On the South-easterly side of the existing Borough of Bury.

So much of the hamlet of Unsworth, in the township of Pilkington, in the parish of Prestwich-cum-Oldham, and county of Lancaster, as lies on the right bank of the river Roche, and including the bed of such river to the centre thereof co-extensive with the said portion of such hamlet.

On the South-westerly side of the existing Borough of Bury.

So much of the parish and township of Radcliffe, known as Warthfold, as lies outside the limits of the existing borough of Bury, and being such portion of the district of the Radcliffe Local Board as lies on the left bank of the River Irwell, including the bed of such river to the centre thereof co-extensive with Warthfold aforesaid, hereinafter referred to as the "added district."

To detach and sever the added district from the district and jurisdiction of the Rural Sanitary Authority of the Bury Union and the Radcliffe Local Board, and of any other sanitary, educational, or other authority within the added district, and to exempt the added district from the payment of all county, highway, police, educational, and other rates whatsoever now levied or leviable within the added district, and to provide for the repair and maintenance of the roads, streets, and highways therein.

To extend and apply throughout the municipal borough as proposed to be extended (in this notice called the extended borough) all the jurisdiction, rights, powers, privileges, immunities, authorities, duties, and liabilities of the Corporation in their several capacities of a municipal corporation, local board, and urban sanitary authority, and of the Corporation acting in execution of the Municipal Corporations Acts, the Public Health Acts, and the Acts for the time being affecting the Corporation as a municipal body and a sanitary authority respectively, and of any charter or charters and otherwise, and of the officers and servants of the Corporation in their respective official capacities with such exceptions, modifications, amendments, or alterations, as may be deemed expedient, or as the Bill may provide or Parliament may prescribe.

To extend and apply throughout the extended borough the jurisdiction, powers, rights, privileges, immunities, authorities, duties, and liabilities of the magistrates, justices of the peace, constables, and other officers of the existing borough, and to abolish and exclude all other justices, magistrates, constables, and other officers from the exercise of any jurisdiction, powers, rights, privileges, duties, or authorities in the extended borough.

To extend to and make applicable within the extended borough all laws, charters, enactments, acts, deeds, orders, bye-laws, and regulations in force within or applicable to the existing borough, with such variations, modifications, and exceptions as the Bill may provide or Parliament prescribe; also, if thought necessary or desirable, to extend to and confer upon owners of property, occupiers, and residents within the extended borough, all such rights of voting, except for the election of members to serve in Parliament and other franchises, rights, and privileges, as are now vested in or enjoyed by the owners of property, occupiers, and residents within the existing borough, and the benefits and privileges of all charities and trusts now enjoyed by owners of property, occupiers, and residents within the existing borough.

To authorise the Corporation to make, levy, collect, and recover tolls, rates, dues, duties, assessments, fees, and payments, and to alter and extend those now leviable for all or any of the purposes of the Corporation and of the Bill within the extended borough, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates, dues, duties, assessments, fees, or other payments.

To create new districts for special purposes to be defined in the Bill, and to create a new ward or wards out of the added district, or to divide the whole of the extended borough into new wards, or to make provision for the number, names, and boundaries of the wards, being fixed and determined by the Local Government Board, and to make such other provisions with respect to the wards in the extended borough as the Bill may define or Parliament prescribe.

To increase or alter the number of aldermen and councillors of the existing borough or of the aldermen or of the councillors only, and to define the number to be returned by and for each ward, to fix and determine the wards which the aldermen and councillors shall represent, and to make provision for the qualification, election, and retirement of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the extended borough, and the election of auditors, and to make provision, so far as may be necessary or expedient, with respect to the preparation and revision of the burgess lists, and generally to make all such provisions as may be necessary or expedient for the representation of the several wards of the extended borough, and such other arrangements and provisions as may be necessary or incidental to all or any of the purposes aforesaid, or as the Bill may define or Parliament prescribe.

To make provision for the deposit of plans of the extended borough, and of the wards into which it will or may be divided, and of other districts within the extended borough, or any or either of them, and to make certified copies of, or extracts from such plans, evidence in all courts of justice, and for all purposes; to authorise and fix the charges to be made for inspection, copies of, or extracts from such plans.

To exempt the lands, houses, hereditaments, and property within the added district, from all sewer, drainage, highway, educational, and other rates, tolls, duties, and assessments now levied or leviable therein, and from rates to be made by the Justices of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, and any local or sanitary authority, highway board, or school board within the added district, or any of them, and to restrain the Justices of the Peace and magistrates of the county of Lancaster, and any sanitary authority, local board, highway board or authority, school board or school authority, and any other existing authority or person now having any jurisdiction in or over the added district or any part thereof, from making, levying, or collecting any rates, tolls, duties, or assessments in the added district, and to make all requisite provisions as to the making, levying, collection, and apportionment thereof, and such other provisions with reference to the several matters aforesaid as the Bill may contain, or Parliament sanction.

To vest in the Corporation, for the benefit of the extended borough, all lands, estates, and
