To Mr. Alfred Jennings Cayle, of Hockley, Bishop Stortford, in the county of Hertford.

TAKE notice, that on the 24th September, 1883, a writ was issued against you in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in a certain action of Marshall and others v. Cayless and others, 1883, M., 8176, at the suit of Thomas Whittle Marshall, William Bennett, James Hill, Thomas Henry Harrison, Edward Barwick, William Roe, and William Robert Wherry, claiming to have an account taken of what is due to them for principals, interest, and costs under a mortgage, dated 18th day of June, 1877, made between yourself of the one part, and the said Thomas Whittle Marshall, William Bennett, James Hill, Thomas Henry Harrison, Edward Barwick, William Roe, and William Robert Wherry, of the other part, and that the said mortgage may be enforced by free closure or sale. And also take notice, that by an Order of Vice-Chancellor Bacon, the Judge of the said Division, to whom the said action is assigned, dated the 26th October, 1883, it was ordered that service of the said writ, by affixing a copy of the same, together with a copy of this Order, upon some prominent part of the property the subject matter of this action, situate in the lordship of Willoughb -on-the-Wolds, in the county of Nottingham, in the said writ mentioned, and by inserting this advertisement once in the London Gazette, once in the Daily Telegraph Newspaper, and once in the Nottingham Guardian, should be deemed good service of the said writ upon you. And take notice that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you in the said Chancery Division, within eight days after such service, the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and judgment may be given in your absence.
