INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint John, within the New Parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Devon, and Diocese of Exeter.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting :

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint John.

And whereas the Right Reverend Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such Bishop, and the Right Honourable Frederic, Baron Blachford, as the Patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, and the Reverend George William Anstiss, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the same vicarage, have by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, that the said new church of Saint John, situate within such new parish, should be substituted for the old parish church, also dedicated to Saint John, of the same new parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, and of the said Frederic, Baron Blachford, and of the said George William Anstiss, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint John, situate within the said new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church, dedicated to Saint John as aforesaid, of the same new parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint John, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint John, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same new parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church, dedicated to Saint John as aforesaid, of the said new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge, or to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint John (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said new parish of Saint John, Ivybridge), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Frederic, Baron Blachford and the said George William Anstiss have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. (L.S.)
