AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 23rd day of August, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Cuthbert situate within the limits of the parochial chapelry of Lorton (which chapelry is an ecclesiastical subdivision of the parish of Brigham) in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parochial chapelry of Lorton of the said parochial chapelry of Buttermere and of the said parish of Brigham should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Cuthbert situate within the limits of the parochial chapelry of Lorton as aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the perpetual curacy of the said parochial chapelry of Lorton and with the consent of the Right Honourable James Lowther of Wilton Castle Redcar in the county of York Member of Parliament being as trustee of the Lonsdale Settlement, 1881 the patron both of the vicarage of the said parish of Brigham and also of the perpetual curacy of the said parochial chapelry of Buttermere (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parochial chapelry of Lorton and of the said parochial chapelry of Buttermere and of the said parish of Brigham which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Cuthbert situate within the limits of the parochial chapelry of Lorton aforesaid and that the same
