WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Divine situate within the limits of the new parish (formerly a district chapelry) of the Holy Trinity, Gainsborough, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Divine situate within the limits of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Gainsborough as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Gainsborough which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Divine situate within the limits of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gainsborough as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Divine, Gainsborough.'

"And with the like consent of the said Christopher Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John the Divine situate within the limits of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Gainsborough as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Divine Gainsborough being:—

"All that part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Gainsborough in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln which is bounded on the north for the most part by an imaginary line commencing upon the county boundary dividing the parish of Bole with Saundby in the county of Nottingham and in the said diocese of Lincoln from the new parish of the Holy Trinity Gainsborough aforesaid at a point in the middle of the River Trent opposite to the western end of Brewery Corner Passage which leads from the river bank into Bridge-street and extending thence that is from the said county boundary eastward to and along the middle of the said Brewery Corner Passage for a distance of eighty-three yards or thereabouts to its junction with Bridge-street aforesaid and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of nine yards or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway called or known as Nottingham-place and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of one hundred and seven yards or thereabouts to its eastern extremity where it joins a certain occupation-road leading from Bridge-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the said occupation-road for a distance of ten yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed 'G. S. J. D. C. 1882 No. 1' and placed on the eastern side of the same occupation-road at the western end of a certain wall which extends across in a straight line to Trinity-street and extending thence eastward to the said boundary-stone and along the said wall for a distance of one hundred and three yards or thereabouts to its eastern end upon the western side of Trinity-street aforesaid at or near to its junction with Queen-street and extending thence first north-eastward across the said Trinity-street and then eastward along the middle of Queen-street aforesaid for a distance of one hundred and seventy yards or thereabouts to the junction of the last-named street with Sandsfield-lane and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of fifty-three yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed 'G. St. J. D. C. 1882, No. 2' and placed on the western side of the line of the Manchester Sheffield and Lincolnshire Railway at or near to the northern end of the level crossing by which the last-named lane crosses the said line of railway and extending thence in a direction due eastward and in a straight line for a distance of five hundred and seventy-three yards or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'G. St. J. D. C. 1882 No. 3' and placed on the western side of Middlefield-lane at a point distant seven hundred and seventeen yards or thereabouts to the north of its junction with Heapham-road and extending thence that is to say from the last-mentioned boundary-stone first eastward to and then southward along the middle of the said Middlefield-lane for the said distance of seven hundred and seventeen yards or thereabouts to its junction with Heapham-road aforesaid and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one thousand three hundred and eighty yards or thereabouts to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Upton-road which boundary divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Gainsborough from the parish of Gainsborough in the said county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln aforesaid all which said hereinbefore described part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Gainsborough aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than the most part of the north as aforesaid that is to say upon the remaining part of the north upon the east upon the south and upon the west as follows:—upon the remaining part of the north by the parish of Gainsborough aforesaid upon the east by the parish of Corringham in the last-named county and diocese on the south by the parish of Lea in the same county and diocese and upon the west by the parish of Bole with Saundby aforesaid or in other words by the county boundary in the middle of the River Trent aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of December, 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate within the limits of the parish of Glasbury which said parish is situate partly in the county of Radnor and partly in the county of Brecknock, and wholly in the diocese of Saint Davids.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate within the limits of the parish of Glasbury as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Basil Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Glasbury which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints situate within the limits of the parish of Glasbury as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Glasbury.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Davids (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints situate within the limits of the parish of Glasbury as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints Glasbury being:—

"All that part of the parish of Glasbury situate partly in the county of Radnor and partly in the county of Brecknock and wholly in the diocese of Saint Davids which is situate on the northern side of the River Wye and which is bounded on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the said River Wye at the point a little to the east of the island called Gro, where the boundary dividing the said parish of Glasbury from the parish of Boughrood in the said county of Radnor and in the diocese aforesaid, leaves the said river, and extending thence first eastward and then generally north-eastward along the middle of the same river for a distance of rather more than two and a half miles to the boundary which divides the said parish of Glasbury from the parish of Llanigon, in the said county of Radnor and in the diocese aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described part of the said parish of Glasbury is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south-east as aforesaid, that is to say upon the north-east partly by the said parish of Llanigon, and partly by the parish of Llowes in the said county of Radnor and in the diocese aforesaid and upon the west partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Llanstephan in the said county of Radnor and in the diocese aforesaid and partly by the parish of Boughrood aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Davids.

THE Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that the Chadwick Memorial Industrial School for Roman Catholic Boys, at the Grand Stand, Town Moor, Newcastle-on-Tyne, has been certified by him as fit to be an Industrial School for the reception of Roman Catholic Boys, not exceeding 50 in number, under the provisions of "The Industrial Schools Act, 1866."

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies, has, pursuant to 38 and 39 Vic., c. 60, s. 12, by writing under his hand, dated the 27th day of December, 1882, suspended for three months the registry of the Bushton Friendly Society, Register No. 330, held at the Trotting Horse Inn, Bushton, in the county of Wilts, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above-mentioned Act in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy (during such suspension) the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place. J. M. Ludlow, Chief Registrar.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—EFFECTS, 1881-82.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
