Whitehall Gardens, June 29, 1883.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs the following copy of a Decree issued by the Republic of Honduras upon the subject of Navigation Patents, viz.:—

Office of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, Tegucigalpa, January 1, 1883.

SEEING that during the administration of the former Governments, the Consular and Diplomatic Agents of the Republic gave, without any discrimination, Patents of Navigation to vessels of sundry nationalities, which, according to information received, still sail under the flag of Honduras; that the issue of Patents of Navigation has not even been officially communicated to the Government of Honduras, which is called upon to protect ships trading under the national flag; and that it is suitable to put an end to that vicious practice, which has given and may give room for the commission of abuses prejudicial to this country and to the interests of commerce; the President decrees:

1. From this date forward, Patents of Navigation can only be issued directly by the Government of the Republic, and consequently any that may be issued inadvertently by its Diplomatic or Consular Agents are invalid.

2. The space of one year is appointed in order that the owners or masters of ships holding Patents of Navigation issued by Diplomatic or Consular Agents may address themselves to the Government of the Republic, so that, if it consider fit, it may renew the said Patents in due form.

3. After the lapse of the aforesaid space of one year, the Patents of Navigation already issued by Diplomatic or Consular Agents of this Republic shall be altogether invalid; and

4. The office of the Secretary for Foreign Affairs shall communicate this Decree to all the Governments of the nations with whom the Government of this country is in correspondence, and further it shall take suitable measures that the said regulation may have the greatest publicity in the foreign press for the information of all persons who may have any interest therein.

Let this be published and registered.

Signed for the President, ROSA.

- (3.) Where the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the Parcel, notice shall be publicly given (by affixing the same at such place or places, or in such other manner as the Postmaster-General may direct) that the Parcel will in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, and upon payment of such charges as are hereinafter mentioned, be given up upon the personal application of the sender or his agent.

- (4.) In any case the notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel during a period to be specified in such notice from some person who in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (5.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice or otherwise the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (6.) A parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for re-direction or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 15 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act 1882."
- (7.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of the sum of one penny in respect of every day or part of a day during which the Parcel remains at the place appointed as aforesaid after the expiration of two clear days after the day on which any such notice as aforesaid shall have been given.
- (8.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and in such case the said rate of postage and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable shall be prepaid by the sender in stamps before the return of the Parcel to him.
- (9.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (10.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the Parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.
- (11.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General it becomes offensive or injurious to any officer of the Post Office, or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant, as to the return of such Parcel, have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Re-direction of Parcels.

15. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address within the United Kingdom, to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which shall have been originally chargeable on such Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

16. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery, as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

Receipts for Parcels on Posting.

17. No receipt of any kind shall be given by any Officer of the Post Office to any person upon the posting of any Parcel in respect of such Parcel, or for any rate of postage, or any other sum chargeable or charged and paid thereon, nor upon the delivery of any Parcel for any postage or other sum chargeable or charged and paid thereon.

18. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by post any Parcel consisting of or containing any indecent or obscene picture, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, print, book, or card, or any indecent or obscene article or thing of any other kind, or any Parcel having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character, and if any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which prima facie appears to be, or which any Officer of the Post Office may have reasonable cause to suspect to be a Parcel within the description aforesaid, the same shall be detained, opened, and examined, and if on such examination it be found to infringe this or any other of the regulations contained in this or any other Treasury Warrant relating to the Post Office, it may be dealt with and disposed of in any manner which may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

Prohibitions.

19. There shall not be conveyed or tendered for conveyance by Post :—

- (a.) Any Parcel containing any substance, material, article, or thing of any kind whatsoever, which might in the course of transmission through the Post be, or become, or be rendered injurious to any officer of the Post Office, or any other person who may deal with such Parcel, or to any bag, basket, box, or other receptacle in or by which such Parcel may be conveyed by post, or to any other Parcel or other contents of any such receptacle.
- (b.) Any Parcel consisting of or enclosing any bladder or other membranous substance containing a liquid of any kind.
- (c.) Any Parcel containing a live animal of any kind whatsoever.
- (d.) Any such Parcel, if posted or tendered for conveyance by Post, may be detained, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or dealt with or disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the Postmaster-General.

Prohibitions.

20. No Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by Post consisting of or containing more than one Parcel or other Postal Packet where any one of such Packets is intended for delivery to a person other than the addressee of such Parcel, and if any such Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post the contents thereof, so far as the same consist of Parcels, may be forwarded to the addressees of such parcels charged with new and distinct rates of postage according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and so far as the same consist of other Postal Packets may be treated and charged as unpaid Postal Packets, or such Parcel may be otherwise dealt with or disposed of as the Postmaster-General may authorize.

Parcels not to interfere with Letter Post.

23. Where the despatch or delivery from a Post Office of letters would be delayed by the despatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of Parcels, such Parcels, or any of them, may be detained in the Post Office until the despatch or delivery next following that by which they would ordinarily be despatched or delivered.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

24. Nothing contained in or done under or in pursuance of this Warrant shall render the Postmaster-General liable, either personally or in his official capacity, to any action or other legal proceeding in respect or in consequence of any loss of or damage to any Parcel, whether such loss or damage be occasioned by or arise from any act or neglect of any Officer of the Post Office or any other person.
