*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 20, 1883.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 23rd of April next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars, it being a Collar-day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock. KENMARE, Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, March 1, 1883.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint William Palfrey Burrell, Esq, now Her Majesty's Vice-Consul and Assistant Judge at Constantinople, to be Her Majesty's Consul at Port Said.

Foreign Office, March 28, 1883.

THE Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. Christian Julius Foxwærd as Consul for New Zealand, to reside at Wellington, for His Majesty the King of Denmark.

Downing Street, March 29, 1883.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Bruce Lockhart Burnside, Esq. (Queen's Advocate for the Island of Ceylon), to be Chief Justice of that Island.

Whitehall, March 22, 1883.

THE Queen, taking into Her Royal consideration that upon the decease of George, Baron Vaux of Harrowden, which happened upon the 28th day of January last, the title and dignity of Baron Vaux of Harrowden devolved upon Hubert George Charles, now Baron Vaux of Harrowden, as the eldest son and heir of George Charles Mostyn, Esquire (commonly called the Honourable George Charles Mostyn), deceased, who whilst living was the eldest son and heir apparent to the said George, Baron Vaux of Harrowden, and that according to the ordinary rules of honour the brothers and sisters of the said Hubert George Charles, now Baron Vaux of Harrowden, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their said father survived his father, the said George, Baron Vaux of Harrowden, and thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Vaux of Harrowden; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that Ranulph Edward Montagu Mostyn and Harold Plantagenet Mostyn, Esquires; and Beatrice Violet Mary Mostyn, Gwendolina Hyacinth Roma Mostyn, and Myrtle Mabel Muriel Mostyn, Spinsters, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence
