"I Thomas Legh by Divine Permission Bishop of St. Albans do in pursuance of the 26th section of an Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter 106 hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

1. There is in the county of Hertford in my diocese of St. Albans the vicarage of Abbots Langley the parish whereof contains (exclusively of such portions of the said parish as form parts of adjoining new parishes or ecclesiastical districts) a population of one thousand seven hundred. The net annual value of the benefice of Abbots Langley arising from tithe rent-charge glebe land Easter offerings and surplice fees is two hundred and seventy pounds.

"2. The consolidated chapelry of St. Paul Langleybury was in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight founded under the Church Buildings Acts out of (inter alia) a portion of the said parish of Abbots Langley. The said consolidated chapelry contains according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one a population of eight hundred and twenty-one. The net annual value of the perpetual curacy of St. Paul Langleybury arising from tithe rent-charge and augmentation from the Ecclesiastical Commissioners and Queen Anne's Bounty is two hundred and fifty pounds.

"3. In the same county and diocese is the vicarage of King's Langley the parish whereof lies adjoining to the parish of Abbots Langley and consolidated chapelry of St. Paul Langleybury aforesaid and contains according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one a population of nine hundred and twelve. The net value of the benefice of King's Langley arising also from tithe rent-charge glebe land augmentation and surplice fees is four hundred and ten pounds.

"4. A certain district of the said parish of Abbots Langley which immediately adjoins the said parish of King's Langley and contains a population of one hundred and twenty-five persons or thereabouts lies at the distance of two miles by the nearest road and of one and three-quarter miles by the nearest footpath from the parish church of Abbots Langley but is within the distance of half a mile or thereabouts from the parish church of King's Langley and the inhabitants of such district are in the habit of attending Divine service at the parish church of King's Langley.

"6. It appears to me that the said respective districts may under the provisions of the said Act of the 1st and 2nd Victoria chapter 106 and of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of the same reign chapter 49 respectively, be advantageously separated from the said parish of Abbots Langley and consolidated chapelry of St. Paul Langleybury and united to the said parish of King's Langley.

"Given under my hand this sixteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.
"T. L. St. Albans."

The boundaries being as follows—An imaginary line commencing from the centre of the London and North-Western Railway crossing the road leading from Hemel Hempsted to Abbots Langley and following the division of the fields marked 492 and 494 in the map annexed to the apportionment of rent-charge in lieu of tithes within the parish of Abbots Langley as far as the centre of the stream which at present forms the boundary which divides King's Langley from Abbots Langley thence following the same boundary in a northerly direction to the well defined footpath that crosses the field marked 683 in the said tithe map extending along the centre of the said footpath in an easterly direction till it joins the road leading from Hemel Hempsted to Abbots Langley thence due north following the centre of the said road till it reaches the north-western corner of the piece of land marked 663 on the said map and then proceeding in a north-easterly

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of November, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the ninth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Newcastle, and out of the parochial chapelry of Horton in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon and of the said parochial chapelry of Horton which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas by a certain deed bearing date on or about the fourth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts 1843, 1844 and 1856' or some or one of them and being under the hand and seal of Sir Matthew White Ridley of Blagdon in the said county of Northumberland Baronet and being also under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and being also under the hand and seal of Sir George Pringle of No. 10 Whitehall-place in the city of Westminster, Knight, (which said deed is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of Your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said Sir Matthew White Ridley granted and secured to the minister of the said proposed district so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed thereto and so soon as such district shall under the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act have become a new parish then to the incumbent of such new parish and to their successors the ministers or incumbents of the said district or new parish for the time being one clear yearly rent-charge of one hundred and fifty pounds sterling to be issuing and payable out of and charged upon certain pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments situate in the parish of Stanington in the said county of Northumberland which are particularly described in the schedules annexed to the said deed and are also delineated upon a map or plan drawn upon and forming part of the same deed.

"And whereas the said rent-charge or annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been so granted and secured as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district when he shall have been duly licensed as aforesaid or (as the case may be) of the said new parish a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or (as the case may be) of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the said Sir Matthew White Ridley in perpetuity.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Ernest Rowland Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon and of the said parochial chapelry of Horton which are described in the schedule hereunder written (all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed) shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Cuthbert Blyth.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Sir Matthew White Ridley his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Cuthbert, Blyth, being:—

"1. All that portion of the parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle wherein the present incumbent of such parish or parochial chapelry now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Newsham and South Blyth.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the parochial chapelry of Horton in the county and diocese aforesaid which is bounded on the north and west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon from the parochial chapelry of Horton aforesaid at a point distant one and a half chains or thereabouts to the north-east of the centre of the bridge which carries Croft-road over the watercourse flowing from Cowpen Colliery and extending thence south-westward and in a direct line for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to the centre of the said bridge and continuing thence still south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the Commassie-road over the same watercourse and continuing thence still south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of forty-six chains or thereabouts thereby passing in part along the said watercourse to a point in the middle of the line of the Blyth and Tyne Railway opposite to the mile-post indicating a distance of one and a quarter miles from Blyth and extending thence south-westward, but in a more southerly direction along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Horton from the parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described portion of the parochial chapelry of Horton aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining side that is to say upon the south-east by the township of Newsham and South Blyth in the parish or parochial chapelry of Earsdon aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.
