

aforesaid and also with respect to the said sum of one hundred pounds now paid to us as aforesaid by the said Francis Thomas Bircham the power of requisition which in each of the three contingencies hereinbefore recited is by the said Order given as to the said sum of five hundred pounds to the said Francis Thomas Bircham or other the person or persons claiming through or under him as patron or patrons of the said, benefice of Hersham shall be read as if the words 'Bishop of Winchester or his successors' had in respect of the paragraph expressing the first of the same three contingencies been inserted in the said Order instead of the words 'Francis Thomas Bircham or other the person or persons claiming through or under him' and as if the words 'six hundred pounds' had been inserted in the same paragraph and in the paragraphs following it and numbered 2 and 3 respectively in the said Order in lieu of the words, 'five hundred pounds.' And provided also that the said power of requisition shall not in respect of the Bishop of Winchester or his successors be limited to the said period of ten years or to any other period but shall be absolute and unlimited: And provided also with respect to each of the said three contingencies that the said sum of six hundred pounds so to be affected by the same as aforesaid shall on such requisition to us in writing as aforesaid be applicable and be applied towards the cost of effecting that one of the said three contingencies which shall happen as aforesaid and that until some one of the said three contingencies shall happen as aforesaid the said sum of six hundred pounds shall continue to be held by us for the benefit of the incumbent of the said benefice of Hersham and for no other purpose for which said last mentioned purpose the same sum of six hundred pounds except in so far as it shall or may be otherwise expended by us as aforesaid is now and will henceforth be held by us.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.
