The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of a Special Resolution (registered 6th January, 1883) for Liquidation by Arrangement of the affairs of George Jevons and Thomas Travers Wood, carrying on business in copartnership as Iron and Tin Plate Merchants and Iron Manufacturers, at Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, under the firm of Biddulph, Wood, and Jevons, and at Swansea and Briton Ferry, both in the county of Glamorgan, under the firm of Townshend, Wood, and Co., and lately carrying on business at the same places and under the same styles and firms, in copartnership with John Biddulph and Charles Manby Wood, both deceased, the said George Jevons residing at the Cloisters, St. Michael's Hamlet, in the said county of Lancaster, and temporarily residing at the Euston Hotel, Euston-square, in the county of Middlesex, and the said Thomas Travers Wood residing at Dysgwylfa, Sketty, in the county of Glamorgan, and temporarily residing at the Great Western Hotel, Paddington, in the said county of Middlesex.

WHEREAS on or about the 6th day of March, 1883, and the 16th day of June, 1883, notices were duly gazetted requiring creditors of the said debtors, who had not proved their debts, to forward proofs of debts to me, the undersigned, Arthur Cooper, of No. 14, George-street, Mansion House, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, the Trustee under the said liquidation, and whereas the holders of a bill of exchange, drawn by the said debtors upon and accepted by the Cambria Tin Plate Society Limited for the sum of £317 8s. 5d., due on the 18th day of March, 1883, and numerous other creditors of the said debtors, have omitted to prove their claims, and whereas Dividends amounting to the sum of 3s. in the pound have been declared and paid, and whereas I am about to declare a Final Dividend among the creditors who shall have proved their claims. Now I do hereby, in pursuance of an order of Mr. Registrar Murray, sitting as Chief Judge, made on the 27th day of July, 1883, and an order of Mr. Registrar Brougham, sitting as Chief Judge, dated the 13th day of October, 1883, give notice, that unless the holders of the said bill of exchange, and all other creditors of the said debtors, do prove their debts, if they have any, and send the proof thereof to me, the undersigned, Arthur Cooper, of No. 14, George-street aforesaid, on or before the 28th day of November, 1883, I shall apply to the London Bankruptcy Court, on the 30th day of November, 1883, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for an order giving me leave to distribute the whole of the assets then in my hands amongst such creditors only as have proved their debts herein, and without regard to any other claims. And I further give notice, that if any creditors have any cause to show against such order being made, they must attend at the Court on the day and at the hour above mentioned and urge the same.—Delivered this 31st day of October, 1883.

ARTHUR COOPER, Trustee.
