WHEREAS by an Act passed in the forty-fifth and forty-sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "The Militia Act, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two," it is amongst other things enacted that, save as therein otherwise provided, the Militia shall be trained and exercised for not less than twenty-one days, and not more than twenty-eight days, in every year, at such times and at such places in every part of the United Kingdom as Her Majesty may appoint, and also that Her Majesty may, from time to time, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order that the period of training and exercise in any year, of all or any part of the Militia be extended, but so that the whole period of training and exercise be not more than fifty-six days.

And whereas it is expedient that the training of the 5th Brigade Scottish Division, Royal Artillery (formerly the Forfar and Kincardine Artillery Militia) and the 3rd Brigade, Northern Division, Royal Artillery (formerly the Northumberland Artillery Militia), and also that of the Royal Anglesey Engineer Militia, the Hampshire (Submarine Miners), Engineer Militia, and Royal Monmouthshire Engineer Militia, should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days, for the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted "that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act have been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry, or other national papers; and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships."

And whereas by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1876, it is enacted that "where Her Majesty has power under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or any Act passed or hereafter to be passed amending the same, to make an Order in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to make such Order in Council, and by Order in Council to revoke, alter, or add to, any Order so made."

And whereas by Order in Council dated the 29th day of February, 1868, Her Majesty, to whom it was made to appear that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, had been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of Denmark, and were in force in that country, was pleased to direct that the ships of Denmark the certificates of Danish nationality and registry of which were dated on or after the 1st day of October, 1867, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the said certificates of Danish nationality and registry.

And whereas certain modifications were subsequently made in the said rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships in Denmark, whereby from and after the 1st day of October, 1878, the allowance for engine room in certain steam ships would be estimated in a mode differing from that in force in this country; and it was made to appear to Her Majesty that it was desirable to alter the said first recited Order in Council so far as the same applied or related to the mode of estimating the allowance for engine room in Danish steamships.

And whereas Her Majesty by Order in Council dated the 30th day of December 1878 was pleased to direct as regards Danish steamships that if the owner or master of any Danish steamship measured after the said 1st day of October 1878 desires the allowance for engine room in his ship to be estimated under the British instead of under the Danish rules, such engine room shall be measured, and the allowance calculated according to the British rules.

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that certain additions should be made to the provisions of the said last-recited Order in Council in regard to the mode of estimating the net registered tonnage of certain Danish steamships.

Now therefore Her Majesty in virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is further pleased to direct as follows, vizt. that in the event of the net registered tonnage of merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Denmark, which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine room estimated under the British Rules being denoted in the said certificates of Danish nationality and registry issued on or after the 1st day of September, 1882, such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage so denoted in the said certificates. C. L. Peel.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 20th day of April, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of

Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the acts therein mentioned that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called “the said benefice”) of Saint Stephen Westminster, in the city and liberty of Westminster, and in the diocese of London, which cure of Saint Stephen, Westminster is a new parish.

“Whereas by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council, made the twentieth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice (in the said Order described as a district and new parish) is vested in the Right Honourable Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts (in the said Order described as Angela Burdett Coutts of Stratton-street, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster) for and during her life, and afterwards in the Bishop of London for the time being, for ever.

“And whereas the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts has to our satisfaction made a certain benefaction in augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Saint Stephen Westminster, which benefaction consists of a sum of one thousand six hundred and sixty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence three pounds per centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, already transferred by the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts into our name in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for the benefit of the said benefice and the same benefaction has been so made upon the understanding and condition that a transfer to her the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts and her heirs and assigns of so much of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the same benefice as is now vested in the Bishop of London and his successors as aforesaid shall be effected by the agency of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, now Bishop of London, is willing that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Westminster, in so far as the same is now vested in him and his successors as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts and her heirs and assigns as aforesaid; and in token as well of such his consent to the said proposed transfer as patron, as also of his consent to the same as diocesan (which latter consent as well as the former is by the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or by some or one of them made necessary) he the said John Bishop of London has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, is also willing that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage so vested in the Bishop of London and his successors as aforesaid shall be transferred by the said John Bishop of London to the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts and her heirs and assigns as aforesaid, and in token of such his willingness, he the said Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Westminster which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will under and in consequence of the circumstances hereinbefore set forth tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the district or parish in or in respect of which the same right of patronage or advowson arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Stephen, Westminster aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said John Bishop of London, acting as patron (in remainder after the aforesaid estate of the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts) of the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Westminster, and also acting as Bishop of the said diocese of London as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he the said John Bishop of London has hereunto set his hand and his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony of which consent he the said Archbishop has hereunto set his hand and his archiepiscopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order so much of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Westminster, as is now vested in him the said John Bishop of London and his successors as aforesaid shall be transferred from him the said John Bishop of London and from his successors to the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts and her heirs and assigns and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in her and them; in such manner as that the whole of the said advowson and perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Westminster, shall be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Angela Baroness Burdett Coutts and her heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London. *C. FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 53.

OVERTIME.—ADDITIONAL TWO HOURS.
Order of Secretary of State, Extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, contains a special exception to the effect that the regulations of the Act with respect to the employment of young persons and women shall not prevent the employment in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which the exception applies of young persons and of women during a period of employment beginning at 6 A.M., and ending at 8 P.M., or beginning at 7 A.M., and ending at 9 P.M., or beginning at 8 A.M. and ending at 10 P.M., if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions; namely,

(1.) There shall be allowed to every such young person and woman for meals during the period of employment not less than two hours, of which half an hour shall be after five o'clock in the evening; and

(2.) Any such young person or woman shall not be so employed on the whole for more than 5 days in any one week, nor for more than 48 days in any 12 months;

And whereas the special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section;

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in such processes incidental to the weaving of ribbons in workshops as are mentioned in the Schedule hereunder, it is necessary, by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, and of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorised by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby;

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal

Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend this exception accordingly.

Provided that nothing in this Order shall be taken to apply :

- (a.) Where persons are employed at home, that is to say, to a private house, room or place, which, though used as a dwelling, is by reason of the work carried on there, a factory or workshop within the meaning of this Act, and in which neither steam, water nor other mechanical power is used, and in which the only persons employed are members of the same family dwelling there; or
- (b.) To a workshop or part thereof which is conducted on the system of not employing any child or young person therein.

This Order shall come into effect on Tuesday, the 24th April, 1883, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1883, and no longer.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

That a Fair has been annually held at Boxworth, in the county of Cambridge, on the Feast of Saint Peter, being the 29th day of June, and the two following days, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held (to wit) on one day only, such day to be the first day of the Fair, viz, the 29th day of June, unless and except the said 29th day of June happen to fall on a Sunday, in which case such day to be the Saturday immediately preceding the 29th day of June.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873 :"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the days for the holding of the said Fair should be altered as proposed :

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the day for the holding of the Fair which has been annually held at Boxworth, in the said division of the said county, shall be altered, and that such Fair shall, in future, be held on one day only, such day to be the first day of the Fair, viz., the 29th day of June, unless and except the said 29th day of June happen to fall on a Sunday, in which case such day to be the Saturday immediately preceding the 29th day of June.

Carr v. the Universities Co-operative Association Limited, and others.

Long Acre, nearly opposite Bow-street. The valuable and very important premises, formerly the Queen's Theatre, but recently occupied by the above-named Association, who at great cost partly rebuilt and altered the interior and adapted the premises throughout for the purposes of Co-operative Stores. The premises occupy an area of about 10,000 square feet, and form an undoubtedly fine block for one vast establishment; they can however, as they have extensive frontages to Wilson-street and Charles-street, besides the frontage to Long Acre, be readily divided into several warehouses or premises, suitable for carriage builders, large printing works, and various other trades. Having regard to the central situation of the property, it is believed that a judicious division of this kind would be attended with very profitable results.

MR. EDWARD TEWSON, of the firm of Messrs. Debenham, Tewson, Farmer, and Bridgewater, will sell by auction at the Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, near the Bank of England, on Tuesday, the 5th day of June, 1883, at two o'clock punctually, in one lot (with the approbation of the Honourable Mr. Justice Kay, to whose Court the above matters and action are attached, pursuant to an Order therein dated the 27th day of January, 1882), the valuable leasehold property known as No. 92, Long Acre, lately occupied by the Universities Co-operative Association Limited. The premises are built in a most substantial manner, the greater part of the interior is of fireproof construction, and the whole is admirably lighted. The property has a commanding frontage to Long Acre, with a handsome entrance, there are also entrances from Charles-street and Wilson-street in the rear, the frontages to these two thoroughfares being about 60 feet and 150 feet respectively. The premises comprise a very excellent basement, ground-floor and four upper stories, they have two capital wide stone staircases to the third floor, and are fitted with iron divisional doors, hydrants, hydraulic lifts and other conveniences. Held on lease from the Mercers' Company for a term of which about 33½ years are now unexpired, at the very low ground-rent of £100 per annum. Possession will be given on completion of the purchase.

Particulars, with plans and conditions of sale, may be obtained (gratis) of Sharon G. Turner, Esq., Solicitor, 56, Lincoln's-inn-fields; and of Messrs. Nash and Field, 12, Queen-street, Cheapside, E.C.; and of Sidney Thomas Nevett, Esq., Bedford-row House, Theobald's-road, W.C.; and of the Auctioneers, 80, Cheapside.

The leasehold property, No. 85, Long Acre, forming a portion of the extensive premises lately in the occupation of the Universities Co-operative Association, and consisting of a substantial modern building of five well lighted floors (including basement), having a frontage of about 19 feet 6 inches to Long Acre, and a return frontage of about 42 feet 11 inches to Charles-street, with a ground area of about 850 feet superficial.
