To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Haydon, in the county of Dorset, and in the diocese of Salisbury, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Catherine.

And whereas the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and John Digby Wingfield Digby, of Coleshill Park, in the county of Warwick, Esquire, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Haydon, and the Reverend John Stone, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar of the same vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands bearing date on or about the twenty-fourth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Haydon, that the said new church of Saint Catherine, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Catherine) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said George, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, and of the said John Digby Wingfield Digby, and of the said John Stone, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Catherine, situate within the said parish of Haydon, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Catherine as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Haydon, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Catherine, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Catherine so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Catherine as aforesaid) of the said parish of Haydon or of or belonging to the vicar or incumbent thereof to the said new church of Saint Catherine (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Haydon), and to the vicar or incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said George, Bishop of the said diocese of Salisbury, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said John Digby Wingfield Digby and John Stone have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this thirteenth day of December, in the year

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the effect of the concentration of the solution on the rate of reaction. The rate of reaction was measured by the volume of gas evolved per unit time. The concentration of the solution was varied by changing the amount of the solid reactant used. The results are given in the following table:

Concentration of Solution (g/l)	Rate of Reaction (ml gas/min)
1.0	1.0
2.0	2.0
3.0	3.0
4.0	4.0
5.0	5.0
6.0	6.0
7.0	7.0
8.0	8.0
9.0	9.0
10.0	10.0
