

recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the church and churchyard of Settle, in the county of York, in the words following :

SETTLE.—Forthwith and entirely in Settle Church, in the county of York ; and also in churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth.

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order be varied as regards burials in the said churchyard :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :

That burials be discontinued entirely in the said churchyard of Settle, except as follows :

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein, as can be buried at or below that depth :

(c.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the "Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz. :—

SIBLE HEDINGHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in Rehoboth Chapel, in the parish of Sible Hedingham, in the county of Essex ; and also in the chapelry, except for the interment therein of Mrs. Sarah Smith at her decease.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of October next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette ; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said tenth day of October.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, August 31, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council by certain Inhabitants and Members of the Corporation of the Ancient Borough of Queenborough, in the county of Kent, praying, under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, that a CHARTER may be granted extending the provisions of the said Act to the said borough ; and notice is hereby further given, that the said Petition will be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fifteenth day of October next.

(FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE.)

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of August, 1883.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The limits of the following Area which is declared by Order of Council dated the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, to be an Area infected with foot-and-mouth disease (namely),—the whole of the petty sessional division of Norman Cross, in the county of Huntingdon, with the exception of that part of the division which lies north and east of and including the road from Oakley Dyke to Fletton Spring and as much of the division as lies north of the London and North-Western Railway where it crosses the river Nene at Wansford Station to where it crosses again at the Sibson Tunnel,—are hereby extended so as to include the Area described in the Schedule to this Order, and the Area described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby declared to be an Area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

2. This Order shall take effect from and imme-
