

first July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-ninth day of December next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-ninth day of December.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, November 13, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been addressed to Her Majesty in Council by certain Inhabitant Householdors of the borough of Sutton Coldfield, in the county of Warwick, praying for the grant of a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION, under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882; and notice is hereby further given, that the said Petition will be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-eighth day of December next.

(SWINE-FEVER.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of November, 1883.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The following Area (namely),—St. John's Farm, Dauntsey, in the county of Wilts, occupied by William Freegard, and bounded on the west and north by the outer boundaries of the highways from Dauntsey and Christian Malford to Dauntsey-station, on the east by a footpath there leading from the said first-mentioned highway to the Great Western Railway, and on the south by the said Railway,—which was declared by Order of Council to be an Area infected with swine-fever, is hereby declared to be free from swine-fever, and that Area shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with swine-fever.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the eleventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

C. L. Peel.

(FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 12th day of November, 1883.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The following Areas (namely),—(1.) the whole of the parish of Eggleton, in the county of Rutland, and (2.) the whole of the parish of Manton, in the county of Rutland (except the old turnpike-road leading from Oakham to Uppingham in the said county and all lands lying west of the said road),—which were declared by Orders of Council to be Areas infected with foot-and-mouth disease, are hereby declared to be free from foot-and-mouth disease, and those Areas shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be Areas infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

2. The following Area declared by Order of Council to be an Area infected with foot-and-mouth disease (namely),—the whole of the parishes or places of Wing, Preston, Martinthorpe, and Gunthorpe, in the county of Rutland, and so much of the parish of Manton in the said county as lies on the west side of the old turnpike-road leading from Oakham to Uppingham and the said old turnpike-road,—is, except such portions thereof as are included in the Areas described in Article 3 of this Order, hereby declared to be free from foot-and-mouth disease, and the Area above described in this Article, except as aforesaid, shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

3. The following Areas (namely),—the whole of the parish of Preston, in the county of Rutland, and (2.) the whole of the parish of Gunthorpe, in the county of Rutland,—shall continue to be and are hereby declared to be Areas infected with foot-and-mouth disease.

4. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.
