Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

Vincent Stuckey, Esq., to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 7th December, 1882.

WHEREAS by section 3 of the "Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880," the killing and taking of wild birds were prohibited for the time between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in each year, and by the 8th section power was given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds, or any of them, was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by order of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the county of Huntingdon, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds is prohibited shall be varied in the county of Huntingdon so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild birds is prohibited, shall be varied in the county of Huntingdon, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, this 8th day of December, 1882.

W. V. Harcourt.

WHEREAS by Section 3 of the "Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880," the killing and taking of wild birds were prohibited for the time between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in each year, and by the 8th section power was given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds, or any of them, was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by order of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the Isle of Ely, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds is prohibited shall be varied in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August in each year, both dates inclusive.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in pursuance of the said Act, and on such application as aforesaid, hereby order as follows:—

The time during which the killing, wounding, and taking of wild birds is prohibited, shall be varied in the Isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Given under my hand, at Whitehall, this 8th day of December, 1882.

W. V. Harcourt.

WHEREAS by section 3 of the "Wild Birds Protection Act, 1880," the killing and taking of wild birds were prohibited for the time between the 1st day of March and the 1st day of August in each year, and by the 8th section power was given to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as to Great Britain, upon the application of the Justices in Quarter Sessions assembled of any county, to extend or vary the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds, or any of them, was prohibited by the said Act, such extension or variation to be made by Order of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

And whereas the Justices of the liberty of Peterborough, in Quarter Sessions assembled, have applied to me to the effect that an Order should be made directing that the time during which the killing and taking of wild birds is prohibited shall be varied in the liberty of Peterborough, in the county of Northampton, so as to be from the 15th day of March to the 31st day of August, in each year, both dates inclusive.

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's
