Also, dated 12th February, 1884, that the undermentioned buoys will be placed to mark the shoal off Cape Henlopen, south side of entrance to Delaware River:—

A bell buoy, painted black, will be moored in 4 fathoms water, at the elbow of the shoal, with the following bearings:—

Cape Henlopen Principal Lighthouse, S. by W.

Delaware Breakwater Rear Lighthouse, West.

Delaware Breakwater Front Lighthouse, W. by N. $\frac{1}{4}$ N.

A first-class spar buoy, painted black, will be placed in 4 fathoms water, with the following mark and bearings:—

Cape Henlopen Principal and Beacon Lighthouses in line, S. $\frac{1}{4}$ E.

Delaware Breakwater Rear Lighthouse, W. $\frac{1}{4}$ S.

Delaware Breakwater Front Lighthouse, W. by N.

NOTE.—Vessels should pass north-eastward of these buoys. Caution should be observed in approaching this shoal, as the soundings decrease suddenly from 8 to 3 fathoms

WEST INDIES.—CUBA.—NORTH COAST.

(3.) Non-existence of Sunken Danger North-Eastward of Bahia Honda.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 78 (2), of 6th May, 1880, on a sunken danger having been reported as situated in approximately lat. 23° 6' N., long. 83° 4' W.—or about 10 miles north-eastward of Bahia Honda, north coast of Cuba:—

The Spanish Government has given notice, that the vessel of war "Bazan" has sounded over, and for about 3 miles around, the assigned position, without finding bottom at 100 fathoms. The danger therefore has been removed from the Admiralty charts.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation (1.) 10°, (2.) 5° Westerly in 1884.]

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 57.)—MEDITERRANEAN—SPAIN.—SOUTH-EAST COAST.

(1.) Alicante—Alteration in Mole Head Lights.

THE Spanish Government has given notice, that on 12th February, 1884, the following alteration was made in the harbour lights exhibited from the Mole Heads at Alicante:—

The red light previously on the East Mole is now shown from the West Mole; and the green light previously on the West Mole is now shown from the East Mole.

ITALY.—WEST COAST.—GULF OF NAPLES.

(2.) Cavallara Shoal—Provisional Bell Buoy.

With reference to Notices to Mariners, No. 8 (3), of 7th January, 1884, and No. 20 (1), of 21st January, 1884, on the temporary discontinuance of the light on Cavallara Shoal, west side of Naples Bay; and that the beacon, from which the light was exhibited, having subsequently been washed away:—

The Italian Government has given notice, that on 27th January, 1884, a bell buoy was provisionally placed on Cavallara Shoal in lieu of the beacon destroyed.

The buoy, of iron, and surmounted by a frame globe, is painted red; it will be kept in position until the beacon is re-erected.

GRECIAN ARCHIPELAGO.—MOREA.—EAST COAST.

(3.) Flashing Light on Belo Poulo.

With reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 52 (8), of 23rd February, 1883, on the intended exhibition of a light from a lighthouse erected on the summit of the north-west point of Belo Poulo (Parapola) Islet:—

The Hellenic Government has given further notice, that on 22nd February, 1884, the light would be exhibited:—

The light is a flashing white light, showing a flash every minute in the following order—a flash of about nine seconds' duration, followed by a faint light for about fifty-one seconds; it is obscured through an arc of 23°, or between the bearings of N. 10° E. and N. 13° W.

The light is elevated 367 feet above the sea, and should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 26 miles. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses.

The lighthouse, 33 feet high, consists of a square tower above the keeper's dwelling.

Position on Admiralty chart, lat. 36° 55' 35" N., long. 32° 27' 00" E.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Arminghall, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Luke, Mile End Old Town, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Luke, Mile End Old Town, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of executing certain works to be approved by us in connection with the parsonage house and premises belonging to the said vicarage, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Luke, Mile End Old Town.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint George, Mickley, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Newcastle, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint George, Mickley, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Saint Anne, Haughton, situate partly in the county of Lancaster, and partly in the county of Chester, and wholly in the diocese of Manchester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Anne, Haughton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London-Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the vicarage of Saint Michael, Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the said vicarage of Saint Michael, Wood Green, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, or the Bishop of Bedford, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed, has been employed and has performed services to the satisfaction of the Bishop of London, or the Bishop of Bedford, within the parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Michael, Wood Green.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Barnabas, Birmingham, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common, shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Archbishop of Canterbury, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Archbishop, has been employed within the parish of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Bromley Common.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of All Saints, Friern Barnet, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of fifty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of All Saints, Friern Barnet, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof; our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, of one hundred and eighty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of St. Mary-le-More with All Hallows, Wallingford, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of six pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Saint Mary-le-More with All Hallows, Wallingford, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of six pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

Borough of West Bromwich.
The Tramways Act, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that pursuant to the provisions of the above Act, the Council of the Borough of West Bromwich have settled and approved the following Bye-laws and Regulations, viz. :—

1. The driver of every carriage shall drive the same at a rate not less than five miles and not more than eight miles in the hour upon the average, except where otherwise provided by the Board of Trade; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall interfere with the operation of the 57th section of the Wednesbury and West Bromwich Tramways Order, 1881, regulating the passage of cars or other tramway vehicles past any church or other place of worship during the hours of Divine service.

2. The driver of every carriage shall drive the same so that it shall not follow a preceding carriage at a less distance than one hundred yards along any portion of the line of the tramway.

3. Every driver or conductor of a carriage shall stop the same when required so to do by any passenger desirous of leaving the carriage, or by any person desirous of travelling by the carriage and for whom there is room.

4. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of the above Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings: Provided nevertheless, that the Justices or Court before whom any complaint may be made for a breach of any of the foregoing rules or regulations may, if they think fit, reduce the amount of penalty hereinbefore prescribed as they may deem advisable.

These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 31st day of May, 1884.

Dated this 18th day of March, 1884.

Alfd. Caddick, Town Clerk.

JNO. POOLE, 7, Lawson-street, Barrow-in-Furness.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Vice-Chancellor Bacon.—1883, H. No. 5444.

Between Charles Hillman, Plaintiff, and Edmund Turner, Defendant.

To Edmund Turner, of Goldstone-villas, Cliftonville, Hove, in the county of Sussex.

TAKE notice, that Charles Hillman, of Lewes, in the county of Sussex aforesaid, has commenced an action against you in the Chancery Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England, by writ of that Court, dated the 12th day of December, A.D. 1883, which writ is endorsed as follows:—The plaintiff's claim is to have an account taken of what is due to him for principal and interest and costs on a mortgage, dated the 4th July, 1881, and made between the plaintiff of the one part and the defendant of the other part, and that the mortgage may be enforced by foreclosure, and also take notice, that by an order made in the said action on the 29th February, 1884, by his Honour, the Vice-Chancellor Sir James Bacon, it is ordered that the publication by advertisement of the said writ of summons and of the said order be deemed good service of the said writ on you the said defendant. You are therefore required within eight days after the date hereof, inclusive of the day of such date, to defend the said action by causing an appearance to be entered for you in the said Court to the said action, and in default of your so doing the said Charles Hillman may proceed therein, and judgment may be given in your absence. You may appear to the said writ by entering an appearance personally, or by your Solicitor, at the Central office, Royal Courts of Justice, London.—Dated this 21st day of March, 1884.
