

said parishes of St. John, Hampstead, and Hendon, in the county of Middlesex.

To confer upon the Company all necessary powers for making and maintaining the said railway and works, and to authorize the Company to purchase and take lands and buildings by compulsion or agreement in and near the parishes and places aforesaid for the purposes of the said intended railway and works, and to purchase and acquire so much of any property as may be required for the purposes, or in exercise of the powers of the intended Act, without becoming subject to the liability imposed by section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

To empower the Company to stop up, alter, or divert, temporarily or permanently, all or any turnpike or other roads and highways, bridges, rivers, brooks, streams, waters, watercourses, sewers, drains, pipes, telegraphic and telephonic tubes, wires, and apparatus, and other works of any description which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter, or divert for any of the purposes of the intended railway and works, and to levy tolls, rates, and charges, and to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, and charges.

To authorize the Company, and any other company or companies running over, working, or using the intended railway, to run over and use with their engines, carriages, and servants, and for purposes of their traffic of every description, so much of the railways of the Metropolitan Railway Company as lies between the junction therewith of the railway proposed to be authorized by the intended Act and the West Hampstead Station of the Metropolitan Railway Company, and to use the said West Hampstead Station, and the roads, signals, water, watering-places, engines-sheds, offices, warehouses, sidings, junctions, works, and conveniences connected with the said portion of railway and station, upon payment of such tolls, rates, duties, or other remuneration, and upon such terms and conditions, as shall be mutually agreed upon; or, failing such agreement, as shall be settled by arbitration or otherwise provided for by the intended Act.

To enable the Company and the Metropolitan Railway Company from time to time to enter into and carry into effect contracts, agreements, and arrangements for or with respect to the working, use, management, construction, and maintenance of the proposed railway and works, the supply of rolling stock and machinery, and of officers and servants for the conduct of the traffic of the said railway, the payments to be made and the conditions to be performed with respect to such working, use, management, construction, and maintenance, the interchange, accommodation, conveyance, and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for the respective undertakings of the said companies, and the levying, fixing, division, and appropriation of the tolls, rates, charges, receipts, and revenues levied, taken, or arising from that traffic, the sums or considerations whether annual or in gross, and the rents, payments, allowances, rebates, and drawbacks to be paid, made, or allowed by either of the contracting companies to the other of them, for or on account of any of the matters to which the respective contract, agreement, or arrangement relates, the appointment of joint committees and the exercise of all such other powers as may be found desirable in reference to the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, and to sanction and confirm any such contract or agreement already made, or which prior to the passing of the intended Act may be made with respect to all or any of the matters aforesaid.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges of any description which might in any way interfere with the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And, so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, to alter, vary, amend, and extend or repeal some of the provisions of the local and personal Acts following, that is to say, 16 and 17 Vic., cap. 186, and all other Acts relating to the Metropolitan Railway Company.

Duplicate plans and sections, showing the line and levels of the proposed railway, and the plans also showing the lands intended to be taken under the compulsory powers of purchase to be conferred by the intended Act, with a book of reference to the plans and an ordnance map showing the general course of the intended railway, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office at the Sessions House, Clerkenwell, and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to the parish of St. John, Hampstead, will be deposited with the vestry clerk of that parish, at his office at the Vestry Hall in that parish, and a copy of so much thereof as relates to the parish of Hendon will be deposited with the parish clerk of that parish, at his residence. Each such deposit will be made on or before the 30th day of November, 1883, and will be accompanied by a copy of this notice.

Printed copies of the intended Act will, on or before the 21st day of December, 1883, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1883.
