And whereas by the sixty-fifth section of the last-mentioned Act it is enacted that, from and after the thirty-first day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the Conservators of the River Thames may, from time to time, make Byelaws (inter alia) for the protecting, preserving, and regulating of the fisheries of the River Thames and the preservation of the fish therein, for the prohibition of the use of nets and apparatus improper to be used for taking fish, for determining the times during which the taking of any particular or specified kind of fish shall not be practised:

And whereas by the forty-first section of "The Thames Navigation Act, 1866," it is enacted that, from the passing of the said Act, the Conservators of the River Thames shall have the same or the like powers and authorities over and with respect to the Thames and Isis from Staines to Cricklade as they have, by virtue of the Thames Conservancy Acts, 1857 and 1864, over and with respect to the Thames below Staines:

And whereas the said new Byelaws have been duly published in accordance with the said recited Acts, and it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said new Byelaws (as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed) are reasonable and proper:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by "The Thames Conservancy Act, 1864," and of every other power enabling Her in that behalf, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to allow the said new Byelaws.

"And whereas the said three contingencies are as follows:—

"1. That the Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Hersham being the church which with the cure thereto attached is as aforesaid called the said benefice of Hersham shall within the period of ten years from the thirty-first day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one being the day on which the Order of Your Majesty in Council made on the eighteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one was published in the London Gazette as aforesaid have been rebuilt to our satisfaction upon its present site or upon some other site approved by us and that the said sum of five hundred pounds so paid over to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham as aforesaid shall on the requisition to us in writing of the said Francis Thomas Bircham or other the person or persons claiming through or under him and who would for the time being be entitled to present to the said benefice of Hersham if the same were vacant have been applied in or towards such rebuilding.

"(2.) That the said church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity at Hersham (that is to say the present fabric of that church) shall within the period aforesaid have been enlarged to our satisfaction and the said sum of five hundred pounds shall on such requisition in writing as aforesaid have been applied in or towards such enlargement.

"(3.) That church accommodation other than and beside that firstly and secondly specified above shall within the period aforesaid have been to our satisfaction provided within and for the said new parish of Hersham or some part thereof and that the said sum of five hundred pounds shall on such requisition in writing as aforesaid have been applied in or towards supplying such church accommodation.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Harold now Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester is willing that the same advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hersham should be at once and absolutely transferred and be vested as last aforesaid and in token both that he is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the bishoprick of Winchester the said transfer and also that the said transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Harold Bishop of Winchester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that an immediate transfer to the See of Winchester of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hersham in accordance with the terms proposed to us by the said Francis Thomas Bircham will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Hersham being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Francis Thomas Bircham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Harold Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Hersham now vested (subject as is hereinbefore expressed) in the said Francis Thomas Bircham and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Francis Thomas Bircham and from his heirs and assigns to and shall be vested in the said Edward Harold Bishop of Winchester and his successors for ever: Provided always and we hereby further recommend and propose that with respect to the said sum of five hundred pounds so paid to us in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one by the said Francis Thomas Bircham as aforesaid and also with respect to the said sum of one hundred pounds now paid to us as aforesaid by the said Francis Thomas Bircham the power of requisition which in each of the three contingencies hereinbefore recited is by the said Order given as to the said sum of five hundred pounds to the said Francis Thomas Bircham or other the person or persons claiming through or under him as patron or patrons of the said, benefice of Hersham shall be read as if the words 'Bishop of Winchester or his successors' had in respect of the paragraph expressing the first of the same three contingencies been inserted in the said Order instead of the words 'Francis Thomas Bircham or other the person or persons claiming through or under him' and as if the words 'six hundred pounds' had been inserted in the same paragraph and in the paragraphs following it and numbered 2 and 3 respectively in the said Order in lieu of the words, 'five hundred pounds.' And provided also that the said power of requisition shall not in respect of the Bishop of Winchester or his successors be limited to the said period of ten years or to any other period but shall be absolute and unlimited: And provided also with respect to each of the said three contingencies that the said sum of six hundred pounds so to be affected by the same as aforesaid shall on such requisition to us in writing as aforesaid be applicable and be applied towards the cost of effecting that one of the said three contingencies which shall happen as aforesaid and that until some one of the said three contingencies shall happen as aforesaid the said sum of six hundred pounds shall continue to be held by us for the benefit of the incumbent of the said benefice of Hersham and for no other purpose for which said last mentioned purpose the same sum of six hundred pounds except in so far as it shall or may be otherwise expended by us as aforesaid is now and will henceforth be held by us.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Privy Council Office, July 19, 1883.

THE following Statute made by the University of Oxford (approved by Convocation on 12th June, 1883) has been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 :—

WHEREAS by a Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, provision is made for College contributions for University purposes, and whereas by the same Statute it is enacted that against the amount of the contribution due from each College shall be reckoned any sum or sums paid by the College within the year under Statutes made for the College by the University of Oxford Commissioners for any University purpose mentioned in such Statutes, including the emoluments of any Fellowship or Fellowships attached to Professorships ;

And whereas a Statute was made by the said Commissioners for Lincoln College attaching the emoluments of a Fellowship to a Professorship of Archæology and Art, but did not receive the assent of Her Majesty in Council ;

And whereas Lincoln College is desirous, notwithstanding of endowing the said Professorship, provided that the sum or sums to be annually paid by the College for the purpose of maintaining such a Professorship be reckoned against the amount of any contribution payable by the College to the University under the said Statute "Concerning College Contributions for University Purposes," the University enacts as follows :—

The Statute made by the University of Oxford Commissioners concerning the Lincoln Professorship of Archæology and Art shall be repealed, and the following new Statute shall be substituted :—

Of the Lincoln Professor of Archæology and Art.

When and so soon as provision shall have been made by the Statutes of Lincoln College for the purpose, there shall be a Professor of Classical Archæology and Art, who shall lecture and give instruction on the arts and manufactures, monuments, coins and inscriptions of classical antiquity, and on Asiatic and Egyptian antiquities, or on some of those subjects.

2. He shall be entitled to the emoluments which by the Statutes of Lincoln College are appropriated to his Professorship.

3. The Professor shall be elected by a Board of Electors, of whom one shall always be the Rector of Lincoln College or a person nominated by the Rector and Fellows.

4. Subject to any exercise of the power of the University to regulate or vary from time to time the constitution of the Board in other respects, the Board shall consist of—

He shall also be subject to such further regulations not inconsistent with this Statute as the University may from time to time make by Statute.

6. Any sum or sums paid to the Professor by Lincoln College shall be reckoned against the amount of any contribution due from the College under the provisions of the Statute "Concerning College Contributions for University Purposes," made by the University of Oxford Commissioners under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

Board of Trade (Harbour Department), Whitehall Gardens, July 19, 1883.

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Berlin the following translation of Quarantine Regulations which have been issued by the Government of Prussia.—Regulations which are almost identical with these have been adopted at Bremen and Hamburg:—

(Translation of Regulations issued for Prussian Ports as a precautionary measure against the introduction of Cholera.)

THE Official Gazette publishes an order of the 5th July of the Minister of Commerce and Industry and of the Minister of Public Health, respecting the Sanitary Police control of sea ships entering Prussian Harbours:—

ART. I. Every sea ship entering a Prussian Harbour is liable to the control of the Sanitary Police:—

§ 1. If she comes from the Black Sea, from any harbour in Turkey or of Turkish Islands, except of those parts situated on the Adriatic Sea, but inclusive of Asia Minor, Syria, and the northern coast of Africa east of Algiers, from the Persian Gulf, from the Red Sea, or from the west coast of Africa, north of Cape Town to the Straits of Gibraltar;

§ 2. When she comes from a harbour which is considered by a notification of the Chancellor, or according to other trustworthy information, to be suspected of the plague, the cholera, or an outbreak of more than merely sporadic cases of yellow fever;

§ 3. When during the journey she had had communication with one of the harbours mentioned in § 1 and 2, or with a ship which has touched at one of these harbours; or

§ 4. When a case of illness has occurred on board during the journey which is suspected of being the plague, the cholera, or yellow fever.

ART. II. Any ship (Art. I) which is liable to sanitary police control, must, as soon as she arrives within sight of the harbour, raise the quarantine flag. This flag is yellow, and must be floated on the foremast.

The ship must not have any communication with the shore or any other ship, with the exception of taking a pilot or a steam-tug, nor haul down the quarantine flag before it has received a free bill by order of the proper authorities (Arts. 5 and following). The same regulations respecting intercourse apply to all persons on board.

The pilots and the harbour police authorities have to see to these rules being enforced, and, by questioning the captain or his representative, to ascertain whether Art. I applies to the ship.

ART. III. In the cases mentioned in Art. I there will be handed over to the captain or his representative a series of questions on paper, drawn up according to the nature of the case. The captain, the navigating officer, and, in case a doctor has made the voyage as ship's doctor, also the ship's doctor, especially with respect to questions Nos. 14, 15, 16 (of the schedule of questions), must give the required information, as soon as possible, truthfully, so that it may be certified thereupon on oath. The filled up schedule must be signed by the captain, the navigating officer, and, in the above-mentioned case, by the ship's doctor, and must be held at the disposal of the Authorities, together with the other papers on which an opinion can be formed as to the sanitary condition of the ship.

ART. IV. Private persons are forbidden to hold communication with a ship flying the quarantine flag. Whoever breaks this prohibition will be counted as forming part of the ship under control.

ART. V. The ship (Art. I.) will immediately receive a free bill if,

§ 1. On board, no case of illness has occurred during the whole journey which is suspected of being plague or cholera, or a case of suspected yellow fever during the last fourteen days; or

§ 2. During the journey the ship has had no communication with a suspected ship (Art. I., § 3), and besides § 3, the ship has been placed under sanitary control in a not infected harbour of the North Sea or Baltic, such harbour being provided with the necessary sanitary arrangements, and there has received a free bill;

Or,—that she possesses a bill of health from some competent German consular officer at the port of departure, dated not more than forty-eight hours before sailing, and renewed at every harbour belonging to the category mentioned in (Art. I.), at which the ship has touched during her journey:

That in the harbour of departure (inclusive of harbours touched at during the journey), and in its neighbourhood, no single case of plague or cholera has occurred, and no case, or only sporadic cases, of yellow fever within the last thirty days.

ART. VI. If a single one of the suppositions mentioned in Art. V be answered in the negative the ship must, unless she goes out to sea, cast anchor in the place appointed, and lay herself open to the search she must undergo under the guidance of the authorities, or of the doctor appointed by them.

ART. VII. The ship is to have free pratique if the result of the enquiry (ship, persons, cargo) should turn out satisfactory in all respects, otherwise the regulations in Arts. VIII to X come into force.

ART. VIII.
