WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of St. John Bedminster in the suburbs of the city of Bristol and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of St. John Bedminster which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint John Bedminster have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of some or one of them, and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district as soon as one shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the lastly mentioned Act then of the said new parish and to his successors a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum, and such grant will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas certain well disposed persons have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling in aid of the endowment of the said proposed district or new parish and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act the sum of fifty pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of the said diocese (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint John Bedminster which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of the Holy Nativity Knowle.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of the Holy Nativity Knowle, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint John Bedminster in the suburbs of the city of Bristol and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint John Bedminster from the particular district or new parish of Saint Luke Bedminster in the said suburbs of the city of Bristol and in the diocese aforesaid at a point in the middle of the bridge which carries the Bristol and Exeter line of the Great Western Railway over Saint Luke's-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Oxford-street and with Saint John's-lane and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its junction at Lower Knowle with Red-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the point where it bends sharply towards the north-east and is joined by the occupation road or footpath leading towards Hengrove House and extending thence first south-eastward then south-westward and then southward along the middle of the said occupation road or footpath for a distance fifty-eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary near Hengrove House aforesaid which boundary divides the said parish of Saint John Bedminster from the parish or parochial chapelry of Brislington in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells. And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the parish of Saint John, Bedminster out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Bristol and at Gloucester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of May, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Archdeaconry of the East Riding of York and now vested in us.

"Whereas under an Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and another Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council made under the provisions of the same Acts, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five and duly published in the London Gazette of the twenty-third day of March then following, all the lands, tithes, tenements and hereditaments theretofore annexed to and then forming part of the said Archdeaconry (except any right of patronage) became absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas our estate in the lands tithes tenements and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid consists of a reversion expectant upon the determination of a beneficial lease, such lease producing only a small annual revenue and on that account and partly on account of the character or situation of the property the said lands tithes tenements and hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tithes tenements and hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands tithes tenements and hereditaments or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interests therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell and dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by him, her or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands tithes tenements and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said Archdeaconry of the East Riding of York and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of May, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the churchyard of Warcop, in the county of Westmorland, to the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of May, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

LONGPARISH.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Longparish, in the county of Hants; and also in the churchyard, after the thirty-first August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard as have never before been buried in, and, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they have been allotted, as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of July next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said tenth day of July. *C.
