

Ashton-under-Lyne: Provided always, that the said capital sum of three hundred and ninety pounds sterling, expressed to be hereby granted and appropriated to the said benefice of Holy Trinity, Ashton-under-Lyne, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of, and in substitution for, a portion amounting to thirteen pounds per annum of the yearly sum or stipend of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence heretofore payable by us, the said Commissioners, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice; under the authority of another instrument sealed by us on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-first day of the same month and year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Mary, Newton-in-Mottram, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of enlarging and otherwise improving the parsonage house and premises belonging to the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Newton-in-Mottram.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Trallong, in the county of Brecon, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eleven pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Trallong, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Trallong: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and eleven pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Bickington, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.
