, and following days, under the Special Regulations dated the 27th September, 1881, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

The number of vacancies to be filled will be the number existing at the time of the examination.

The number at present existing is three.

A Preliminary Examination will be held in Edinburgh, on Tuesday, the 2nd January, 1883.

No person will be admitted to the Preliminary Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 22nd December, 1882, an "application" in the Candidate's own handwriting on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary, Civil Service Commission at once.

Civil Service Commission, December 12, 1882.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that a Competitive Examination for Boy Clerkships of the Lower Division of the Civil Service will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 23rd and 24th of January, 1883, under the Regulations issued 14th June, 1881, and amended by notice in the London Gazette dated 1st August, 1882. The number of persons to be selected at this examination is 95.

When a vacancy occurs in any one of the cities above mentioned it will be offered to the Candidate highest on the list at the time, but he will not be required to accept it, and quit his place of residence, if he prefers to wait for the chance of obtaining an appointment at that place during his period of eligibility. All the vacancies to which this notice refers will, it is expected, be in London.

No person will be admitted to compete from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 12th of January, 1883, an "application" in the handwriting of the Candidate on the prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

NOTICE.

ARTILLERY RANGES ACTS, 1862 AND 1882.

WHEREAS by the Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, after reciting therein to the effect that certain lands in the parishes of Shoebury and Wakering, in the county of Essex (of which the particulars were set forth in the schedule to the Act, and were shown on the plan thereof deposited with the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty), were vested in or possessed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, in trust for Her Majesty. And further that such lands and premises had been used and appropriated for the practice of Artillery, and that it was expedient that the said premises should be kept free from all the anchorage or grounding of vessels, barges, and other craft, it was, amongst other things, enacted that so long as the lands and premises mentioned in the schedule to the said Act should remain vested in or be possessed by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the War Department in trust for Her Majesty, he should, from time to time, as occasion might require, cause to be marked out and distinguished by buoys or other sufficient marks to be erected or fixed upon the said lands and premises, such spaces or distances thereon as he might judge necessary to be kept free from all anchorage or grounding of vessels of any kind, and order and direct that the several spaces or distances so marked out and distinguished should be and remain as ranges for Artillery Practice freed from all rights of anchorage or grounding thereon. And it was further enacted that, whenever the said Secretary should have marked out and appropriated any spaces or distances for ranges as aforesaid, all rights, if any, of anchorage and grounding over and upon the same should cease and determine, and a notification thereof should be made to the Lords of the Admiralty, and be published as therein mentioned. And further, that if any vessel, barge, or other craft, unless forced to remain thereon by stress of weather or other unavoidable accident, should anchor or ground upon any range marked out in pursuance of the said Act, then the owner or master of such vessel, barge, or other craft, as the case might be, should on conviction thereof before any Justice or Justices of the Peace forfeit and pay a sum not less than forty shillings and not exceeding five pounds for every offence.

And whereas after the passing of the said Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, certain spaces or distances for ranges were, under the provisions thereof, duly marked out and distinguished by buoys and appropriated for ranges as aforesaid, and notification thereof was duly made and published as provided by the same Act.

And whereas by the Artillery Ranges Act, 1882, after noticing the Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, and reciting that it was necessary for the public service to extend the ranges for artillery to the lands described in the schedule to the Act now in recital, and shown on a plan signed by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, in the same Act referred to as the Secretary of State, and deposited with the Board of Trade, it was, amongst other things, enacted that upon the passing of that Act the Secretary of State, acting on behalf of Her Majesty for the public service, might take and keep possession of the lands described in the schedule to the same Act, and might notify such taking of possession in manner required by section 2 of the Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, with respect to the appropriation of spaces as ranges for artillery practice, and upon such notification the Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, should extend to the lands described in the schedule to the Act now in recital in like manner as if they were described in the schedule to the Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, and as if the parishes referred to in section 2, and the manors mentioned in section 4 of the said Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, included respectively the parishes and manors, if any, in which the lands described in the schedule to the Act now in recital were situate.

And whereas the said Secretary of State, acting on behalf of Her Majesty for the public service, has, under the said Artillery Ranges Act, 1882, taken possession of the lands described in the schedule to that Act, and has notified such taking possession in manner mentioned in the same Act.

Now notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has, under the provisions of the said Artillery Ranges Acts, 1862 and 1882 respectively, caused to be marked out and distinguished by buoys certain spaces or distances, being further part of the lands and premises mentioned in the schedule to the said Artillery Ranges Act, 1862, and also certain spaces or distances, being lands described in the schedule to the said Artillery Ranges Act, 1882, to be respectively kept free from all anchorage or grounding of vessels of any kind, and that he hereby orders and directs that the several spaces and distances so respectively marked out and distinguished as aforesaid shall be and remain as ranges for artillery practice freed from all rights of anchorage or grounding thereon, and further, that he hereby warns all persons from anchoring or mooring any vessel, barge, or other craft upon the said ranges so marked out as aforesaid, under the penalty prescribed by the said Artillery Ranges Act, 1862.

Dated this eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

By order of the said Secretary of State,
A. K. Stephenson, Solicitor for the Affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury.

THE Netherlands Government has given notice, on the authority of the Master of the pilot cutter, "Vlissengen No. 1," that the English barque "Nelson" (the mast heads showing above water) lies sunk in about 17 fathoms water, with Schouwen principal lighthouse bearing south, distant 16 miles—or in lat. 51° 55' 20" N., long. 3° 37' 20" E.

With reference to the above, further information has been received from the German Government, dated 4th November, 1882, that the Commander of the North German Lloyd steam vessel "Weser," has reported having passed a sunken wreck (the top gallant mast showing above water), lying with Schouwen Bank Light-vessel bearing S.W. by W., distant 11 miles—or in lat. 51° 58' 0" N., long. 3° 34' 10" E.

As these accounts may refer to the same wreck, the positions given must be considered approximate, Mariners are cautioned accordingly.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation 16½° Westerly in 1882.]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 255.)—NORWAY.—SOUTH COAST.

Harbour Lights at Lillesand.

THE Norwegian Government has given notice, that on 20th November, 1882, a harbour light would be exhibited from a building erected at the south-east corner of the Keeper's dwelling on Saltholm, western side of Lillesand Harbour Entrance:—

The light, of the fourth order, is visible seaward between the bearings of N. 36° W. (leading half a cable westward of Malmgrund) and N. 19° E. (leading one cable eastward of Reierskjaergrund—stone and rock shoal—and Urholmgrund). Nebgrund, with a depth of 4 fathoms over it, lies at the edge of the limit of the light. Over Nordboern and Langboen and about one cable's length on each side—from N. 16° W. to N. 13° E.—the light is a flashing white light (alternate flash and eclipse every second); but in the channels on each side, between Reierskjaergrund and Langboen, and between Nordboern and Malmgrund, it is a fixed white light. It is elevated 46 feet above the sea, and should be seen in clear weather from a distance of 10 miles.

The light also leads into Lillesand Harbour.

The building, 36 feet high, is coloured white.

Position, lat. 58° 13' 55" N., long. 8° 24' 45" E.

Also, that on the same date, a fixed red light would be exhibited from the Custom House at Lillesand.

(No. 256.)—NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN.—NOVA SCOTIA.—SOUTH-EAST COAST.

Sable Island—Re-Exhibition of Light on West End.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 61, of 6th April, 1882, on the destruction by the sea of the light on the west end of Sable Island, and consequent discontinuance of the light:—

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given further notice, that the lighthouse on the west end of Sable Island has been re-erected 406 yards eastward of its former position, and that the light will be re-exhibited on 1st December, 1882:—

The light will be of the same character as formerly, viz.:—A revolving white light with three flashes at intervals of half a minute, then eclipsed during one and a half minutes, making a complete revolution in three minutes. It is elevated 118 feet above high water, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of about 17 miles.

The illuminating apparatus will be catoptric, or by reflectors.

The lighthouse, 98 feet high, is an octagonal wooden building, painted white.

Position, lat. 43° 57' N., long. 60° 8' W.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 257.)—MEDITERRANEAN—ADRIATIC.—GULF OF TRIESTE—CAPE PROMONTORE.

(1.) Particulars of Porer Rock Leading Light.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 220 (2), of 28th October, 1882, on the exhibition of coloured sectors of light from below the lighthouse on Porer Rock, south-eastward of Cape Promontore:—

The Austrian Government has published the following additional particulars concerning the leading light, dated 8th November, 1882:—

The light indicating the position of Sunk Rock (Secca Pericolosa) is exhibited from a small building erected on the platform of the semaphore, 33 yards from the southern extremity of Porer Rock.

The light, visible through an arc of 169°, is divided into three sectors, green, red, and white; it is elevated 39 feet above high water (21 feet above the ground), and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of at least 4 miles.

The sector of red light is visible through an arc of 26° in the direction of Sunk Rock, or between the bearings of N. 3° E. and N. 23° W., and is of such extent, that between the rock and the limits of the light, there is a distance of 3 cables on each side.

The sector of green light is visible through an arc of 95°, or between the bearings of N. 3° E. and S. 82° E.

The sector of white light is visible through an arc of 48°, or between the bearings of N. 23° W. and N. 71° W.

BRAZZA ISLAND.

(2.) Port Pucisce—Harbour Light on St. Nicolo Point.

Also, has given notice, that on 17th November, 1882, a harbour light was exhibited from the steeple of the chapel (46 yards from the shore) on St. Nicolo Point, western side of entrance to Port Pucisce (Pucicie), north coast of Brazza Island:—

The light is a fixed red light, elevated 45 feet above high water (28 feet above the ground), and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 3 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses.

Position, lat.  $43^{\circ} 21' 45''$  N., long.  $16^{\circ} 44' 0''$  E.

(3.) Port Gravosa—Alteration in Position of Cantafigo Light.

Also, dated 8th November, 1882, that the green light previously exhibited from the small mole of Cantafigo (Cantafico) Point, eastern side of entrance to Port Gravosa, has been moved nearer the extremity of the Point, and exactly over the north-west angle of the new landing-stage erected there.

The light, elevated 18 feet above high water (17 feet above the ground), marks the new landing stage and stairs, and is close to a strong mooring bollard.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 261.)—NORTH SEA.—ELBE RIVER
ENTRANCE.

Particulars of Outer Elbe Light-Vessel.

THE following information has been received from the German Government, relative to Outer Elbe Light-vessel, Elbe River Entrance:—

The light (exhibited from the main mast) is a flashing white light, showing three flashes each of eight seconds' duration, every minute. It is elevated 38 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 8 miles.

The light-vessel has the word Elbe on her sides in white letters, and is moored in 12 fathoms water. If not at her station, the light is not shown nor the flag hoisted.

During foggy weather, a bell is sounded for one minute at intervals of fifteen minutes, and a gun fired. This signal is repeated every five minutes in answer to signals from a passing vessel.

Guns are fired, by night or by day, should a vessel be seen standing into danger.

NOTE.—Vessels may pass on either side of this light-vessel.
