

bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say :—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a certain portion hereinafter described of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton in the county of Hereford and in the diocese of Hereford and the church thereof.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton is held as follows—that is to say the next two consecutive turns of presentation and every other alternate turn thereafter are vested in William Henry Barneby of Bredenbury Court in the said county of Hereford Esquire his heirs and assigns and the third turn of presentation and every other alternate turn thereafter is vested in the Bishop of Hereford and his successors.

"And whereas the said William Henry Barneby has to our satisfaction made a certain augmentation of the income of the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton upon the understanding that after such augmentation made we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that so much of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of or presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton as is vested in the Bishop of Hereford and his successors as aforesaid should be transferred from him the said Bishop and his successors to and should be vested in him the said William Henry Barneby and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas we are of opinion that the said augmentation will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls within the parishes of Bredenbury and Wacton being the parishes in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises or exists.

"And whereas the Right Reverend James now Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford is willing both as patron (to the extent aforesaid) of the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton and as Bishop of the diocese wherein the same benefice is situate that the said proposed transfer shall be made and in token of such his willingness he the said James Bishop of Hereford has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony of which consent he the said Archbishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) and with the consent of the said James Bishop of Hereford acting both as such patron as aforesaid of the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton and also as Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (in testimony of which consent he the said Bishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and also with the consent of the said William Henry Barneby as such other patron of the said benefice as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order so much of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton which is now as aforesaid vested in the Bishop of Hereford and his successors shall be transferred from him the said James Bishop of Hereford and from his successors in the See of Hereford and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Henry Barneby and his heirs and assigns for ever, so that upon and as from such transfer the whole advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bredenbury with Wacton shall be absolutely vested in the said William Henry Barneby and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Hereford.
