And for better enforcing the observance of all or any of such regulations, it is, by "The Tramways Act, 1870," enacted that it shall be lawful for such Local Authority to make bye-laws for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, and from time to time to repeal or alter such bye-laws and make new bye-laws, provided that such bye-laws be not repugnant to the laws of that part of the United Kingdom where the same are to have effect; and that any such bye-laws may impose reasonable penalties for offences against the same not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, with or without further penalties for continuing offences not exceeding for any continuing offence ten shillings for any day during which the offence continues, but that all bye-laws shall be so framed as to allow in every case part only of the maximum penalty being ordered to be paid.

Now, in pursuance of the power given by "The Tramways Act, 1870," and of every other power enabling them thereto, the Local Board of Health of the said district of Shirley and Freemantle, as the Local Authority in that behalf, do make and ordain the following bye-laws:—

1. No carriage using any tramway within the district of Shirley and Freemantle shall be driven on any street tramway at greater speed than eight miles an hour.

2. No carriage using any tramway within the district shall follow another carriage using any of such tramways at a less distance from such other carriage than thirty yards, and no carriage shall be standing, or stop, or remain at one time at any siding or terminal station of a public thoroughfare for a longer space than ten minutes.

3. The traffic shall not be wilfully or neglectfully impeded or obstructed by any person driving any carriage using the tramway or by any other vehicle of whatever description.

4. The conductor of such carriage shall carry with him a copy of these bye-laws, and shall, on request of any passenger, produce the same to and shall permit the same to be perused by such passenger; and every Tramway Company shall affix and keep affixed in their offices and waiting rooms within the district a printed copy of the same for the use of the public.

5. Any driver or conductor of a carriage, or other person who offends against any of the foregoing bye-laws, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Provided, nevertheless, that the Justices or Court before whom any complaint may be made for a breach of any of these bye-laws may, if they see fit, reduce the amount of the penalty herein prescribed as they may deem advisable.

These bye-laws shall come into force on the 19th day of July, 1883.

W. Godfrey Newman, Clerk.
