INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of All Saints within the New Parish of Long Marston for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Hertford, and Diocese of Saint Albans.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Long Marston, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Saint Albans, and has been consecrated and dedicated to All Saints.

And whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans, and the Reverend William Quennell, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar of the parish of Tring, in the said county and diocese, who at the date next hereinafter mentioned was the patron of the said new parish (then a consolidated chapelry) of Long Marston, and the Reverend William Caldwell Masters, Clerk in Holy Orders, who was at the same date and is now the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and new parish of Long Marston, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Long Marston that the said new church of All Saints
