Port Palermo—Light-vessel marking Northern Mole Extension.

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 84 (1), of 6th May, 1882, on a spar buoy, surmounted by a frame globe, having been placed to mark the extremity of the Northern Mole at Port Palermo.

The Italian Government has given further notice, that on 20th November, 1883, the spar buoy would be replaced by a light-vessel moored near the extremity of the masonry in progress for the extension of the Northern Mole.

The light is a fixed red light, elevated 28 feet above the sea. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses.

Also, that on the same date, the fixed red light on the Northern Mole head would be discontinued.

NOTE.—Vessels should pass between this light-vessel and the extremity of the Southern Mole.

When from bad weather the light cannot be shown from the light-vessel, two fixed red lights, placed vertically, will be exhibited on the Northern Mole head from the position of the discontinued red light; and vessels should pass at least 175 yards southward of it, in order to clear the masonry in course of construction.

By command of their Lordships,
Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 361.)—UNITED STATES.—

MASSACHUSETTS—GLOUCESTER HARBOUR.

(1.) Automatic Signal Buoy off Eastern Point.

THE United States Government has given notice, that on or about 20th November, 1883, an automatic signal buoy would be placed off Eastern Point, Gloucester Harbour Entrance.

The buoy, surmounted by a whistle, giving from twenty to thirty blasts per minute, is moored in 16½ fathoms, with the following bearings and distances:—

Eastern Point Lighthouse, N. by E., distant 5 cables.

Thatchers Island Outer Lighthouse, N.E. by E., distant 5½ miles.

NOTE.—From this buoy, a N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. course will lead into Gloucester Harbour, about midway between Dog Bar and Round Rock Shoal.

GULF OF MEXICO—MISSISSIPPI SOUND.

(2.) Merrills Shell Bank Light Re-exhibited.

Also, with reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 300, of 11th October, 1883, on the destruction by fire of Merrills Shell Bank Lighthouse, western side of Mississippi Sound; and exhibition of a provisional light.

Further notice has been given, that the light, house has been rebuilt, and that on 20th November, 1883, the light would be re-exhibited.

The light is, as formerly, a fixed white light, elevated 45 feet above the sea, visible in clear weather from a distance of 12 miles.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation $12\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westerly in 1883.]

By command of their Lordships,
Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.
Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
3rd December, 1883.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 362.)—MEDITERRANEAN.—ITALY—WEST COAST.

(1.) Gulf of Spezia—Channel eastward of the Breakwater temporarily closed.

THE Italian Government has given notice, dated 16th November, 1883, that the work of dredging channel eastward of the breakwater in the Gulf of Spezia has been commenced. For this purpose, chains, supported by buoys, and not more than 13 feet below the surface of the water, have been stretched across the channel, which is therefore temporarily closed to vessels, except those drawing less than 13 feet.

Further notice will be given when the dredging is completed.

GULF OF SALERNO.

(2.) Salerno—Harbour Light on Breakwater.

Also, that on 1st December, 1883, a harbour light would be exhibited from the eastern extremity of the breakwater at the Port of Salerno.

The light is a fixed white light, visible inshore through an arc of 200° , comprised between River Jenò Entrance (eastward of Salerno) to the eastward; and Crestarella Tower (on the coast near Vietri) to the westward. It is elevated 21 feet above the sea, and the range of visibility is such that it can be seen from the coast comprised within the illuminated arc.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors.

NOTE.—This light serves for small vessels using the new eastern entrance of the port, in which the depths are 13 to $19\frac{1}{2}$ feet, with a breadth of 76 yards from the eastern extremity of the breakwater, towards the old Manfredi Mole. Large vessels should still use the western entrance.

STRAIT OF MESSINA.

(3.) Reggio—Alteration in Colour of Harbour Light.

Also, that on 20th November, 1883, the following alteration would be made in the colour of the harbour light shown from the steeple of the Church of Santa Maria di Porto Salva, at Reggio, eastern side of the Strait of Messina.

The light is altered from fixed white to fixed green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Michael and All Angels, Croydon, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors; Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year; And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Michael and All Angels, Croydon, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage or benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Michael and All Angels, Croydon: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Simon, South Shields, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us; To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever, except and reserved at all times and for ever unto us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, our successors, assigns, and lessees, all mines, minerals, metals, ores, and other substrata whatsoever within and under the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed, with full liberty, power, and authority to win, get, and work out the said mines and minerals, but by underground operations only, and so that the surface of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments be not injured thereby: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Simon, South Shields, shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the surface rents, profits, and proceeds arising from the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement one acre, or thereabouts, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Simon, South Shields, in the county of Durham, bounded on the north side by the burial ground of the said new parish of Saint Simon, South Shields, on the east side by the new road leading from Low Simonside to the Green-lanes, and on the south and west sides by other land belonging to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, which said piece or parcel of land is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed and thereon coloured pink.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Alrewas, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year, and to be in addition to the yearly sum or stipend of seventy pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to certain conditions, to the said Incumbent, under the authority of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the seventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of the same month: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Alrewas shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Alrewas aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Alrewas.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the rectory of Saint John, Canton, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, one yearly sum or stipend of forty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year, and to be in addition to the yearly sum or stipend of eighty pounds heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, subject to certain conditions, to the said Incumbent, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the second day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of forty pounds so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint John, Canton, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint John, Canton aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and rectory of Saint John, Canton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

Agricultural Department, Privy Council Office, 14th December, 1883.

In the Matter of the Railway Companies Act, 1867, and in the Matter of the Cornwall Minerals Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on the 11th day of December, 1883, a scheme of arrangement between the above-named Company and their creditors, containing provisions for the issue of the sum of £343,000 A Debenture Stock, bearing interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, and the sum of £147,000 B Debenture Stock, bearing interest at the rate of 3½ per cent. per annum, and for the payment off out of the proceeds of a part thereof of the existing mortgages of the Company (except a mortgage for £500), and of the mortgages of the Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Company, and for the conversion into such new debenture stocks of the said mortgage for £500, and of the existing debenture stocks of the Company, and of the 5 per cent. rent charge stock issued by the Company, such conversion as to the existing £41,025 5 per cent. Debenture Stock to be at the option of the holders thereof, and for the reduction of the 6 per cent. preferential interest on the existing £375,000 preference stock to 4 per cent., and for the issue of £185,000 further 4 per cent preference stock to rank pari passu with the existing preference stock, and for the issue of £125,000 further ordinary stock, and for the conversion into such new preference stock of the existing £75,000 5 per cent. preference stock, and of the existing £18,000 shares of the Newquay and Cornwall Junction Railway Company, and for the liquidation of the arrears of interest on the Company's mortgages and debenture stocks and other debts owing by the Company, but not otherwise containing any provisions for settling the rights of any classes of shareholders as among themselves, was filed in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice; and a copy of the said scheme will be furnished to any person requiring the same, by the undersigned, or at the office of the Company, at 9, Victoria-chambers, in the city of Westminster, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.

Cope and Co., 3, Great George-street, Westminster, Solicitors for the Company.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division. In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of Herbert E. Hounsell Limited.

BY an Order made in the above matters by the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division (Mr. Justice Kay), dated the 9th of November, 1883, on the petition of the above-named Company, it was ordered that the reduction of the capital of the Company therein mentioned be confirmed. Now, in pursuance of the said Order, notice is hereby given, that registration of the said Order, and of a Minute showing that the capital of the Company is now £49,000, divided into 7,000 shares of £7 each, of which 2,614 are to be deemed fully paid up, and the remaining 4,386 have not been issued, has been duly registered with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.—Dated this 10th day of December, 1883.

Miller and Miller, 13, Sherborne-lane, in the city of London, Solicitors for the said Company.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division. Mr. Justice Pearson.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, and in the Matter of the City and District Bank of London Limited.

MR. JUSTICE PEARSON has by an Order, dated the 21st day of September, 1883, appointed William Cornish Cooper, of No. 20, King's Arms-yard, Moorgate-street, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, to be Official Liquidator of the above-named Company.—Dated this 8th day of December, 1883.
