WM. T. WAY BUCKELL, 62, High-street, Newport, Isle of Wight.

Bullock and others v. Skinner, 1883, B., 1297.

TAKE notice, that on the 9th June, 1883, a Judgment in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice was obtained against you, Fitzowen John Skinner, as defendant in a certain action of Bullock v. Skinner, 1883, B., 1297, at the suit of the Reverend Richard Bullock, Herbert Hignett, the Reverend Harry Alfred Hignett, and Constance, his wife, by George Henry Rogerson, of the city of Chester, her next friend, whereby it was ordered that the trusts of the settlement, dated 17th April, 1865, made upon the marriage of the plaintiffs, Harry Alfred Hignett and Constance Hignett, should be performed and carried into execution under the direction of the Court. That you the said defendant should on or before the 19th day of June, 1883, pay into Court to the credit of the said action Bullock v. Skinner, 1883, B., 1297, the sum of £3,100, being the aggregate of two sums of £2,800 and £300, trust monies in the statement of claim in the said action mentioned. That you the said defendant be removed as trustee of the said settlement, and that a proper person be appointed in your place, and jointly with the plaintiffs Richard Bullock and Herbert Hignett, the continuing trustees, with liberty to apply in chambers for payment or transfer of all sums standing in Court to the credit of this action, and for an Order vesting in them such of the trust funds, subject to the said settlement, as are now standing in the names of you the said defendant and the plaintiffs Richard Bullock and Herbert Hignett, and after directing certain enquiries in reference to the trust estates. It was further ordered that you the said defendant do pay to the said plaintiffs their costs of the said action up to and including the said judgment. And also take notice, that by an Order of Mr. Justice Kay, the Judge of the said Division to whom the said action is assigned, dated the 1st August, 1883, it was ordered that service of the said judgment by leaving a copy of the same, together with a copy of the said Order at the chambers, situate at No. 2, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, lately occupied by you the said defendant, and by sending a copy of the same together with a copy of the said Order in a registered letter, addressed to you to the care of Mr. Spurway, Weston, near Bath, and by inserting once in the London Gazette and twice in the Times newspaper an advertisement of the said judgment should be deemed good service of the said judgment upon you the said defendant.—Dated this 17th day of August, 1883.
