PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

The jurisdiction of the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court at any Session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, held or continued for the Central Criminal Court District in the months of October, November, or December, 1883, or January, 1884, shall extend to such part of the County of Surrey as is not now included in the Central Criminal Court District, as if such part of the County of Surrey were included in the Central Criminal Court District, and the Central Criminal Court Act shall apply to the said part of the County of Surrey, and offences committed therein, as if the said part of the County of Surrey were mentioned in that Act:

Subject nevertheless to the following modifications and exceptions:—

(1.) Nothing in this Order shall authorise the trial at the Central Criminal Court of any person who shall have been admitted to bail and shall not be in custody at the time of the sitting of such Court, unless he be jointly charged with another person in actual custody, or of any person for any offence triable at Quarter Sessions, except in accordance with the provisions of Sections 18 and 19 of the Central Criminal Court Act, or except such last-mentioned person be also there triable for any offence or offences not triable at Quarter Sessions.

(2.) For the purposes of this Order the said part of the County of Surrey shall be deemed to be included in the Commission in force for the time being for the Central Criminal Court.

(3.) Unless the Central Criminal Court shall otherwise direct, no person shall be summoned or returned from the said part of the County of Surrey to serve on any Grand Jury or Petty Jury at the Central Criminal Court, but any Grand Jury or Petty Jury constituted in accordance with the provisions of the 4th Section of the Central Criminal Court Act, shall have authority to inquire of, present, try, and determine all offences with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court.

(4.) Until Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, otherwise to order and direct, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace or Coroner having jurisdiction within the said part of the County of Surrey, to commit any person charged with having committed any offence with respect to which jurisdiction is by this Order conferred on the Central Criminal Court, and which has been committed or is alleged to have been committed within the jurisdiction of such Justice or Coroner, either to the Gaol (other than the Gaol of Newgate) to which, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, and this Order, such person would have been committed, or to Her Majesty's Prison at Clerkenwell, there to remain until he can be tried in pursuance of this Order or in due course of law.

(5.) When in pursuance of this Order any person shall be committed to any Gaol other than Her Majesty's Prison at Clerkenwell, the Sheriff of the County in which the Gaol to which the prisoner is committed is situated, or the Keeper of the same Gaol, shall, six days at least before the next sitting of the Central Criminal Court at which the prisoner can be tried, or at such other

(7.) Where, for the purposes of the trial of any offence, with respect to which Jurisdiction is by this Order conferred upon the Central Criminal Court, recognizances are entered into for attendance at any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of Surrey, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the then next ensuing Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery to be holden for the Central Criminal Court District as enlarged by this Order, in the month of October, November, or December 1883, or January 1884, as the case may be, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such Session or forfeit his recognizance.

(8.) If the Central Criminal Court at its Session last held in the month of January 1884 cannot finally dispose of or for the purposes of justice is of opinion that it is inexpedient finally to dispose of the case of any prisoner or person committed for trial in the said part of the County of Surrey, then the said Central Criminal Court shall order the removal of such prisoner to the Gaol of the County or place whence he came in order that he may be tried at the then next Assizes, and the Prosecutor and Witnesses in attendance at the said Central Criminal Court shall enter into recognizances for their appearance at the said Assizes, and if an Indictment or Indictments has or have been found against the prisoner, the Clerk of the said Central Criminal Court shall transmit the Indictment or Indictments and the Depositions and all other things relating thereto to the Clerk of Assize at such Assizes, together with a copy of the Order of Court, and such prisoner or person shall be tried upon such Indictment or Indictments as if the same had been found at the said Assizes, and such prisoner may be removed from Her Majesty's Prison at Clerkenwell to the Gaol whence he came without Writ of Habeas Corpus, but with a copy of the said Order of Court, and all such other proceedings shall be had and taken as if the said prisoner or person had not been removed to Her Majesty's Prison at Clerkenwell.

(9.) If, in pursuance of the 18th section of the Central Criminal Court Act as applied by this Order, any Writ of Certiorari or Habeas Corpus be issued for the removal of any indictment or presentment, or of any person in custody from the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Surrey to the Central Criminal Court, one week's notice shall be given in manner required by that section.

(10.) Except where the context otherwise requires, the terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

(11.) This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force until the close of the Session of the Central Criminal Court last held in the month of January 1884.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carlisle shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts such prisoner would have been tried.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cumberland, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

"That it appears to me that the whole of the chapelry and parish of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn as now existing which now forms part of the vicarage of Llandingat may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of Her present Majesty chapter 106 and the 2nd and 3rd years of Her said Majesty chapter 49 be advantageously separated for ecclesiastical purposes from the said vicarage and parish of Llandingat and be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes and a benefice of which the said new church of Saint Mary's Llanfair-ar-y-bryn shall be when consecrated the parish church in substitution for the present parish church situate within the boundary of the parish of Llandingat.

Stock standing to the credit of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn in the books of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne which income the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have promised by a grant to augment to the total annual sum of three hundred pounds.

"It is moreover intended that the existing parish church of Llandingat shall be the parish church of the benefice of Llandingat and that the present church of Llanfair-ar-y-bryn locally situate within Llandingat shall become a chapel of ease to the parish and benefice of Llandingat when the new church has been substituted for it as a parish church.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consent in writing of me William Basil Lord Bishop as aforesaid the patron by virtue of my said Bishopric of the said benefice of Llandingat with Llanfair-ar-y-bryn and of the Reverend John Evans the present incumbent of such benefice that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme with respect to the advowson of the district and new parish of Easterton, in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas on and up to the fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one the whole advowson of the said district or new parish of Easterton was vested by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four and published in the London Gazette on the first of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four in the Honourable Louisa Hay of Clyffe Hall in the parish of Market Lavington in the said county of Wilts Widow and relict of the Honourable Samuel Hay deceased and her heirs and assigns.

"And whereas by a certain deed made between the said Louisa Hay of the one part and the Right Reverend George Bishop of Salisbury of the other part and made on the said fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one the said Louisa Hay did freely and voluntarily and without any valuable consideration grant and convey the whole advowson of the said district and new parish of Easterton unto and to the use of the said George Bishop of Salisbury and his successors for ever.

"And whereas the said deed (being first duly stamped) was enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice on the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

"And whereas the said Louisa Hay is still living.

"And whereas a transfer of the advowson of the said district and new parish of Easterton to the See of Salisbury will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls within the same district and new parish by rendering that benefice and cure more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control.

"And whereas it is in our opinion doubtful whether the said deed of the fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one purporting to effect such transfer of the said advowson to the said See as aforesaid is not invalid or capable of defeasance.

"And whereas in order to a removal of such doubt and for the better assurance of the said advowson to the See of Salisbury according to the terms of the said deed of the fourth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one the said Louisa Hay hath consented to execute this scheme as is next hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Louisa Hay (in testimony whereof she hath set her hand and seal to this scheme and with the consent of the said George Bishop of Salisbury in testimony whereof he hath set his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that the whole advowson of the said district and new parish of Easterton if and in so far as the same may still remain in the said Louisa Hay shall as from the date at which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme may be published in the London Gazette be without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order as aforesaid transferred from the said Louisa Hay and from her heirs and assigns to and shall thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in the said George Bishop of Salisbury and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid under the said Acts of Parliament or under any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Salisbury.
