

define, or as Parliament may prescribe, and to provide for the filling of vacancies in those offices from time to time.

3. The Bill will or may provide as to any one or more of the said three ridings that the provisions with respect to the election or appointment of the registrar shall only apply to such riding from and after the passing of a resolution in that behalf by the county authority for the time being of such riding.

4. To provide in case of any vacancy in the office of registrar in any of the said three ridings for the payment of any future registrar for such riding by salary in lieu of fees.

5. To authorize the county authority of any riding to agree with the present registrar of such riding for his payment by salary in lieu of fees, on such terms as may be agreed on between the said authority and such registrar.

6. To provide for the appointment and payment of deputy registrars in the said ridings.

7. To empower the county authority of any riding with respect to the registration of instruments in such riding from time to time (subject to such confirmation as may be defined in the Bill or prescribed by Parliament) to make rules, regulations, and orders, for the better carrying into execution the several purposes of the intended Act, and for the fixing of the fees payable for or in relation to such registration.

8. To empower the county authority of any riding as to the existing register offices, dwelling-houses, and premises connected therewith in such riding, to repair, alter, enlarge, and maintain, or to pull down and rebuild the same, or to sell the same, or any part or parts thereof, and to acquire and to hold lands for the building and to build thereon, or otherwise to provide and maintain all such offices, dwelling-houses, and premises, as they may deem expedient for the carrying on of the business of such registration, and to vest all such lands, offices, houses, and premises in the Clerk of the Peace for such riding, as riding property, withing the meaning of the County Property Acts, 1858, 1871.

9. To provide out of the county rate of the respective ridings or from such other source as the Bill may define or as Parliament may prescribe for the payment of the salaries of the respective registrars, deputy-registrars, officers, clerks, and servants, the costs and expenses of providing and maintaining the said offices, dwelling-houses, and premises, and of the general expenses of and incident to the registration of instruments in the respective ridings, and of carrying into execution therein the provisions of the Act.

10. To provide for the payment to the Treasurers of the respective ridings, for the credit of such riding, of all fees and moneys payable for or in relation to the registration of instruments therein.

11. To enable the county authority of the respective ridings, for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, to borrow money by mortgage or bond, or by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or otherwise, under the provisions of the Local Loans Act, 1875, and to make, assess, levy, and recover rates as part of or in the nature of county rates, and to alter existing rates.

12. The Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which may interfere with any of its objects, and confer other rights and privileges, and will alter and amend or repeal and consolidate with such amendments and alterations as may be deemed expedient, the provisions of the following Acts, that is to say: 2 and 3 Anne, cap. 4; 5 Anne, cap. 18; 6 Anne, caps. 20, 35, and 62;

8 George II., cap. 6; and any other Act directly or indirectly affecting the registration of instruments in any of the said ridings, and will or may incorporate with itself, with or without any modification, such provisions as may be thought expedient of (among other Acts) the Act to amend the Law of Evidence (14 and 15 Vic., cap. 99); "The Land Transfer Act, 1875"; "The Local Loans Act, 1875"; and "The Conveyancing Acts, 1881, 1882."

Dated this 10th day of November, 1883.

T. L. Yeoman, Clerk of the Peace of the North Riding of Yorkshire;

John J. Bickersteth, Clerk of the Peace of the East Riding of Yorkshire;

John Hamerton, Clerk of the Peace of the West Riding of Yorkshire;

William C. Trevor, Guisborough;

Wm. L. Williams, Wakefield;

Solicitors for the Bill.

Dyson and Co., 24, Parliament-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agents.

Strensall Common.

(For Ascertaining the Common and other Rights on Strensall Common, and the Value thereof, and providing for the Purchase thereof by the War Secretary, and the Use of the Common for Military Purposes; varying and extinguishing Rights, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to make provision for ascertaining the rights of the common and other rights in or over Strensall Common, in the parish of Strensall, in the North Riding of the county of York, and for ascertaining and fixing the value of such rights, and to provide for the purchase of all or any of such rights by the Secretary of State for the War Department, upon trust for Her Majesty, and for the use of the said common by any of Her Majesty's Forces or other persons acting under the authority of the said Secretary of State.

For the purposes aforesaid, it is proposed to confer powers upon the Enclosure Commissioners for England and Wales, enabling them, amongst other things, to appoint Assistant Commissioners and hold meetings, and to make applicable all or certain of the provisions of the Enclosure Acts, 1845 to 1878, and to make provision for laying out, fencing, and otherwise improving the said common, and for using the same for military purposes, with power to appropriate portions thereof exclusively for the public service, and to construct on such portions stores, magazines, houses, and other buildings and works.

It is also proposed to make provision for varying or extinguishing all rights of way and other rights which might interfere with the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Dated 10th November, 1883.

Augustus Keppel Stephenson, Solicitor for the affairs of Her Majesty's Treasury.

J. Eustace Grubbe, 7, Great George-street, Westminster, Parliamentary Agent.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division. In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Hants and Berks Farmers' Co-operative Steam Ploughing and Cultivating Company Limited.

BY an Order made by the Honourable Mr. Justice Chitty in the above matter, dated the 10th day of November, 1883, on the petition