

chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime a district under the New Parishes Act 1843) of Saint Edmund Northampton in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate within the limits of the said new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Connor Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Northampton.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Connor Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Nathaniel Thomas Hughes Clerk in Holy Orders the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint Michael and All Angels situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Nathaniel Thomas Hughes, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Northampton being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime a district, under the New Parishes Act 1843), of Saint Edmund Northampton in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough which is bounded on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton from the parish of Saint Giles Northampton in the county and diocese aforesaid at the point at the western end of the roadway called or known as Abington-square where the streets or roads called or known respectively as Lower Mounts, Abington-square aforesaid, and York-road, all meet, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said roadway called or known as Abington-square as aforesaid for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Kettering-road and extending thence first north-eastward then northward and then again north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-six and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Talbot-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Artizan-road and extending thence north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the course of a certain new street intended to be called Billington-street, to the intended eastern end of the same street, and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the point on the north-western side of the Wellingborough-road where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton from the parish of Abington in the county and diocese aforesaid strikes the said road:—All which said hereinbefore-described part of the new parish of Saint Edmund Northampton aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south as aforesaid that is to say upon the east upon the north upon the west and upon the south-west as follows, that is to say, upon the east by the parish of Abington aforesaid, upon the north partly by the parish of Kingsthorpe and partly by the district of Saint Paul Northampton both in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the west partly by the last-named district and partly by the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Lawrence, Northampton in the said county and diocese and upon the south-west by the parish of Saint Giles Northampton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.
C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of July, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three,
