

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of April, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Wadsley in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

“Whereas by the authority of an instrument bearing date on or about the thirtieth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, a part of the parish of Ecclesfield in the county and diocese aforesaid was assigned as a particular district to the consecrated church situate at Wadsley within the limits of the said parish of Ecclesfield and the same particular district was called ‘The Particular District of Wadsley.’

“And whereas the said particular district of Wadsley has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Wadsley should be altered by way of extension so that they shall include a further part of the said parish of Ecclesfield.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation the boundaries of the said new parish of Wadsley shall be altered by way of extension so that they include all that part of the said parish of Ecclesfield which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto appended and is thereon coloured pink and that from and after the day of the same date and without any assurance in law other than such duly gazetted Order the said part of the parish of Ecclesfield so to be included as aforesaid shall become and be and form part of the said new parish of Wadsley.

“And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

“The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Wadsley in the county of York and in the diocese of York being:—

All that part of the parish of Ecclesfield in the said county and diocese wherein the present incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the south-east and on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Wadsley from the parish of Ecclesfield aforesaid at the point where Fox Hill-road joins the high-road from Sheffield to Grenoside at the northern end of the bridge which carries the line of the Manchester Sheffield and Lincolnshire Railway over the said high road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same high road for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to its junction on the south-western side of the Parson Cross School with the public footpath which leads towards Birley Carr and extending thence, that is from the last-described point of junction north-westward along the middle of the said public footpath for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Ecclesfield from the new parish of Wadsley aforesaid.

“All which said hereinbefore described part of the parish of Ecclesfield aforesaid, is bounded on the remaining side that is say on the west by the new parish of Wadsley aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the two cures of Wadsley and Ecclesfield affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and the incumbents of both the said cures and the patrons of the cure of Wadsley have respectively signified their assent thereto but the patron of the cure of Ecclesfield has offered certain objections or observations to or upon the said scheme or representation.

And whereas notwithstanding such objections or observations the said scheme or representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.
