

tenance of the recreation ground; or in aid of any of the objects and purposes of the Bill.

To empower the Conservators, the Corporation, the Board, and the District Board, or any one or more of them, to enter and carry into effect contracts, agreements, and arrangements for or with respect to the formation and maintenance of the recreation ground, or any part or parts thereof, the contribution of funds and any incidental matters, and to sanction and confirm any contracts, agreements, or arrangements which now are, or which prior to the passing of the Bill may be entered into touching the matters aforesaid, and to authorise or provide for the vesting in the Conservators, the Corporation, the Board, and the District Board, or any one or more of them, upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions as may be agreed upon or may be prescribed by the Bill, of the recreation ground, or any part or parts thereof.

To confer upon the Conservators, the Corporation, the Board, and the District Board, or any one or more of them, all such powers and privileges in and over the River Thames as may be necessary or expedient for the formation and maintenance of the recreation ground, and particularly as to the embanking, scouring, dredging, and deepening of the bed, soil, and shore of the River Thames.

To authorise the Conservators of the River Thames to contribute towards the expense of any of the objects or purposes of the Bill, and to enable them to apply for any such purpose any moneys in their hands or under their control, or which they may be authorised to borrow or raise, and applicable to the purposes of the Conservancy under the Thames Conservancy Acts, or any Acts relating to the river Thames.

To enable the Conservators, the Corporation, the Board, and the District Board, or any one or more of them, to sell, let, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, or to pull down all or any of the houses and buildings to be purchased or acquired by them, and to rearrange and lay out, or to sell, lease, exchange, and dispose of the ground when so cleared, and to erect other houses and buildings on the said lands, and to sell, let, or lease the same for such price or prices, and at such rents or other consideration as they think fit, either by way of absolute sale, or in consideration of ground or annual rents, and either in perpetuity or for a term of years, and subject to such stipulations and conditions as they think fit as to the character and uses of the buildings to be erected or otherwise.

The Bill will, or may, amend and enlarge the powers or provisions of "The Metropolis Management Act, 1855," and any Acts amending the same, "The Metropolitan Open Spaces Acts, 1877 and 1881," and of the several Acts relating to the Corporation or Board; and it will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," and the Bill will confer upon the Conservators, the Corporation, the Board, and the District Board, or any one or more of them, other rights, powers, and privileges, and amend and, if need be, repeal the powers and provisions, or some of the powers and provisions, of any public or local and personal Act or Acts now in force within the limits of the Bill.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans, showing the lands proposed to be acquired for the purposes of the Bill, with a Book of Reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office at Clerkenwell Green, in the said county, and that a copy of the said plans and Book of Reference, and also a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the same day, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Board of Works for the Fulham District, at his office, at the Broadway, Hammersmith.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1883.

In Parliament.—Session 1884.

Crown Lands.

(Power to grant Leases of Lands for Roads and Approaches in the Royal Forests; Power to grant Leases of Foreshores for Oyster and Mussel Fisheries; Facilities for Emfranchisement of Copyhold Lands belonging to the Crown; Lands for Church and School purposes at Rhyll; to disturb certain Roads; Amendment of Acts and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to introduce a Bill and to pass an Act for the objects and purposes following, or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To alter and amend parts of the Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of King George IV, cap. 50 (relating to the management and improvement of Crown lands), and particularly Section 97 of that Act, and to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or one of them (hereinafter called "the Commissioners"), to grant leases of portions of the lands forming part of any of the royal forests for the purpose of making roads and approaches.

2. To enable the Commissioners to grant leases of seashore under their management, for the purpose of an Oyster and Mussel Fishery.

3. To afford greater facilities for the enfranchisement of copyhold lands belonging to the Crown, which are subject to subsisting mortgages, and to afford other facilities in dealing with such lands, and to define certain powers under Section 5 of the Crown Lands Act, 1851.

4. To alter and amend the conditions of a certain grant of Crown land dated the 29th December, 1836, and made under the powers of the Act of the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George IV, cap. 50, for the purpose of erecting a church and dwelling-house for the officiating clergyman at Rhyll, in the county of Flint, and to vest a portion of such lands in the persons in whom the Rhyll National School is vested, for school purposes, and to declare that certain lands shall be glebe, subject to the law relating to glebes.

5. To repeal, alter, and amend wholly or in part an Act passed in the 15th and 16th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, cap. 45, intitled "An Act for making a Turnpike Road between Stone Creek and Sunk Island Church, in the county of York, and between Sunk Island Church and Patrington Haven, and for consolidating, with such roads the present Turnpike Road from Sunk Island Church to Ottringham, and for constructing quays and wharves at Stone
