

nently, of roads, footpaths, drains, telegraphs, sewers, pipes, waters, rivers, streams, and water-courses, so far as may be necessary or convenient in constructing or maintaining the said intended widening of railway and works; deviation from the lines of railway or works to any extent within the limits of deviation to be shown on the deposited plans, and from the levels thereof, as shown on the deposited sections, or to such further extent as may be defined by the Bill; purchase of land, houses, and other property compulsorily, and by agreement, for the purposes aforesaid and the general purposes of the Company.

To enable the Company, if they think fit, to purchase so much of any house, building, or manufactory as they may require for any purpose, without being subjected to the liability imposed by section 92 of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

To extend to the railway as widened, all powers of the Company to levy tolls, rates, and charges.

To change the name of the Company. To confer on the Company further powers as to the issue of debenture stock and conversion of existing and future debentures into debenture stock.

To authorise the Company to apply to the purposes of the Bill their existing funds, and any moneys which they have still power to raise, and for the same purposes and for their general purposes to raise additional capital by shares or by stock, debenture stock and by borrowing, and to attach to such shares or stock any preference or priority of dividend and any other advantage, or to provide for the issue of such capital or any part thereof with such deferred or other dividend, and generally on and subject to such terms and conditions as the Bill may define.

To consolidate or provide for consolidating into a single stock the existing preference stocks and the warehouse stock of the Company, or some of those stocks, and to explain or alter the provisions of the King's Lynn Dock Act, 1873, with respect to the capital thereby authorised and application of income arising from the Company's warehouses, and to define the manner in which and the purposes to which such income shall be applied.

To authorise the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of King's Lynn (who are hereinafter called "the Corporation") to contribute further sums of money towards the undertaking of the Company out of their corporate funds, and to hold further shares in the capital of the Company, and to extend to any contribution by the Corporation under the powers of the Bill the various powers, conditions and restrictions contained in Sections 23 to 33, both inclusive, of the King's Lynn Docks and Railway Act, 1865, of those powers, conditions and restrictions, as the said Bill shall define.

The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with its objects, and it will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869," "The Lands Clauses Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Railways Clauses Act, 1845 and 1863," and it will or may enlarge or amend the powers and provisions of "The King's Lynn Docks and Railway Act, 1865," "The King's Lynn Dock Act, 1869," "The King's Lynn Dock Act, 1873," "The King's Lynn Dock Act, 1877," and "The King's Lynn Dock Act, 1881," and of any other Act or Acts relating to the Company and its undertaking.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the line and level of the proposed widening, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which it will be made: and plans showing the land which may be taken under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, and a copy of this notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, at his office at Norwich, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the intended works will be made, or in which any lands, houses, or other property are intended to be taken, and a copy of this notice will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish respectively at his place of abode.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1883.

In Parliament.—Session 1884.

Bank of South Australia.

(To Extend and Enlarge the Powers of the Bank of South Australia; to Reconstitute the Corporation; to enable them to Increase their Capital; to carry on business in any Part of the Australian Colonies, and in New Zealand, and elsewhere, with the same Powers as they now do in South Australia; and for other Purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act for all or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:—

To enable the Bank of South Australia (hereinafter called "the Corporation"), in addition to the powers already possessed by them, for carrying on the business of a Banker in the Colony of South Australia under a Royal Charter, dated the 3rd day of September, 1847, and a Supplemental Royal Charter, dated the 5th day of July, 1866, or otherwise to carry on the business of a Banker in the other Australian Colonies, or some of them, and also in the Colonies of New Zealand and Tasmania, and in the British Possessions of Fiji, in like manner and with the same powers as they are now authorized to carry on such business in the said Colony of South Australia, subject to such alterations, modifications, or enlargements of the powers now vested in them as may be provided by the intended Act.

To extend and define the term during which the powers now possessed by, or which may be granted to the Corporation, may be exercised; if found necessary or expedient, to reconstitute the Corporation, and generally to make all such provisions, and to confer all such rights, powers, and privileges as may be necessary for that purpose, or for authorizing and carrying into effect the other purposes of the intended Act.

To alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, or some of them, of the said Charters, and to repeal or alter any provisions or restrictions contained in the said Charters, or either of them, which are or may be inconsistent with the objects of the intended Act, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with or prevent the execution of the objects of the intended Act.
