FRIDAY, AUGUST 31, 1883.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion: and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas it is also enacted that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas on the eleventh day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich made a representation to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following:

"To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the vicarage of Barton Turf and the rectory of Irstead both in the county of Norfolk and my diocese of Norwich by the separation of the said vicarage of Barton Turf from the said rectory of Irstead may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

"Witness my hand this 11th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

John T. Norwich."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop thereupon enquired into the circumstances of the case and on the third day of August 1883 certified to Her Majesty in Council as follows that is to say:—

"That the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich as Bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice consisting of the vicarage of Barton Turf and the rectory of Irstead in the county of Norfolk having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united benefice by the separation of the said vicarage of Barton Turf from the said rectory of Irstead might be made with advantage to the interests of religion we enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved and that the said Lord Bishop of Norwich being the patron or person entitled to present to the said united benefice the same being now vacant has signified his consent in writing to such proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich our enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the reply thereto the consent in writing of the patron and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for separating the said vicarage of Barton Turf from the said rectory of Irstead. And in accordance with the consent in writing of the patron before referred to, we recommend to Your Majesty in Council that each of the said benefices when disunited shall retain its own original endowments and emoluments.

"As witness our hand the third day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to Order as it is hereby ordered that the said united benefice consisting of the vicarage of Barton Turf and the rectory of Irstead shall be disunited by separating the said vicarage of Barton Turf from the said rectory of Irstead.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, to assign and attach to each of the said benefices, its own original endowments and emoluments, and, to direct that each benefice shall bear and pay its own original charges and outgoings.

C. L. Peel,

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall, six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas it is also enacted that "it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons) to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice."

And whereas on the 3rd day of March 1883 John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich made a representation to the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following:—

"To the Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"I John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to me that the disunion of the united vicarages of Walton and Felixstow in the county of Suffolk and my diocese of Norwich by the separation of the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

"Witness my hand this third day of March in the year of our Lord 1883.

"John T. Norwich."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop thereupon enquired into the circumstances of the case and on the second day of August 1883 certified to Her Majesty in Council as follows, that is to say:—

"That the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich as Bishop of the diocese within which is situate the united benefice consisting of the vicarages of Walton and Felixstow in the county of Suffolk having represented unto us that the disunion of the said united vicarages by the separation of the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow might be made with advantage to the interests of religion. We enquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved and that Charles James Maunder of Walton aforesaid Esquire being the patron or person entitled to present to the said united benefice if the same were now vacant has signified his consent in writing to such proposed disunion.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of each of the parish churches of the said united benefice with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Norwich our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the reply thereto, the consent in writing of the patron and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

"And we do hereby certify the enquiry and consent aforesaid to Your Majesty in Council to the intent that Your Majesty in Council may in case Your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do make and issue an Order for separating the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow. And in accordance with the consent in writing of the patron before referred to we recommend Your Majesty in Council that each of the said benefices when disunited shall retain its own original endowments and emoluments.

"As witness our hand the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

"Edw. Cantuar."

Now therefore Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased to order as it is hereby ordered that the said united benefice consisting of the vicarages of Walton and Felixstow shall be disunited by separating the said vicarage of Walton from the said vicarage of Felixstow.

And Her Majesty in Council by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased, on the recommendation of the said Archbishop, to assign and attach to each of the said benefices its own original endowments and emoluments and to direct that each benefice shall bear and pay its own original charges and outgoings.

C. I. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three in the words following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Ffynon Groyw, in the parish of Llanasa in the county of Flint and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Ffynon Groyw aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Llanasa which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints situate at Ffynon Groyw as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints Ffynon Groyw.'

"And with the like consent of the said Joshua Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints situate at Ffynon Groyw as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints Ffynon Groyw being:—

"All that part of the parish of Llanasa in the county of Flint and in the diocese of Saint Asaph which is bounded on the south, on the south-west and on the west by an imaginary line commencing at the point at the junction of the stream called or known as Nant-felin-Churn with the stream called or known as Afon-y-garth where the boundary which divides the said parish of Llanasa from the parish of Whitford in the county and diocese aforesaid is joined by the boundary dividing the township of Trelogan in the said parish of Llanasa from the township of Picton in the same parish and extending thence generally westward along the said township boundary for a distance of sixty-eight chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the stream called or known as Afon-y-garth as aforesaid to the point where the said stream and the said township boundary are crossed by the road or footpath leading from Trelogan past Rhewl-sawr through Picton and past the house or houses called Berllan to Llawndy and extending thence first north-eastward then northward then north-westward and finally north-eastward along the middle of the said road or footpath for a distance of one mile and seventy-six chains or thereabouts to a point at its junction with the turnpike-road leading from Chester to Holyhead upon the boundary which divides the township of Gwespyr in the parish of Llanasa aforesaid from the township of Trewaelod in the same parish and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned township boundary for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts, thereby following the course of the turnpike-road aforesaid, to the point at the junction of the same turnpike-road with the roadway which leads across the line of the Chester and Holyhead Branch of the London and North-Western Railway to the house called or known as Tyn-y-morfa at which point of junction the last-mentioned township boundary is joined by the boundary dividing the said township of Trewaelod from the township of Gronant in the parish of Llanasa aforesaid and extending thence generally northward along the last-mentioned township boundary for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts, thereby following in part the course of the last-described roadway and passing along the eastern side of the said house called or known as Tyn-y-morfa, to the northern boundary of the said parish of Llanasa upon the seashore. All which said hereinbefore described part of the parish of Llanasa aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south upon the south-west and upon the west as aforesaid that is to say upon the north upon the north-east and upon the south-east as follows, upon the north and upon the north-east by the sea or by the estuary of the River Dee and upon the south-east by the parish of Whitford aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Asaph.

C. L. Peck.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (some time particular district) of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain well disposed persons have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of three thousand pounds sterling in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, then of the said new parish and of the maintenance of the Minister or Incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such Minister or Incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding and condition that we should also make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the Minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said district or new parish when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Agnes, Bristol.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and by his successors Bishops of the said diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Agnes, Bristol, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which is bounded on the north-west by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Werburgh, in the diocese aforesaid, from the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, aforesaid, at the point where the road, called or known as Sussex-place, joins Ashley-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three and a-half chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Grosvenor-road, and continuing thence in a direction rather more southerly along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Saint Nicholas-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of two and a-half chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Martin-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street, for a distance of six chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Union-street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Albert-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street, for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to the boundary at a point in the middle of the same street opposite to the north-western end of the wall dividing the house known as No. 47 Albert-street from the house known as 49 Albert-street, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, from the parish of Saint Paul, Bristol, in the diocese aforesaid. All which said hereinbefore described portion of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, aforesaid, is bounded on the remaining sides other than upon the north-west as aforesaid, that is to say upon the south-west, upon the east and upon the north as follows:—Upon the south-west partly by the said parish of Saint Paul, Bristol, and partly by the new parish of Saint Clement, Bristol, in the diocese aforesaid, upon the east by the River Frome, or in other words partly by the parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob Without some time known as the District Parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, and partly by the new parish of Saint Simon, Bristol, both in the diocese aforesaid, and on the north by the new parish of Saint Werburgh aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas such patron has signified his assent to the same scheme.

And whereas the incumbent of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, has offered certain objections to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has notwithstanding such objections been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol in the registries at Gloucester and at Bristol respectively.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Edmonton in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Edmonton which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the limits of the said parish of Edmonton have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of some or one of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, and to his successors a grant of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum and also, so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district and shall have been approved by us and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, to make to the incumbent of the said new parish and his successors a further grant from the said fund of fifty pounds per annum.

"And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas certain well disposed persons have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of three thousand pounds sterling to be applied in and towards the provision of a church for the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid to us as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister thereto or (as the case may be) of the incumbent of the new parish which such district will or may hereafter become, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Edmonton which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Mary Edmonton.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and of the nomination of the minister thereto and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish, then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Reverend Robert Stewart Gregory Clerk in Holy Orders now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Edmonton aforesaid so long as he shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent and that from and after the next avoidance from whatever cause by the said Robert Stewart Gregory of the said vicarage the said right of patronage and nomination shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London and by their successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Mary Edmonton being:—

"All that part of the parish of Edmonton in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the west and on the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Edmonton from the new parish of Upper Edmonton in the county and diocese aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries the High Level Line of the Great Eastern Railway over Pymmes Brook and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-nine and one half chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to and at right angles with the junction of George-street with Lower Fore-street and extending thence that is from the last-described point in the middle of the said line of railway south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of five chains or thereabouts (thereby following in the latter part the middle of that portion of George-street which runs at right angles to Lower Fore-street aforesaid) to the junction of George-street with Lower Fore-street as before mentioned and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to a point opposite to the opening between the houses known respectively as No. 1 High-path Lower Fore-street and number 13 Frederick-terrace Lower Fore-street and extending thence south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of fifty-six and one half chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the southern end of Beaconsfield-road and the northern end of Inker-man-street to the mile post on the western side of the main line of the Great Eastern Railway which mile post indicates a distance of ten miles from London and extending thence due eastward and in a direct line for a distance of fifty-five chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Edmonton Marsh and the River Lea Navigation) to the boundary on the western side of the old course of the River Lea which boundary divides the said parish of Edmonton from the parish of Chingford in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

"All which said hereinbefore described part of the said parish of Edmonton is bounded on the remaining sides other than upon the west and upon the north as aforesaid that is to say upon the east and upon the south as follows upon the east by the parish of Chingford aforesaid and upon the south by the new parish of Upper Edmonton aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the parish of Edmonton out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and

Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter-mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:—

In the parish churchyard of North Frodingham, in the county of York, to the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the churchyard of Townstal, in the parish of Dartmouth, in the county of Devon, to the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

In the parish churchyard of North Crawley, in the county of Buckingham, to the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Hornsea, in the county of York, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

In the parish churchyard of Burham, in the county of Kent, to the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the church and churchyard of Settle, in the county of York, in the words following:

SETTLE.—Forthwith and entirely in Settle Church, in the county of York; and also in churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth.

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order be varied as regards burials in the said churchyard:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz.:

That burials be discontinued entirely in the said churchyard of Settle, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth:

(c.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the "Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

SIBLE HEDINGHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in Rehoboth Chapel, in the parish of Sible Hedingham, in the county of Essex; and also in the chapelyard, except for the interment therein of Mrs. Sarah Smith at her decease.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of October next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said tenth day of October.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 232.)—UNITED STATES—NEW YORK.

Princess Bay Light—Alteration in Character.

THE United States Government has given notice that on 18th July, 1883, the following alteration would be made in the light exhibited at Princess Bay, near the south-east end of Staten Island, approach to New York Harbour.

The light is a fixed white light, varied by a white flash at intervals of forty-five seconds.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
14th August, 1883.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Block Island to Great Egg Harbour, No. 2480. Also, Admiralty List of Lights in the United States, 1883, No. 157; and Sailing Directions for the Principal Ports of the United States, 1882, page 131.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 233.)—NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN.

Floating Wreck Westward of Cape Clear.

INFORMATION has been received that the Commander of the steam-vessel "Erin," from New York, reports having passed, on July 30th, 1883, a derelict brig (painted black, with foremast standing) in lat. 49° 3' N., long. 20° 4' W.—about 450 miles westward of Cape Clear.

This wreck presents a danger to shipping.

In this locality the drift current may be considered to set in an E.N.E. direction (true), at the rate of about half a mile an hour.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
14th August, 1883.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Charts:—North Atlantic, General, No. 2059; North Atlantic, Eastern Part, No. 2060a. Also, Pilot Charts for Atlantic Ocean.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 234.)—FRANCE.—WEST COAST.—ADOUR RIVER—BAYONNE.

Signals and Regulations for the Navigation of Adour River.

INFORMATION has been received from H.B.M. Consul at Bayonne, of the following signals and regulations for vessels crossing the bar of Adour River.

The signals are made from the signal tower and from a flagstaff situated southward of the tower.

Signals to Vessels in the Offing.

The national flag at flagstaff, bar is practicable at high water.

This signal is made in conjunction with balls, according to the system adopted at the French ports (see Sailing Directions for the West Coasts of France, Spain, and Portugal, 1881, pages 10, 11), and indicates the maximum draught of the vessel which can be admitted at the next high water.

When no signal is made the bar is impracticable.

Signals for Crossing the Bar.

To vessels that have arrived off the bar and are waiting to enter, signals are made from the top of the signal tower. These signals indicate:—(1) by balls the draught to be admitted at the time a signal is made; and (2) by signal from semaphore arm, the directions to be followed in steering into the port:—

Semaphore arm raised, pilot will direct you by signal.

Semaphore arm inclined to the right, alter course to starboard.

Semaphore arm inclined to the left, alter course to port.

Semaphore arm turned down, vessel is out of danger.

Semaphore with ball attached to arm, there is not enough water, stand off.

Semaphore with red flag attached to arm, will direct you by signal where to run aground in the best place, take precaution for saving lives of the crew.

A black cross on the tower, to seaward, vessels of 50 tons and less cannot enter.

A red flag at the mast head of the tower, no vessel can enter.

Towing Signals.

Should a vessel require the assistance of the tug, she should hoist the national flag at the main, keeping the signal flying until the arrival of the tug.

A white flag with blue crosses at the gaff of the flagstaff, tug will raise steam and come out.

Two white flags with blue crosses at the gaff of the flagstaff, tug cannot come to you.

Three white flags with blue crosses at the gaff (vertical) of the flagstaff, you cannot enter without the assistance of the tug*.

* To be answered by the vessel (if the tug is required) by the national flag at the main, indicating acceptance of the tug's services, when the three flags will be hauled down and one flag hoisted.

Signals at Night.

When the harbour light shows white, bar is practicable at high water, and has at that time not less than 13 feet water on it.

Two green lights in line, indicate the channel into the port.

Signals to Vessels in Port.

A chequered red and white flag on the tower facing inland, vessels may go out.

A flag with blue crosses on the tower facing inland, steamers only can go out.

The above two signals are repeated at the beacon tower of Boucaut, and at the mast on the bastion Allées Marines, Bayonne.

Regulations.

Two vessels are not permitted to cross the bar at the same time.

Should two or more vessels require to enter, the signal will be made to one only, the second vessel is on no account to follow, until the signal is made to her.

Sailing vessels are strictly forbidden to enter by night.

Vessel towed by the "Harbour-tug" are permitted to enter at night in very urgent cases.

Steamers may enter at night under exceptional circumstances only.

ST. GEORGE BAY.

St. George Harbour—Fixed Light on Harbour Point.

INFORMATION has been received, that on 26th June, 1883, a light was exhibited from a lighthouse erected (in place of the beacon) on Harbour (or Sandy) Point, north side of St. George Harbour:—

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 35 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of seven miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses, of the sixth order.

The lighthouse, constructed of iron and circular in shape, is painted red and white in horizontal bands (three red and three white); the keeper's dwelling attached is painted white.

Position, lat. $48^{\circ} 27' 25''$ N., long. $58^{\circ} 30' 20''$ W.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 238.)—CHINA—EAST COAST.

YANG-TSE-KIANG ENTRANCE.

INFORMATION has been received from Vice-Admiral George O. Willes, C.B., Commander-in-Chief on the China Station, of the existence of a shoal lying in the fairway of South Channel, Yang-tse-Kiang, about $1\frac{5}{10}$ miles N.N.E. of Kiu Toan Beacon:—

This shoal (of recent formation), on which H.M. ships "Audacious" and "Cleopatra" grounded on the 6th June, 1883, is probably about 3 cables in extent in a north-west and south-east direction, with a depth of about 3 fathoms at low water spring tides on the north-western part, and $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms to the south-eastward; it (3 fathoms) lies with the following bearings and distances:—

Kiu Toan Light-vessel, S. 70° E., distant $1\frac{5}{10}$ miles.

Kiu Toan Beacon, S. 17° W., distant $1\frac{5}{10}$ miles.

NOTE.—The extent of this shoal is uncertain, and as there may be less than $3\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms water on it, vessels should navigate in the vicinity with caution.

(2.) Alteration in Kiangloong Wreck Light.

The Chinese Government has given notice, dated 12th June, 1883, that a light-boat, from which is exhibited a fixed white light, has been substituted for the floating frame and red light which previously marked the wreck of the "Kiangloong" off Hen Point, Yang-tse-Kiang.

The light-boat is moored abreast of the wreck, to mark the starboard side of the channel for vessels proceeding up the river, and should be passed close to, in order to avoid the wreck.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 242.)—BALTIC.—COAST OF PRUSSIA.

(1.) Kiel Fiord—Torpedo Ground.

THE German Government has given notice, dated 23th July, 1883, that a space opposite Voss Brok, Kiel Fiord, is appropriated for torpedo practice, and closed to shipping until further notice.

This torpedo ground is marked by six tun buoys, coloured white and surmounted with red flags.

(2.) Torpedo Practice in Pillau Road.

Also, that from 12th August to 1st September, 1883 (usually between 6 A.M. and 1 P.M.), torpedo practice will take place in Pillau Road ; and that on 27th August, the channel to the harbour will be closed to shipping, on account of practice in exploding loaded torpedoes.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
21st August, 1883.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Charts :—Kiel Fiord, No. 33 (1) ; Rixhöft to Bruster Ort, with plan of Pillau Harbour, No. 2369 (2). Also Danish Pilot, 1853, page 342 ; and Sailing Directions for Baltic Sea and Gulf of Finland, 1854, pages 130, 131.

BEACHT HEAD.

Withdrawal of Wreck-marking Vessel and Buoy near Royal Sovereign Light-Vessel.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 214, of 27th July, 1883, on a wreck-marking vessel and buoy having been placed to mark a vessel sunk about one mile S.E. by S. of the Royal Sovereign Light-vessel.

Further information has been received from the Trinity House, London, that the masts of the vessel have been removed, and that the wreck is no longer an obstruction to navigation—the wreck-marking vessel and buoy have therefore been withdrawn.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation $18\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1883.]

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
22nd August, 1883.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—English Channel, Nos. 1598 and 2675*b*; Owers to Dungeness, No. 2451. Also, Channel Pilot, Part I, 1882, pages 239-241; Admiralty List of Lights in the British Islands, 1883, page 12.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 244.)—ENGLAND—WEST COAST.

MORECAMBE BAY.

Position of Morecambe Light-Vessel.

INFORMATION has been received from Staff Commander Archdeacon, Admiralty Surveying Officer, that Morecambe Light-vessel (between Yeoman and Clark Wharf Spits) now lies in 17 feet at low water spring tides on the north-west side of Grange Channel, approach to Morecambe, with the following bearings and distances:—

Morecambe outer pier head, E. by N. $\frac{3}{4}$ N., distant $5\frac{1}{2}$ th miles.

Wyre Lighthouse, S.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ S., distant $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Walney Lighthouse, N.W. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W., distant $6\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Position lat. $54^{\circ} 1' 40''$ N., long. $3^{\circ} 0' 0''$ W.

NOTE.—From the recent Admiralty Survey, it appears that Grange Channel adjacent banks have undergone considerable change—Vessels proceeding to the northward through the channel, should, after passing between buoys No. 1 black and No. 1 red, steer towards Morecambe Light-vessel, leaving her on the port hand; the red buoys should then be left on the starboard hand, the black buoys on the port hand.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation $20\frac{1}{4}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1883.]

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
23rd August, 1883.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Ireland, general, No. 1824*a*; Irish Channel, Nos. 1825*a*, b; Fleetwood to Solway Firth, No. 1826; Morecambe Bay, No. 2010. Also, Admiralty List of Lights in the British Islands, 1883, No. 413; and Sailing Directions for the West Coast of England, 1876, pages 183-185.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 245.)—NETHERLANDS.

Hook of Holland Canal Entrance—White Lights on South Shore temporarily discontinued.

TELEGRAPHIC information has been received from the Netherlands Government, through the Board of Trade, that in consequence of a wreck in the Hook of Holland Canal, the white lights on the south shore of the entrance are temporarily discontinued.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
23rd August, 1883.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Mouths of the Maas, No. 122. Also, Admiralty List of Lights in the North Sea, 1883, Nos. 100, 101; and North Sea Pilot, Part IV, 1878, page 156.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 246.)—NORTH SEA.

Floating Wreck S.E. of North Hinder Light-Vessel.

INFORMATION has been received from Lloyd's, that the master of the steam vessel "Fyenoord" reports having passed on the 19th August, 1883, a vessel (of about 500 tons, wooden and copper sheathed), bottom up, about 8 miles S.E. of North Hinder Light-Vessel.

This wreck presents a danger to shipping.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation 17° Westerly in 1883.]

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
24th August, 1883.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—North Sea, No. 2182*a*; Dover and Calais to Orfordness, No. 1406.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, August 28, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of prize money for the captures by Her Majesty's ship "London," specified below, will commence on Friday, the 7th proximo, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, New-street, Spring-gardens, S.W."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, London, S.W." (enclosing his certificate of service or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes for the respective Captures:—

* Counties include such Boroughs and Burghs as are locally situated within the limits of the Counties, or, if surrounded by two or more Counties, then they are included in the County with which they have the longest common boundary. Berwick-upon-Tweed is included in Northumberland.

Agricultural Department, Privy Council Office, 31st August, 1883.

Borough of Cardiff.

THE Council of the Borough of Cardiff have made the following Bye-laws and Regulations with respect to the Tramways of the Cardiff District and Penarth Harbour Tramways Company Limited, under section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870:—

Borough of Cardiff.

The Bye-laws and Regulations hereinafter set forth and made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Cardiff, acting by the Council as the Local Authority of the said borough, with respect to the tramway of the Cardiff District and Penarth Harbour Tramways Company Limited, under the provisions of section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, shall extend and apply to all tramways which have been or which may hereafter be constructed, and to all carriages which are now or which may hereafter be used upon the said tramways within the said borough.

I. The Rate of Speed to be observed in travelling upon the Tramway.

No carriage using the tramway shall be driven at a rate less than five miles, or greater than eight miles in the hour.

II. The distance at which Carriages using the Tramway shall be allowed to follow one after the other.

No carriage using the tramway shall be driven so as to follow a preceding carriage at a less distance than thirty yards along any portion of the line of tramway.

III. The Stopping of Carriages using the Tramway.

No carriage using the tramway shall stop except at junctions or terminal stations, or when necessary to preserve the distance required by the preceding Bye-law, or when changing horses, or when taking up or setting down a passenger, and in such cases no longer than is absolutely necessary. No carriage using the tramway shall stop within ten yards of another carriage on a parallel line of tramways. Provided always that the driver of every such carriage shall bring the same to a dead stand at the intersection of Bute-terrace and Bute-street, before crossing Bute-street in either direction, and the driver of every such carriage shall not permit the same to cross Bute-street in either direction if signalled by hand or otherwise not to do so by the police on duty. Provided also that the conductor of every such carriage shall, if required to do so by the police on duty, signal the driver thereof to stop the same, and the driver shall thereupon bring the carriage to a dead stand, and shall not proceed with the journey until permitted to do so by the police.

IV. The Traffic on the Road in which the Tramway is laid.

The traffic shall not be wilfully or neglectfully impeded or obstructed by any person driving any carriage, omnibus, cart, dray, or other vehicle of any description whatever.

Penalty.

Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of the above provisions shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings. Provided nevertheless that the Justices or Court before whom any complaint may be made or any proceeding may be taken in respect of any such offence, may, if they think fit, adjudge the payment as a penalty of any less sum than the full amount of the penalty imposed by this Bye-law.

These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of November, 1883.

Given under the Common Seal of the said borough of Cardiff this 20th day of August, 1883.

L. S.

By order,
J. L. Wheatley, Town Clerk.

NOTICE.

The Conductor of each carriage shall carry with him a copy of these Bye-laws, and shall on request of any passenger produce the same to, and shall permit the same to be perused by, such passenger; and the promoters shall affix in each of their offices and waiting-rooms within the borough a printed copy of the same for the use of the public.

The above Bye-laws and Regulations were forwarded to the Board of Trade for approval on the 28th instant, and any person desirous of objecting thereto should give notice to the Board of such objection not later than the 28th October next.

By order,
J. L. Wheatley, Town Clerk.
Townhall, Cardiff, August 20, 1883.

In the Matter of the Westwood Spinning Company Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862, 1867, and 1877, and the Chancery of Lancaster Acts, 1850 and 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an Order of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster (Manchester District), bearing date the 3rd day of August, 1883, confirming a Special Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the above Company, held on the 4th day of May, 1883, and confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting, held on the 25th day of May, 1883, and which resolution was in the words and figures following, that is to say:—"That in respect of each of the shares in the capital of the Company upon which the sum of £3 10s. or more has been paid up capital be paid off or returned to the extent of £2 per share on 51 shares, £1 per share on 7 shares, 15s. per share on 22 shares, and 10s. per share on 7,920 shares, so as to reduce the capital paid upon all such shares to the sum of £3 per share, upon the footing that the amount paid off or returned on each share, or any part thereof, may be called up again in the same manner as if it had never been paid;" and the following Minute:—"Minute approved by the Court. The capital of the Westwood Spinning Company Limited is £80,000, divided into 16,000 shares of £5 each. At the time of the registration of this Minute 8,000 of the said shares, numbered 1 to 8,000 inclusive, are deemed to have £3 per share paid thereon; 3,960 of the said shares, numbered 8,001 to 11,960 inclusive, are deemed to have £2 per share paid thereon; 10 of the said shares, numbered 11,961 to 11,970 inclusive, are deemed to have £1 17s. per share, paid thereon; 20 of the said shares, numbered 11,971 to 11,990 inclusive, are deemed to have £1 10s. per share paid thereon; 10 of the said shares, numbered 11,991 to 12,000 inclusive, are deemed to have £1 per share paid thereon (12,000); the 4,000 remaining have never been issued (16,000);"—was registered by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies on the 18th day of August, 1883.—Dated this 21st day of August, 1883.
