a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for dividing into two portions that Archdeaconry within the diocese of York which is called the Archdeaconry of York, or the West Riding, and for constituting each of such portions a separate Archdeaconry and for assigning a district thereto and for providing an endowment for the Archdeaconry herein after recommended and proposed to be created.

“And whereas we have considered the said representation of the said Archbishop and it appears to us to be expedient that the said Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding should be divided and that the division so to be made of the same Archdeaconry should be that which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

Now therefore with the consent of the said William Archbishop of York (in testimony of which consent he has set his hand and his archiepiscopal seal to this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said present Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding shall be divided into and become two separate Archdeaconries; and that, as from the day aforesaid, one of the said two separate Archdeaconries shall continue to be styled as heretofore the Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding and shall comprise and consist of the several Rural Deaneries, seven in number which are named in the First Schedule to this scheme annexed and that, as from the day aforesaid, the other of the said two separate Archdeaconries shall be styled ‘The Archdeaconry of Sheffield’ and shall comprise and consist of the several Rural Deaneries four in number, which are named in the Second Schedule to this scheme annexed.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Rural Deans and all other the clergy and inhabitants of either of the said two Archdeaconries, shall be exempted and released from the jurisdiction authority and control of the Archdeacon for the time being of the other of the said two Archdeaconries, and shall be under and subject to the jurisdiction authority and control of the Archdeacon for the time being of the Archdeaconry of which they shall be inhabitants.

“And we further recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us the said Commissioners on the first day of January in each and every year out of the common fund, created by the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, to the Archdeacon for the time being of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Sheffield, a sum of two hundred pounds in respect of the twelve calendar months ended on that day. Provided always that the first payment to be made by us as aforesaid to the Archdeacon of the said proposed Archdeaconry of Sheffield shall be proportional in amount to the period which shall have elapsed between the date of the institution of the Archdeacon receiving the same payment and the first day of January next following the date of such institution and provided also that every such yearly payment as aforesaid shall be apportionable between an Archdeacon (or as the case may be, the representatives of an Archdeacon) who has resigned or otherwise avoided his Archdeaconry on any day of the year other than the first day of January, and the Archdeacon who shall next thereafter be instituted to the same Archdeaconry and provided further that every such yearly payment as aforesaid shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who is (or whose representatives are) to receive it has during the previous twelve months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing hereafter to Your Majesty in Council any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The FIRST SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The Archdeaconry of York or the West Riding, comprising and consisting of the following Rural Deaneries:—

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a certain portion hereinafter described of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton in the county of Hereford and in the diocese of Hereford and the church thereof.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton is held as follows—that is to say the next two consecutive turns of presentation and every other alternate turn thereafter are vested in William Henry Barneby of Bredenbury Court in the said county of Hereford Esquire his heirs and assigns and the third turn of presentation and every other alternate turn thereafter is vested in the Bishop of Hereford and his successors.

“And whereas the said William Henry Barneby has to our satisfaction made a certain augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton upon the understanding that after such augmentation made we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that so much of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of or presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton as is vested in the Bishop of Hereford and his successors as aforesaid should be transferred from him the said Bishop and his successors to and should be vested in him the said William Henry Barneby and his heirs and assigns.

“And whereas we are of opinion that the said augmentation will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls within the parishes of Bredenbury and Wacton being the parishes in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises or exists.

“And whereas the Right Reverend James now Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford is willing both as patron (to the extent aforesaid) of the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton and as Bishop of the diocese wherein the same benefice is situate that the said proposed transfer shall be made and in token of such his willingness he the said James Bishop of Hereford has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony of which consent he the said Archbishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) and with the consent of the said James Bishop of Hereford acting both as such patron as aforesaid of the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton and also as Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (in testimony of which consent he the said Bishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and also with the consent of the said William Henry Barneby as such other patron of the said benefice as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order so much of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton which is now as aforesaid vested in the Bishop of Hereford and his successors shall be transferred from him the said James Bishop of Hereford and from his successors in the See of Hereford and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Henry Barneby and his heirs and assigns for ever, so that upon and as from such transfer the whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton shall be absolutely vested in the said William Henry Barneby and his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty chapter sixty-three and of the Bishoprick of Saint Albans Act one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and of the Bishopricks Act one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words and figures following, that is to say;

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven and of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Your Majesty chapter sixty-three and of the Bishoprick of Saint Albans Act 1875 and of the Bishopricks Act 1878, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for providing an endowment for the Archdeaconry of Saint Albans within the diocese of Saint Albans.

"Whereas by an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the sixth day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two and published in the London Gazette of the fourteenth day of the same month the then Archdeaconry of Rochester and Saint Albans was divided and one part thereof became and now is the Archdeaconry of Rochester within the diocese of Rochester and the other part (being so much of the said Archdeaconry of Rochester and Saint Albans as is within the diocese of Saint Albans) again became as the same had been aforetime the Archdeaconry of Saint Albans.

"And whereas the Venerable Anthony Grant theretofore Archdeacon of Rochester and Saint Albans became after the gazetting of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council, Archdeacon of the said revived Archdeaconry of Saint Albans.

"And whereas by virtue of the lastly hereinbefore mentioned Act the said Anthony Grant continued as Archdeacon of Saint Albans to hold up to the time of his decease the canonry in Rochester Cathedral which had been held by him as Archdeacon of Rochester and Saint Albans.

"And whereas the said Anthony Grant departed this life on the twenty-fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

"And whereas by virtue of the Bishoprick of Saint Albans Act 1875 hereinbefore mentioned the said canonry in Rochester Cathedral is now annexed to the said Archdeaconry of Rochester.

"And whereas the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans has not at present any endowment beyond an annual pension or sum of one pound three shillings and four pence heretofore chargeable on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom but now payable and paid by us the said Commissioners to the Archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry under the provisions of the Act of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of Your Majesty chapter fifty-seven.

"And whereas the Venerable Walter John Lawrance now Rector of the parish of Saint Albans in the county of Herts has been appointed and now is Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh Bishop of Saint Albans (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that we be authorised to pay yearly and every year out of the common fund created by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans, the sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence such yearly payment to be made on the first day of January in every year in respect of the twelve months ended that day; Provided always that the first payment made in respect of the said sum of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds sixteen shillings and eight pence per annum shall be proportioned in amount to the period which shall have elapsed between the date of the collation of the said Walter John Lawrance to the said archdeaconry of Saint Albans and the first day of January in the year following that event, and Provided also that every such yearly payment as aforesaid shall be apportionable as between an archdeacon (or the representatives of an archdeacon) avoiding the said Archdeaconry of Saint Albans on any other day than the first day of January in any year and the archdeacon next collated to the same archdeaconry, and Provided also that every such yearly payment shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies (or whose representatives apply) for it, has during the previous year complied with the conditions as to residence which at the date of such application are required by law.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing relating to the matters aforesaid in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of April, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul situate within the limits of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Luke Gloucester situate partly in the city and

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke Gloucester and of the said new parish of Saint James Gloucester, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his See both of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Luke Gloucester and of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James Gloucester (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Luke Gloucester, and of the said new parish of Saint James, Gloucester which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Paul situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Paul Gloucester.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

Also, with reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 331, of 31st October, 1883, on the exhibition of a provisional light on Fourth Point (Tanjong Tiikoening), Java:—

Further notice has been given, dated 15th March, 1884, of the intended re-exhibition of a permanent light from a lighthouse to be erected on Fourth Point, in place of that destroyed during the eruption of Krakatoa, on 27th August, 1883:—

The light will be a fixed white light of the second order, visible in clear weather from a distance of 18 miles.

Position lat. $6^{\circ} 4' 20''$ S., long. $105^{\circ} 52' 50''$ E.

Also, that on the exhibition of the permanent light, the provisional light now shown will be discontinued.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 65).—ENGLAND—SOUTH-EAST COAST.

South Foreland—Experimental Lights.

WITH reference to Notices to Mariners, No. 364 (1), of 6th December, 1883, and No. 25, of 26th January, 1884, on intended exhibition of experimental lights at the South Foreland, in addition to the existing electric lights:—

The Trinity House, London, has given further notice, that after 3rd April, 1884, the exhibition of the experimental lights would be commenced; and they will be visible at irregular periods, probably every night (except Sunday) during the ensuing six months.

These lights are shown from three temporary wooden towers, respectively marked A, B, and C, 180 feet apart, placed in a line bearing N.W. from South Foreland high lighthouse, the distance between the high light and the first experimental light (A) being 245 feet; consequently the permanent high and low lights are to seaward of the experimental lights.

The electric lights from the high and low light-houses are not in any way changed or interfered with,

The centre of each experimental light is about 15 feet below that of the permanent high light.

The experimental lights necessarily have varying characteristics which cannot be stated definitely.

The full strength of the experimental lights is visible northward of the South Foreland from the bearing of W.S.W. to the land; and to the south-westward from the bearing N.E. by N. in towards the land; but doubtless a considerable amount of reflected light will be visible outside these limits.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation 17° Westerly in 1884.]

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint John the Baptist, within the Parish of Ysppyty Ystwyth, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Cardigan, and Diocese of Saint David's.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Ysppyty Ystwyth, in the county of Cardigan, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint John the Baptist.

And whereas the Right Reverend William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's, and the Right Honourable Ernest Augustus Malet, Earl of Lisburne, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Ysppyty Ystwyth, and the Reverend John Jones, Clerk in Holy Orders, the vicar or incumbent of the same vicarage, have, by an instrument under their hands bearing date on or about the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Ysppyty Ystwyth, that the said new church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint John the Baptist) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consent (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's, and of the said Ernest Augustus Malet, Earl of Lisburne, and of the said John Jones, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the said parish of Ysppyty Ystwyth, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John the Baptist as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Ysptyty Ystwyth, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint John the Baptist so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as herein-after mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John the Baptist as aforesaid) of the said parish of Ysptyty Ystwyth or of or belonging to the vicar or incumbent thereof to the said new church of Saint John the Baptist (now being, by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Ysptyty Ystwyth), and to the vicar or incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said William Basil, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Ernest Augustus Malet, Earl of Lisburne, and the said John Jones have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.
