

places or parts thereof respectively, so to be included within the added area, and to exempt the added area from the payment of all county, highway, district, and other rates whatsoever now levied or leviable within the said parishes, townships, and places, and to provide for the repair and maintenance of the roads, streets, and highways therein.

4. To extend and apply to and throughout the said city and county as extended (in this Notice referred to as the "extended city") the powers, rights, privileges, exemptions, jurisdictions, immunities, authorities, duties, liabilities, and obligations of the Corporation in its several capacities of a municipal corporation, local board, urban sanitary authority, and any other capacity, and of the Corporation acting in execution of all charters, public and local Acts, and of all Orders confirmed by Parliament, and of their officers and servants, and of the Court of Quarter Sessions, the Court of Record, and any other local courts of the city, and of the recorder, judges, sheriffs, justices, coroner, registrar, clerk of the peace, constables, and other officers of the existing city and county, and to abolish and exclude all other justices, sheriffs, coroners, clerks of the peace, police constables, and other officers, local board, sanitary or other authorities, from the exercise of any jurisdiction, powers, rights, privileges, duties, or authorities in the extended city, and to make applicable to the extended city all laws, charters, enactments, Acts of Parliament, deeds, orders, bye-laws, and regulations in force within or applicable to the existing city, with such additions, variations, modifications, and exceptions as may be provided by the intended Act.

5. To extend to and confer upon the owners and occupiers of property, and residents within the extended city all such rights of voting, and other franchises, rights, and privileges as are now vested in, or enjoyed by the owners of property and residents within the existing city, and the benefits and privileges of all charities and trusts now enjoyed by the owners of property and inhabitants, and others within the existing city.

6. To vest in the Corporation, for the benefit of the extended city, all the property of the Corporation in or with respect to any markets, fairs, piers, landing-places, and all other estates and property, and the revenues derived from all such properties respectively, and all powers, rights, duties, and privileges of every description vested in, exercised, or enjoyed by the Corporation for the benefit of the existing city, but subject to the liabilities affecting the same.

7. To abolish the existing division of the city into wards, and to divide the city as extended into new wards; to maintain, increase, or diminish the existing number of aldermen and councillors of the city, and to define the number to be returned for each ward; to make provision for the election and retirement of the mayor, aldermen, and councillors, and to provide for the number, names, and boundaries of the wards being fixed by the Local Government Board, or otherwise, and to make such other provisions with reference to the matters aforesaid, as may be necessary or expedient, or as the intended Act may provide.

8. To provide for the deposit, for public inspection, of plans of the city, and if the city be divided into wards, of the wards into which it will or may be divided, and to provide that copies of, or extracts from, such plans made and certified by the city surveyor, shall be evidence in all courts of justice, and elsewhere.

9. To exempt lands, houses, hereditaments, and property within the added area from the payment of all county or hundred rates, police, sewer, highway or sanitary rates, or other rates whatsoever, now levied or leviable within the parishes, townships, and places or parts thereof so added to the city and county, and to provide for the repair and maintenance by, or transfer to, the Corporation of the roads, streets, bridges, and highways within the added area, and to exempt the added area from any rates or orders made or to be made by the justices of the peace for the said North, East, and West Ridings respectively (whether acting in sessions or otherwise), or by any Local or Sanitary Authority, or Burial Board, Highway Board, Court of Sewers, or School Board of any district, parish, or place to be included, or partly included, within the extended city, and to exempt the added area from the jurisdiction of any such authorities, and from any liability to the expenses of any gaol or lunatic asylum to which such area, or any part or parts thereof, is or are or may be subject or liable.

10. To transfer to and vest in the Corporation all buildings, sewers, lamps, lamp-posts, pipes, mains, and all other property, real and personal, of or appertaining to the added area, but subject to the debts and liabilities affecting the same, and to make provision for the apportionment and discharge of such debts and liabilities.

11. To make provision for the repayment and discharge of all or such part of the moneys borrowed and now due and owing by the Local Authorities having jurisdiction in and over the added area as the Corporation may be required by Parliament to repay and discharge, either out of the district fund and general district rates, or other funds, rates, or revenues of the extended city, or wholly or partially out of rates to be levied within the several and respective parishes or townships of Holgate and St. Olave's, Marygate, or within those portions of the several parishes or townships of Middlethorpe, Dringhouses, Acomb, Clifton, Rawcliffe, Huntington, Heworth, Osaldwick, Heslington, and Fulford or Gate Fulford as are included in the extended city; and to authorise the Corporation to make, levy, collect, and recover special, private, improvement, or other rates and assessments (special or otherwise) within the said parishes or townships, or portions of parishes or townships, before mentioned, for paying off such moneys.

12. To authorise the Corporation to raise all or any of the moneys required from time to time for the discharge and repayment of any moneys borrowed as aforesaid on the credit of the district fund, general district rates, or other funds, rates, or revenues of the extended city, and to provide for the repayment of the moneys so raised, either out of the district fund and general district rates of the extended city, or wholly or partially out of any special or private improvement rate, or other rates or assessments to be levied as aforesaid.

13. To provide that the rates, dues, duties, and assessments (if any) to be levied by the Corporation in the several parishes or townships, or portions of the parishes or townships before mentioned added to the city, or one or more of them may for a period or periods to be specified in the intended Act, be different from the rates, dues, duties, and assessments to be levied by the Corporation within other parts of the extended city.

14. To make such provisions with reference to the several matters mentioned in the last four preceding paragraphs as may be contained in the intended Act, or as Parliament may think fit, with reference to the added area, and to the repayment of moneys borrowed and owing by the
