

thousand pounds sterling in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, then of the said new parish and of the maintenance of the Minister or Incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such Minister or Incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Act, the sum of one hundred pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

“And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid, upon the understanding and condition that we should also make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the Minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said district or new parish when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

“And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Agnes, Bristol.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and by his successors Bishops of the said diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Agnes, Bristol, being:—

“All that part of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which is bounded on the north-west by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint Werburgh, in the diocese aforesaid, from the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, aforesaid, at the point where the road, called or known as Sussex-place, joins Ashley-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of three and a-half chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Grosvenor-road, and continuing thence in a direction rather more southerly along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Saint Nicholas-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road, for a distance of two and a-half chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Martin-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street, for a distance of six chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Union-street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Albert-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named street, for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to the boundary at a point in the middle of the same street opposite to the north-western end of the wall dividing the house known as No. 47 Albert-street from the house known as 49 Albert-street, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, from the parish of Saint Paul, Bristol, in the diocese aforesaid. All which said hereinbefore described portion of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, aforesaid, is bounded on the remaining sides other than upon the north-west as aforesaid, that is to say upon the south-west, upon the east and upon the north as follows:—Upon the south-west partly by the said parish of Saint Paul, Bristol, and partly by the new parish of Saint Clement, Bristol, in the diocese aforesaid, upon the east by the River Frome, or in other words partly by the parish of Saint Philip and Saint Jacob Without some time known as the District Parish of the Holy Trinity, Bristol, and partly by the new parish of Saint Simon, Bristol, both in the diocese aforesaid, and on the north by the new parish of Saint Werburgh aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas such patron has signified his assent to the same scheme.

And whereas the incumbent of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Bristol, has offered certain objections to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has notwithstanding such objections been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and
