And whereas the said Act has been amended by the "Casual Poor Act, 1882," and it is expedient that the said Order should be rescinded to the extent hereinafter specified, and that other Regulations should be substituted for those contained in that Order;

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by

Art. 6.—Every Casual Pauper shall, as soon as practicable after his admission, be cleansed in a bath with water of suitable temperature : provided that this regulation shall not be enforced if, on account of the state of health of the pauper or other circumstances, there is reason to believe that the use of the bath would be injurious.

Art 7.—The clothing worn by a Casual Pauper shall, after his admission, be taken from him, and if requisite be dried or disinfected, and such garment or garments as the Guardians may deem necessary shall be supplied to him for the night, his own clothes being returned to him in the morning.

Art. 8.—The Master of the Workhouse or the Superintendent of the Casual Ward shall duly keep, or cause to be kept, a book containing the particulars set forth in the Form in Schedule A. annexed hereto, and such other particulars as may be required by the Guardians ; and such book shall be laid before the Guardians at such times as they may appoint, and shall be submitted to the District Auditor at the usual audits, and at other audits when required by him.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 262.)—MEDITERRANEAN.—IONIAN SEA—
SANTA MAURA ISLAND.

Unsuccessful Search for Reported Shoal South-west of Cape Dukato.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 234, dated 10th November, 1882, relating to a shoal reported by the Commander of the Hellenic Revenue steam-vessel "Cephalonia," lying about half a mile south-west of Cape Dukato, the south-west point of Santa Maura Island, and which shoal, assumed to be of recent volcanic formation, was said to be about half a mile in circumference, with a depth of 13 or 14 feet:—

Information has been received from Sir F. Beauchamp P. Seymour, G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief on the Mediterranean Station, that unsuccessful search has recently been made for the shoal by the boats of H.M.S. "Superb" and "Hecla."

Two boats of the "Superb" were employed for a period of six hours searching for the shoal under favourable condition of wind and weather, the water being sufficiently clear to enable the lead to be seen at a depth of 8 fathoms.

At a period three days later, the "Hecla" steamed over the locality of the alleged shoal, and with four boats also sounding over the same neighbourhood, failed to discover any indication of shoal ground, although the water was clear and swell sufficient to break on such a shoal, if it had any existence.

The shoal in the position reported has been removed from the chart.
