Sir Henry Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by Treaty, Capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means Her Majesty the Queen has power and jurisdiction in the Regency of Tunis; and whereas the exercise of the power and jurisdiction aforesaid is now regulated by an Order of Her Majesty in Council made the 12th day of December 1873 and several amending Orders in Council, and by the Ottoman (Tunis) Order in Council of 1891, establishing Her Britannic Majesty's Court for Tunis.

And whereas by virtue of certain laws of the French Republic and of certain Decrees of His Highness the Bey of Tunis, French tribunals have been established in the Regency.

and the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of December, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three in the words following; that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James situate at Tebay in the parish of Orton in the county of Westmorland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James situate at Tebay aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Orton which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the township of Tebay, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James situate at Tebay as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James Tebay.'

"And with the like consent of the said Harvey Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James situate at Tebay as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

Privy Council Office, December 31, 1883.

THE following Statutes, made by the Governing Body of the College of St. John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge, on the 4th December, 1883, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

A STATUTE to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the College of St. John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 4th day of December 1883 and passed at such meeting by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute 30 framed by the Commissioners under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the College of St. John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge they enacted as follows:

"There shall be sixty Scholarships on the Foundation of the College, of the annual value of not less than fifty pounds each.
The Council may admit any additional Scholars in virtue of any new benefactions, but such additional Scholars shall be "admitted only subject to the same rules and regulations as the Foundation Scholars of the College.

"The election to the Foundation Scholarships shall be made every year, on some day in June to be fixed by the Council, or on such other day as the Council shall appoint, provided that in the latter case they shall have given notice thirty days beforehand of the day so appointed.

"The Foundation Scholars shall be chosen from the Students of the College, or from such other persons, and of such standing respectively, as the Council shall think fit.

"They shall be chosen with special reference to their learning, ability, and moral character. Their intellectual qualifications shall be ascertained in such manner as the Council shall from time to time determine; and the Council may at any time, if they think fit, give a preference in adjudging one or more of such Scholarships to excellence in one or more of the learned or Oriental languages, or in special departments of Mathematics or of Physical Science, or in any other branch of the University studies.

"All vacancies in Scholarships shall be filled up not later than the second annual election of Scholars after they occur; and the income of any vacant Scholarship accruing between the first and second annual elections of Scholars after such Scholarship becomes vacant shall be expended in Exhibitions payable to such Students and during such periods as the Council shall determine.

"These Scholarships shall be tenable till the Scholar in each case shall become of standing to be an Inceptor in Arts, or till he shall become a Fellow of the College, or of any other College, and no longer.

"The election of the Foundation Scholars shall be vested in the Council, and shall be conducted in the same manner and governed by the same rules as the election of Fellows.

"On the day after their election the Scholars shall be admitted, and shall make a declaration as follows:

"Ego, NN., huic Collegio Divi Johannis promitto ac spondeo me omnia hujus Collegii statuta, præscriptiones, ritus, consuetudines laudabiles servaturum; præterea me huic Collegio fidelem futurum; nec ullum ei damnum ante incommodum allaturum; Magistro insuper et Præsidi reliquisque qui mihi præficiuntur, in omnibus legitimis honestisque, morem gesturum et dignam debitamque legibus et statutis omnibus reverentiam exhibiturum. Hæc omnia in me recipio meque sedulo facturum promitto ac spondeo."

And whereas it appears to us The Master and Fellows of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that these enactments restrict the discretionary powers of the Council of the said College and thereby unnecessarily and injuriously limit the assistance which may be given to Scholars and that the object of these enactments namely the advancement of education religion learning and research and also the diminution to deserving Students of the expense of a University education may be better served and the educational objects of the College advanced by conferring on the Council of the said College greater powers for regulating the tenure and emoluments of the Scholars of the said College We the said Master and Fellows of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given to us by the 54th Section of the said Act amend the said Statute 30 as hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the Statute following that is to say

"There shall be sixty Scholarships on the Foundation of the College.

"The annual value of each Scholarship shall be not less than forty pounds (£40) not more than one hundred pounds (£100); and the whole sum so distributed in Scholarships out of the income of the College shall be not less than two thousand seven hundred pounds (£2700) in each year.

"A person elected Scholar shall not begin to enjoy the emoluments of a Scholarship until he has been admitted as Scholar, nor, (unless the tenure of his Scholarship shall have been specially prolonged under powers hereinafter contained,) shall he in any case continue to enjoy the emoluments of his Scholarship beyond the end of the twelfth term from and including the Michaelmas Term of the academical year in which the Scholar commenced residence; or from and including the Term in which he commenced residence, if the Council shall by special resolution so determine. The Council may if they think fit prolong the tenure of a Scholarship until the Scholar is of standing to be an Inceptor in Arts or for any shorter period. And every Scholar shall vacate his Scholarship upon admission to a Fellowship in the College; or to a Fellowship in any other College or University in the United Kingdom, the emolument of which exceeds one hundred pounds (£100) per annum.

"No Scholar elected before commencing residence shall continue to hold his Scholarship for more than six Terms after he has been admitted as Scholar unless and until the tenure of his Scholarship shall have been prolonged by the Council after he has commenced residence: nor shall he receive from his Scholarship a larger sum than eighty pounds (£80) per annum unless and until such larger sum shall have been assigned to him by the Council after he has commenced residence.

"The tenure of every Scholarship and the payment of the sum per annum assigned to each Scholar shall be contingent upon residence good conduct and application to study according as the orders and rules made by the Council shall from time to time require. And the Council may if they think fit suspend a Scholar from the enjoyment of his emoluments for a time not exceeding six months or reduce the annual value of his Scholarship. But they shall not shorten the tenure of his Scholarship except by a resolution in which not less than nine votes (the Master's vote being counted as two) shall have concurred.

"The election of the Scholars shall be vested in the Council and shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by these Statutes for the election of Fellows.

"The Scholars shall be chosen from the Students of the College, or from such other persons, and of such standing respectively, as the Council shall think fit.

"They shall be chosen with special reference to their learning, ability, and moral character. Their intellectual qualifications

"shall be ascertained in such manner as the Council shall from time to time determine. The election to the Scholarships shall be made every year, on some day in June, to be fixed by the Council, or on such other day as the Council shall appoint, provided that in the latter case they shall have given notice thirty days beforehand of the day so appointed.

"Persons so elected shall be admitted as Scholars as soon as conveniently may be after their election; provided that no person shall be so admitted before he has commenced residence. Each Scholar elect shall before admission make and sign a declaration as follows:

"I A. B. elected Scholar do solemnly promise that I will submit myself cheerfully to the discipline of the College, and obey its orders, according to the Statutes. So far as in me lies, I will endeavour, by diligence and innocency of life, to promote its peace, honour and well-being, as a place of education, religion and learning."

"After this declaration he shall be admitted by the Master, or in his absence by the President, and shall enter upon the emoluments of his Scholarship.

"All vacancies in Scholarships shall be filled up not later than the second annual election of Scholars after they occur; and the income of any vacant Scholarship accruing between the first and second annual elections of Scholars after such Scholarship becomes vacant shall be applied to increase the value of the remaining Scholarships in such manner as the Council shall determine."

Given under our Common Seal this eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

A STATUTE to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to The College of St. John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 4th day of December 1883 and passed at such meeting by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute 43 framed by the Commissioners under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the College of St. John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge they enacted as follows:—

"The income of the College, after payment of the ordinary expenses, including all commissions allowed by these Statutes, and of such stipends and salaries to the Lecturers and other officers and the servants of the College as shall have been fixed by the Council, shall be paid, applied, and distributed as follows, that is to say;

"To the Master a fixed annual stipend of seven hundred and ninety pounds as provided by the Statute for that purpose.

"To each of the Scholars such annual payment, not being less than fifty pounds, as the Council shall determine.

"To each of the Minor Scholars such “ annual payment, not being less than fifty pounds nor more than eighty pounds, as the Council shall determine.

 “ To each of the nine Sizar such annual payment (if any) as the Council shall from time to time determine.
 “ And subject to these payments, and to the payment in each year to the University of the sum authorized and directed by the Statutes of the University to be charged upon the College, and to such other payments as in the judgment of the Council may be required for the purposes of the College, and the management or improvement of its estates and property, there shall be paid :—
 “ To every Fellow of the College such sum as the Council shall fix for the dividend of the year, not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds.
 “ To the Master a sum equal to three and three-fifths times the amount of such dividend.
 “ To each Member of the Council a sum equal to one-fifth of such dividend, in addition to his dividend.
 “ Provided, that if any person shall have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer of the College, for a part only of the year, he shall be entitled only to one-fourth part of his annual stipend, dividend, or allowance for each quarter of the year, or part of a quarter greater than a half, during which he may have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer.
 “ All Fellows of the College shall be entitled, in addition to such dividend as is above provided, to rooms and commons, if in residence, or to such pecuniary allowances in lieu thereof as the Council shall from time to time determine.”

And whereas it appears to us The Master and Fellows of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that so much of the said Statute as relates to the Foundation Scholars the purpose whereof is to secure to the Scholars the due payment of their emoluments will be more fully secured by the amended Statute hereinafter set out while the general educational objects of the College will be advanced by the greater freedom thereby conferred. Such amended Statute being taken in connection with the amended Statute 30 We The Master and Fellows of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act alter and amend the said Statute 43 hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the Statute following that is to say

“ The income of the College, after payment of the ordinary expenses, including all commons allowed by these Statutes, and of such stipends and salaries to the Lecturers and other officers and the Servants of the College as shall have been fixed by the Council, shall be paid, applied, and distributed as follows, that is to say :
 “ To the Master a fixed annual stipend of seven hundred and ninety pounds (£790) as provided by the Statute for that purpose.
 “ To each of the Scholars such annual payment, not being less than forty pounds (£40), as the Council shall subject to the provisions of Statute 30 determine, the whole sum so distributed in Scholarships “ being not less than two thousand seven hundred pounds (£2700) in each year.

“ To each of the Minor Scholars such annual payment not being less than fifty pounds (£50) nor more than eighty pounds (£80), as the Council shall determine.

“ To each of the nine Sizar such annual payment (if any) as the Council shall from time to time determine.

“ And subject to these payments, and to the payment in each year to the University of the sum authorised and directed by the Statutes of the University to be charged upon the College, and to such other payments as in the judgment of the Council may be required for the purposes of the College, and the management or improvement of its estates and property, there shall be paid :—

“ To every Fellow of the College such sum as the Council shall fix for the dividend of the year, not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds (£250).

“ To the Master a sum equal to three and three-fifths times the amount of such dividend.

“ To each Member of the Council a sum equal to one-fifth of such dividend, in addition to his dividend.

“ Provided, that if any person shall have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer of the College, for a part only of the year, he shall be entitled only to one-fourth part of his annual stipend, dividend, or allowance for each quarter of the year, or part of a quarter greater than a half, during which he may have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer.

“ All Fellows of the College shall be entitled, in addition to such dividend as is above provided, to rooms and commons, if in residence, or to such pecuniary allowances in lieu thereof as the Council shall from time to time determine.”
